Men's wash neckties, 3 for 50c—Morton's.

Mrs. C. J. Howe and son Ted were Portland visitors Saturday.

No. 1 16in wood.—See Cary Real Estate Co. 7-27-3

Ladies! Have you seen the new Hope Hampton felt hats at Morton's?

H. L. McKenney left, Saturday, for his ranch at Condon in eastern Oregon.

I am now prepared to do all kinds of watch, clock and jewelry repairing.—A. N. Johnson. 15-1f

Mrs. Miller, daughter of Mrs. N. M. Tracy, arrived from Portland Sunday evening to visit her mother.

"Eat more fresh vegetables and fruit and live longer." We always have them. McKenney.

See Mrs. J. E. Gates for piano instruction. Prices reasonable. I. O. O. F. building. 5-4f

S. H. Obert, the son of Mrs. A. Baumgardner, arrived last week for a visit with her. He is from Los Gatos, California.

H. C. Craig spent the week end at the parental home here. He is learning the plumber's trade in Portland.

G. E. Lawrence arrived Saturday for a week end visit with his family. He is managing the Peterson laundry at North Bend in Coos county.

F. H. Hogan, who has been managing the dining room at the Hotel Estacada for some weeks, has resigned and W. F. Cary is conducting the same.

Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Lawrence of Portland visited the parents of the former, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Lawrence, and his brothers Sylvester and Gordon, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Tebbits of Portland were staying a few days last week at the Estacada. They seemed to like it here and may pay another visit before long.

We have received a copy of the Daily Times Advocate published at Escondido, California, which announces the arrival of George B. Weatherby and wife.

Mrs. E. T. Jones arrived last Thursday from Portland, to stay with her son, W. R. Jones, who lives on the Garfield road about a mile from town.

R. S. Coop of Currinsville attended the campmeeting of the Reorganized Latter Day Saints, at Peninsula Park, Sunday. Mrs. Coop will go there towards the end of the week to remain a few days.

Mrs. B. C. Crawford, Miss Louvena Crawford and Oscar Crawford went to Portland, Sunday morning. The last two returned the same evening but Mrs. Crawford remained to visit with friends a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Elott entertained a number of Portland guests over the week end. They were Mrs. Dr. L. R. Purkey, Mrs. Lynn Gollehur, Messrs Graham Sharkey and Raymond Beeson. Mr. and Mrs. David Beeson and family also spent Sunday with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerome W. Howard and their two little daughters were camping on the city hall flat a few days last week. They are taking an auto vacation trip, and started for Mt. Hood, but the roads proved too rough so they switched off to Estacada. Mr. Howard for the past three years has been superintendent of the State School for the blind at Salem. He says the school has forty-six pupils, who are taught trades and other occupations so they can support themselves. These institutions for the afflicted are doing an exceedingly valuable work and support given them by taxation should not be grudged, as it is money well expended in this way.

Local Belles Get Busy

To the Editor:—We are asking that you get in touch with your local photographer, or with young women of your community who are eligible, and endeavor to procure one or more entries. It is important that Oregon outside of Portland be well represented, as the contest is state-wide.

The conditions are simple: Contestants must be unmarried, 16 years of age or over, and bona fide residents of Oregon. Obviously it is required that they be pretty, as it would be worse than useless to submit one who would have no chance of winning.

The Oregonian is publishing, daily, a coupon for entrants, which should be properly filled out and pasted on the back of a suitable photograph. Entrants should be urged to send in their photographs without further delay, as the contest is to close August 15, with the award to be announced August 21.

Beauty Contest Editor,
The Oregonian.

Records Have Arrived

The records of the National Record Exchange have arrived at J. K. Ely's. They comprise a considerable variety suitable to all tastes. Buy one for 75 cents and then when you are tired of it exchange it for another by paying only 10 cents.

Auto Camp

It has been suggested to the writer that an auto camp could be made on the flat by the city hall, if it were cleaned up, and water put in, and some other conveniences. If this were done and the fact advertised, it would bring a number of tourists. A small charge might be made to help pay the expense of fitting out the camp. The idea is a good one and submitted to the council for its respectful consideration.

Among those who were burned out in the Marshfield fire is the Super-Kandle Co., manufacturers of culvert tile. This is the company with which Charles Kandle is associated.

Eye Injured

The two sons of D. E. Mengenhall, Thomas and Walter, were fishing Friday. The former was casting with his rod, while his younger brother was a few feet below him, hidden from view. As Thomas made the cast Walter turned towards him and the hook caught in his left eyeball, but fortunately not deeply and the boys were able to remove it. On reaching home the eye was dressed and the sufferer taken to Portland, Saturday, to have it examined and treated by an eye specialist. It is not thought that the injury will prove serious.

Otis Wagner went to Seattle, Wash., last Friday returning Tuesday.
