

BARTON ITEMS

Rev. and Mrs. Collard and Mr. and Mrs. Gus Whitehead were the dinner guests at the Jens Pedersen home Sunday.

Miss Bodway is teaching the school term here this year and making her home with Mr. and Mrs. George Turner.

George Forman, George Turner and Mr. Christensen all filled their silos recently.

Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Pezneckner from Estacada stopped for dinner at the Forman home Friday, being on their way to their new home at Vancouver, Wash. Mr. and Mrs. Forman regret to see them leave Estacada but hope it is for the best.

Frank Forman and Pauline Zogg, who were married recently is a brother to George Forman and was a former resident of Barton where he grew to manhood and gained his education in the Barton schools. About 18 years ago he took up a homestead at Antelope where he has since resided.

Mrs. George Forman is not in very good health yet.

Some Cabbage

The United Artisans will give a dance in the park pavilion on Thanksgiving eve. See papers and bills for further announcements.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Class meetings have been very popular this week on account of the individual classes preparing for the football rally, Wednesday evening. The high school students appreciate the enthusiasm shown by the townspeople.

The E. H. S. football boys will journey to Hillsboro, Friday October 6th, to meet the high school team of that city. Are you going to go and root for our team? They have been faithfully practicing and deserve your support.

The high school registration up to date is one hundred and fourteen.

There will be only two days of school next week (Monday and Tuesday) as the County Institute will be held the last of the week at Oregon City.

FRESHMAN PARTY

The Freshmen held their class party in the Auditorium, Friday evening, September 29th. The room was decorated with their class colors, orange and black, and the prettiest flowers of the season. Many lively games were played as only Freshmen can play them. Mr. and Mrs. Percy Dawe entertained the class with some mysterious Black Art games. The Freshmen now feel they understand the mysteries of Black Art.

After partaking of delicious refreshments the class wended its way home at ten P. M.

The chaperones for the party were Miss Ivy Peterson, class advisor, Miss Atkinson and Mr. and Mrs. Percy Dawe.

Fire Prevention Week

By proclamation of the governor the week of October 7 to 14 has been set aside as fire prevention week. Mayors, fire chiefs, schools and civic organizations are urged to undertake plans which will make the week truly effective. The object is primarily to educate the children and people generally in the need of greater care to prevent fires at all times and to improve means and methods of fire fighting and fire protection.

Governor Olcott in his proclamation setting apart and urging the observance of this week asks that special attention be given by all to the removal of anything about the home or place of business the presence of which adds to the fire hazard. He asks that the churches also aid to spread the idea by means of sermons and addresses and that the news papers help by all means possible.

To impress the need of education and work for fire prevention he states the following facts:

"Year by year the national destruction of life and property by fire has been mounting until the total annual loss of material wealth now approximates the enormous sum of $485,000,000. This means the wiping out of needed resources at the rate of about $1,370,000 a day, in addition to the destruction of 48 lives daily.

"In our own state, during the five years ended with 1920, our fire waste came to the great total of $10,395,286, a sum that would build 2,079 $5,000 homes or many miles of good roads. Thus it is evident that we are paying our full share of the tax levied by carelessness and ignorance in handling fire hazards.

"Since most fires are preventable, the devastation by burning that takes place day after day, is largely unnecessary. It goes without saying that every effort should be made to relieve the people of the self-imposed burden represented by preventable fire."
