UPPER EAGLE CREEK

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Paddison were taken completely by surprise last Saturday evening when several of their friends and neighbors came to spend the evening with them, in honor of their 23rd wedding anniversary. The crowd did not gather until about nine o'clock and when it arrived at the Paddison home they found Mr. Paddison bed and Mrs. Paddison and Miss Naoma not yet returned from Portland. Mr. Paddison was routed out of bed and he invited the people in. After the arrival of Mrs. Paddison and Naoma they danced for a time and had a fine time notwithstanding all hindrances.

Hillsboro vs. Estacada

Last Friday E. H. S. journeyed to Hillsboro to play the latter a game of football. E. H. S. was defeated in one of the most disgusting exhibitions ever witnessed on a gridiron. The game started well for E. H. S. The first four minutes netted an easy touchdown, but then—well, that is another story.

The boys from Estacada were in no training and used most of their strength in scoring at the first of the game. From then on it was everybody's game, the balance of the scoring being done on flukes and steals. Hillsboro stole a touchdown on E. H. S. in the second period, a tackle receiving the pill for a counter without dropping back the necessary yard before the ball was snapped. In the same period of play Estacada scored a safety on a Herculean pass made by the Hillsboro center high and wide over the heads of his own backfield. The first half ended Hillsboro 6 Estacada 8.

In the third period Hillsboro accepted one more touchdown as a friendly donation from Estacada, without even saying as much as "thank you." But they retaliated by making the poorest attempt at an onside kick ever executed in the whole U. S. The said onside kick landed fairly in the arms of Benji Sarver who carried it fifty yards for a touchdown. The third period ended Estacada 14, Hillsboro 12.

During the last quarter Estacada outdid Hillsboro entirely in generosity. The boys showed the best kind of sportsmanship in refusing to accept any points at all, but forced Hillsboro to take one more touchdown and the game.

The whole trouble with Estacada is the poor physical shape the boys are in, which cannot be remedied by the school alone. We need the cooperation of the parents and townspeople in general. The boys must stop smoking and observe all the training rules laid down for them.

While in Seattle the Hursts met some of their old and former friends from Oskaloosa, Iowa. Mrs. M. E. Dubois was also one of the party. They stood the trip finely and all had a good time, seeing the parks and other attractive places. However they are glad to be at home once more.

BIG S. S. RALLY AT M. E. CHURCH

The Methodist congregation in Estacada, had a gala day last Sunday at their S. S. rally. A former pastor, the Rev. H. Spies came down for the occasion. A large congregation, completely filling the auditorium to overflowing, attended. Miss Dillon sang Mendelssohn's beautiful aria from the oratorio "Elijah," "O Rest in the Lord, Wait Patiently for him."

Mr. Spies was the special preacher, and dwelt upon the importance of training up the children, illustrating from personal experiences. A basket dinner followed this service, and later in the afternoon another service was held at which a number of letters from former parishioners were read and Rev. H. F. Mort, the new pastor, and several others made short talks.

The first letter read was from Mrs. H. A. Williams of Willamina, who resided here a few years ago, when Mr. Williams was editor of the NEWS. She organized the first Sunday School in Estacada, holding the meetings in the old school building where the grade school now stands. On account of illness she was not able to be present.

The next letter was from Mrs. C. F. McPherson. Her husband the Rev. C. F. McPherson was Estacada's first Methodist pastor and helped build the church. They live now in Portland.

Another former pastor, Rev. M. B. Paroungian, and his wife of Amity, sent regrets and assurances that their interest in the work here was unabated, and their prayers were for a successful meeting.

Mrs. Howard M. James, who is teaching school at Arlington, sent regrets and remembrances. In a letter from the Rev. C. B. Rees, pastor here about eight years ago, he said that he was pleased to learn that the work here was growing, and that his family sent love and blessings to the church. He is now pastor of the Metzger church at Spokane.

The Rev. J. F. Dunlop of Falls City, sent a most inspiring letter full of good cheer.

Rev. A. F. Lacy and Mrs. Lacy wrote from their new home at Madras, saying they were present in the spirit, and expressed their deep desire for the community's welfare and progress. Mr. Lacy already feels an improvement in his throat trouble from the change of climate.

Mrs. C. W. Devore of Oakland, California, wrote she was glad to know her Estacada friends had not forgotten her. Mrs. Devore when she resided here was a devoted and untiring worker in the Sunday School. Her daughter, Bertha, who was organist in the Sunday School for some time, played last year, the pipe organ in one of Oakland's large churches.

A nice letter was sent by Miss Eva Wash of Lents, who was another devoted Sunday School worker while here.

Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Guthrie sent a message from Salem, expressing their regrets for their inability to be present. When Mr. Guthrie was connected with the Estacada schools, he was also superintendent of the Sunday School.

The day proved altogether one long to be remembered.

Change in Firm

H. C. Gohring has purchased the interest of his partner, James Smith, in the Estacada Meat Market.
