OREGON NEWS NOTES OF GENERAL INTEREST

Principal Events of the Week Briefly Sketched for Information of Our Readers.

County assessors from 35 counties in Oregon held their annual conference at Salem last week.

The recall movement against Harvey E. Cross, county judge of Clackamas county, was lost.

Judge Charles Carey of Portland has presented to the state library at Salem, 65 copies of his work on Oregon history.

Herbert R. Satchwell, new postmaster at Shedd since October 1, age about 50 years, dropped dead from heart disease.

C. N. McArthur, for years the representative in congress for the third district, was defeated for re-election by Elton Watkins, democrat.

In the three-cornered contest for mayor of Astoria, O. B. Setters defeated M. Gorman and B. F. Stone by a plurality of approximately 400.

The first boys' and girls' industrial club to organize in Linn county for the coming year is at Franklin Butte school in the Selo neighborhood.

The port of Astoria budget committee has fixed the port tax on the 1922 roll at $233,927.70 or $32,123.30 less than the amount in last year's roll.

James S. VanWinkle, Linn county assessor and brother of Attorney-General Van Winkle, died at his home in Albany following several weeks' illness.

Twenty-one road districts of Marion county have voted special road levies aggregating $34,474.86, according to reports received at the county clerk's office.

The first of the 25 special road districts in Linn county to report the voting of a special tax for road improvement next year is Rock Creek, near Gates.

Scott & Eager of Dayton, Wash., have purchased approximately 4,400-000 board feet of yellow pine, Douglas fir and white fir in the Umatilla national forest.

The political race between George L. Quine and W. L. Cobb for county judge of Douglas county will probably not be decided until the final count is made.

The compulsory education bill which Oregon adopted at last week's election by a majority vote of more than 13,000 is to be tested in the courts for its constitutional right to live.

The pear shipping season from the Rogue river valley is about over, there being only about 20 cars yet to go. So far 1309 cars of pears have been shipped to the eastern market.

According to figures compiled by the Port of Portland, of 1,123 vessels clearing from the Columbia river during the first ten months of the present year, 913 carried the American flag.

During the month of October the Oregon Growers' association paid out of the Salem office to growers from various pools and for the packing and handling of prunes, a total of $722,- 901.67.

Wheat shipments from the Columbia river district between July 1 and November 1 reached 8,379,285 bushels, while for the same time in the 1921-22 season they were 16,776,340 bushels.

The board of directors of the lower Columbia Dairy association has fixed 51 cents a pound as the price to be paid for butterfat delivered to its As-toria creamery during the month of October.

The voters of Medford at last week's election adopted a charter amendment providing for a water commission to be appointed by the mayor and to have full control of the water department of the city.

Charles A. Bigelow, commissioner of public affairs, was re-elected and Stanhope S. Pier was elected, according to complete unofficial returns from all city precincts, for city commissioners in Portland.

C. W. Drake, 55, and William Mc-Teague, 45, are dead as the result of being struck by rocks flying from a blast at the William Von der Hellen road camp on the Crater lake highway near Prospect.

The assessment on all property in Oregon, exclusive of public utilities, upon which the levy for 1923 will be made, will be slightly lower than the present year, according to a report issued by Frank Lovell, state tax commissioner. The 1923 levy will be based on the tax rolls for 1922 and probably will be announced late in December.

SPRINGWATER NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. R. Hansen who purchased the Folsom farm arrived last Monday and are getting settled in their new home.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Horner are now located in their new home on the Dodge-Springwater road.

The Ladies Missionary Society

Saturday, after being in Canada during the harvesting season.
He is planning on leaving soon for southern Oregon to work in the logging camps.

Mr. and Mrs. Nig Stone have returned to their home after a summer at Owyer's camp which has closed until after the holidays.

Tag Day

Saturday was "tag day" for the public library and the money raised will be used to buy new books. Usually the library board has a drive once a year to secure new members, but it was dis-pensated with this year, and many whose time has expired, have not renewed, therefore "tag day" was planned. To keep up the interest in the library, it is necessary to have new books occasionally. Mrs. W. J. Moore, president of the Library Association, was the leader in the "tag day" movement, her assistants being Mrs. R. H. Cur-rin, Mrs. Joe Woodle, Mrs. W.
F. Cary and Evelyn Bacon. The amount realized was a little over $19.00.

Birthday Dinner

Mrs. H. A. La Barre, on Sunday, Nov. 5, entertained at a delightful dinner in honor of Mr.
La Barre's birthday which came the following day. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Jacques, Mrs. Marion Bennett Duva Bennett, Mrs. E. H. Bennett, Miss Savonne Stanton, Ernest Amacher, Mrs. R. T. Carter and Mr. and Mrs. La Barre. Mrs.
Marion Bennett Duva who has a remarkable colatura soprano voice, entertained the guests during the evening.

L. V. Cleworth has accepted a position in Portland and left the first of the week. He will still have charge of the Gem theatre, however.

See Mrs. J. E. Gates for piano instruction. Prices reasonable.
I. O. O. F. building. 5-4tf

LOCAL BREVITIES

Celery 10 cents a bunch Saturday at Rose's.

Julius Krieger has had the roof of his residence reshingled.

Lyle Wagner went to Portland last Thursday to consult his physician.

Mesdames P. M. Wagner and W. E. McWillis were Portland visitors Tuesday.

Lydia Matson was home for the week end, being here for Armistice Day.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Stevens represented Estacada in the metropolis last Monday.

Miss Lucile St. Pierre, of Salem, spent the week-end with her friend, Mrs. H. W. Mort.

Ward Barr who clerks in the Portland postoffice, attended the football game here, Saturday.

Mrs. Earl Shibley and two children of Portland, visited Mr.
Shibley at this place last Sunday.

Dr. H. V. Adix and son Victor of Gresham, were Estacada visitors last Saturday afternoon.

Gus Mahrt the efficient mechanician at the Cascade garage, is ill with pneumonia. Dr. Rhodes is in attendance.

Are you beginning to think of that phonograph for Christmas?
You had better see Rose about it he can save you money and will arrange terms to suit.

J. H. Richards, father of Mrs.
W. W. Rhodes, and her sister and two brothers were guests Sunday of Dr. and Mrs. W. W.
Rhodes.

Mr. and Mrs. Freeman and children of Huber, came Saturday, to visit Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Barr, the parents of Mrs. Freeman, and to take in the football game.

C. R. Betts arrived Tuesday, from Eugene, to join his wife who has with her children, been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Reagan, for some weeks. They will return shortly to Eugene.

A large shipment of Peter's shoes the all leather line just received, all styles for all occasions and as usual the price is right at Rose's.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Wilcox, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Moore, Miss Mabel Wilcox and John Moger motored to Portland last Friday to attend the livestock show.

Mrs. Lena Underwood returned Tuesday, from Underwood, Wash., where she had been for several weeks, helping with the apple packing. She is an expert at it, and this time broke all her previous records, having packed over 5,000 boxes.

Extra special Boys' all wool suits with 2 pair of knickerbockers size up to 16 years, 12.50 while they last. These are regular $15 and $16 suits, get them at Rose's.

A special train from Portland next Tuesday night, will bring 60 Eastern Stars and their degree team, who will exemplify the work in the local Chapter.
A six o'clock dinner will precede the initiatory ceremony.

Our thanks are due our friend and former townsman, George B.
Weatherby, for two copies of an Escondido, Calif., paper. From them we learn that burg is going some. A big irrigation project will insure it being wet in spite of natural or national drouths.

The willows and brush on the flat by the city hall have been cut down. If the city owned these lots they would make a nice plaza laid out with walks and flowers, with a fountain in the center and a swimming or wading pool. But then this would mean more taxation and since the late election the thought even of new taxes is taboo.

UPPER EAGLE CREEK

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Douglass and Mrs. Viola Douglass were the dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Will Douglass Sunday.

Some of the farmers are busy digging potatoes, some plowing and harrowing and others seeding these fine days.

Several of the friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Akers gathered at their home Saturday evening and spent a very pleasant evening with them. Everybody seemed to enjoy themselves and a short time after refreshments were served they left for home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Woodle and son Leslie, Mrs. Rosa Baker and little son Carl and H. S. Gibson attended the livestock show last Thursday.

GARFIELD ITEMS

Last Thursday the ladies of Garfield Grange gave a dish towel shower for the Grange. A pleasant afternoon was spent visiting and hemming the towels.
Refreshments were served by the committee, Mrs. H. B. Davis and Mrs. T. Carpenter.

A Thanksgiving social will be held in the Grange hall Friday evening, November 24, at 8 o'clock. A short play, "The Golden Wedding" will be given, refreshments served and a social time following.

Mrs. H. B. Davis was a Portland visitor Friday.

This community was sorry to see the departure of the S. R.
Bracey family last week.

The last of the fish have been taken from the Delph Creek hatchery and planted in the various streams.

King Coe spent Armistice day and Sunday with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Dillinger, Sylvia Head also spent the week-end with them. Mrs.
Coe has been here for the past ten days.

O. E. Smith has purchased the interest of Dr. H. V. Adix in the Estacada Telephone and Telegraph Company and has assumed its management.

George Morrow and wife motored over from Portland last Sunday to visit at the home of Mrs. Morrow's uncle, A. E.
Sparks. Mrs. Sparks accompanied them home, returning Monday evening.

The W. C. T. U. ladies are working on their Mother Goose Bazaar and entertainment, which is to take place December 12.
Keep the date in your mind.

In Honor of His Natal Day

Dr. W. W. Rhodes was greatly surprised Wednesday evening of last week, as a result of his birthday. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Ted Ahlberg, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bartholomew, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Eshelman, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Linn, Mr. and Mrs.
T. H. Morton, Mr. and Mrs. A.
T. Elott and Mr. and Mrs. V. W.
Hauser. The evening was spent playing 500, at which Mr. Ahl-berg won the men's prize, and Mrs. Bartholomew the ladies'.
V. W. Hauser presented the Dr. with a large birthday cake, very artistically decorated, and luncheon was served by Mrs.
Rhodes.

If you want something choice in sweet potatoes try some of those Jersey Sweets at Rose's, there is a difference.
