HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Two new students registered Monday, Mae Smith, senior, and Lilo Thompson, freshman.

Gresham hearing about the strength of our football team has backed out and will not play Es-tacada on Nov. 11 as had been scheduled. That date will not be vacant as Newberg has decided to try their luck here.

On Friday evening, Oct. 20, the Freshmen were entertained by the Invincibles and Crusaders at the M. E. Church.

All those receiving an average of 90 per cent or better for the three six weeks periods, will be

Grandma Saling Passes

Mrs. Artemisia Saling died early yesterday morning Oct. 25 at the extreme age of 94 years and 8 mos. The body was taken to Heppner for burial. As it was not possible to get full particulars for publication this week we postpone until next, a suitable appreciation of this venerable lady who was generally beloved.

SPRINGWATER NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Cummings and family of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bard and Mr. and Mrs. Gus Wilcox were Sunday visitors at the Folsom-Horner home.

Rev. and Mrs. Garrick of Portland visited on Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Moger.

The Rally day was well attended last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Peipka of Canby visited on Sunday with their daughter Mrs. George Perry.

Carl Zurcher and Miss Ruth Zurcher of Portland, were Sunday guests of their sister Mrs.
Joe Guttridge.

A candy pull and a general good time was held at the T. P.
McAuley prune dryer on Monday evening. About 35 were present. Mr. McAuley has been present drying prunes for the past 37 days and the social was to celebrate the closing of the dryer.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Horner are building a house on the north field of the Folsom farm, where they have 41 acres and expect to have the house finished to move into in a couple of weeks.

Brought Home the Cup

At the Clackamas County I. O. O. F. District Convention, the Estacada lodge again was awarded the cup for team work in exemplifying the first degree.
This makes the cup the permanent possession of the Estacada lodge, it having been awarded to them twice in succession. At each convention a contest is put on by the different lodges of the district, exemplifying some degree of the lodge ritual, and the prize is a silver cup.

The convention was held this year at Canby, Saturday, Oct. 21 and was largely attended. Much enthusiasm was shown in the convention and a general good time was enjoyed by all who attended. The morning was taken up with a business session and the afternoon by the contest work.

The evening session consisted of a social program with L. C.
McShane, P. G., of Hubbard, as the speaker of the evening. Several pleasing musical numbers and readings were also on the program. The next convention will be held at Sandy in April.

Library Concert

The concert given last night for the benefit of the library was high class in every respect. Unfortunately the rain affected the attendance which was slim. Dr. Emil Enna is a finished musician and composer of ability. In addition to his musical numbers he gave a talk on music for grade pupils, illustrating his remarks with selections of his own composition. Those present thoroughly enjoyed the program, which included readings by Mrs.
Reed who is an artist in her line.
Dr. Enna should be invited to come again with a full attendance assured, as evidence that Estacada does care for what is elevating and instructive.

W. C. T. U. News

A very nice benefit entertainment is being planned by the W.
C. T. U. of Estacada, to take place December 12. The entertainment will be in the form of a bazaar and the ladies are anticipating a real enjoyable as well as a profitable time. Many articles suitable for Christmas presents will be on sale. This worthy organization is working to raise their quota for the Farm Home, which of course the readers of this paper already know, is being built near Corvallis for homeless children by the W. C.
T. U. of the state.

LOCAL BREVITIES

Mrs. Viola Douglass visited Portland last Thursday.

L. V. Cleworth was a business visitor in Portland the first of the week.

The best value in rain coats to be found anywhere. $5.00 gets them at Rose's.

Jim Abbott returned from a visit, Tuesday afternoon, at Salem and points in Jefferson Co.

Miss Mildred Douglass arrived from Salem last Sunday for a short visit with her grandmother Mrs. Viola Douglass.

Mrs. Rex Ludlow returned last Friday evening from Portland where she had been visiting relatives for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. George Morrow and Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Sparks and son Andy, were out from Portland Sunday, guests at the A. E. Sparks home.

SATURDAY SPECIALS: Best grade of Sugar-cure Picnic Hams, 20c lb. Come early as the supply is limited. Remember, Saturday only, at Rose's.

Mr. and Mrs. Milt Marshal, Mrs. B. O. Sarver and Mrs. F.
C. Howe were Oregon City visitors last Thursday, going over in Mr. Marshal's new car.

Mrs. Tom Morton arrived in Portland, Saturday night from a month's visit in California. Her husband drove to Portland Sunday and brought her back home.

Mrs. May Carlton and son Raymond arrived last Thursday evening from Oakland, California, to visit at the home of her uncle, A. E. Sparks. They left on Sunday for Portland where they expect to reside.

Visitors from Portland at the Methodist parsonage over the week-end, were Mrs. J. S. Putnam, mother of Mrs. H. W.
Mort, with her nephew and niece Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Birch and two sons. Mrs. Birch is a sister of Rev. Mort.

After a short illness in one of the Portland hospitals, Mrs. Gertrude G. Hutton passed away a few days ago. Mrs. Hutton was a sister to Walter Givens and resided here for some time when the Givens family made Estacada their home a few years ago.

We have made arrangements to handle the famous Washburn Crosby Gold Medal flour, one of the highest grade hard wheat flours, made in Minneapolis. It will make better bread and more pounds of bread to the sack, because it absorbs more moisture.
The best is the cheapest in the long run. Get a sack and prove this, at Rose's, the place to buy.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Howe and Mr. Howe's mother, Mrs. Foe-hlinger from Portland, with her son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs.
Harry Foehtinger, from St. Paul, Minnesota, spent last Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Hurst in South Estacada. Mrs. Schock and her cousin, Mrs. Simmons from Portland also took dinner there. A good visit together was enjoyed by those present as all were old friends and acquaintances.

A Profitable Crop

Ginseng root is worth $10.00 a pound, and ginseng fibre $2.25 a pound. Growers who have marketable plants are reaping big returns, although it takes 5 years for the crop to come to maturity.
One man on less than a quarter acre received almost $600 for his roots and fibre.

Pavilion Dance

There will be a dance in Es-tacada park pavilion, Saturday night, Oct. 28, commencing at 8 o'clock. Kelly's orchestra of Portland will furnish the music, and lunch will be served at 12 M.
