Principal Events of the Week Briefly Sketched for Information of Our Readers.

The school budget at Albany for next year is placed at $112,059.

The annual meeting of the Linn county farm bureau will be held on December 9.

Members of the Moose lodge are planning to erect in Corvallis a home to cost not less than $40,000.

Work on the Mount Hood loop highway within the Oregon national forest has been ended for the winter.

Governor Olcott urges the people of Oregon to observe "American Education Week," December 3 to 9.

Net earnings of Happy Canyon, the side show of the Pendleton Round-Up during the year 1922, were $3784.20.

An association of former University of Oregon students and graduates in Linn county was organized at Albany.

Six warehouses belonging to J. F. O'Bryant and operated in Haines by the Marshall Grain company, have been sold.

The state treasurer, on December 2, will consider bids for the sale of Oregon district interest bonds aggregating $231,000.

If members of the city council do not change present views, one-way traffic is certain to have a trial in Portland soon.

Bishop William P. Remington, recently elected to the Episcopal diocese of eastern Oregon, was installed in his office Sunday in Pendleton.

Governor Olcott has completed the task of signing $150,000 of road bonds which were sold at a recent meeting of the state highway commission.

Scottish Rite Masons from various sections of the Willamette valley held a meeting at Salem and perfected organization of the Rose Croix club.

Approximately 75 per cent of the Oregon prune crop for 1922 has been sold and 50 per cent of it has been shipped, according to fruit men of Salem.

William McKinley and Charles Pool of Tillamook were killed when an automobile in which they were driving went off the grade at the bridge at Beaver.

Figures prepared by U. G. Boyer, Marion county clerk, show that out of a total of 94 women selected for jury service during the last year, only 21 have consented to act.

Of the 12 precincts in Lane county that voted November 7 on the question of whether to allow stock to run at large, four voted in favor of it and eight to keep the stock up.

The Coast Power company in Tillamook has closed down for three months pending improvements entailing the expenditure of $150,000 in the building of a new and up-to-date plant.

Complete election returns from all counties, part of them unofficial, show that the so-called compulsory school bill carried in Oregon by 13,986. The proposition measure was defeated by 12,581.

J. J. Handsaker, representing Oregon in the Near East relief campaign, states that the $2000 given by Riverside Community church in Hood River exceeded the contribution of any other church in the state.

Yoncalla, among the first municipalities to have a city government composed entirely of women, has elected men to serve in the various city offices for the coming two years, and only two women remain in power, these serving on the council.

Indorsement of the Umatilla Rapids power project as the first step in the open-river programme for the Columbia, indorsement of the Smith-McNary bill now pending in congress and request for the appointment of a board of engineers by the secretary of war to make a survey of the Columbia river from Vancouver, Wash., to Priest Rapids in Idaho, as directed, was the outstanding action by the Open River conference in Pendleton.

Don't forget the Thanksgiving social at Garfield Grange Friday evening, November 24. A short play appropriate to the season, "The Golden Wedding," will be given, followed by a social time and refreshments.

Sunday school at 2:00 p. m. next Sunday, with preaching at 3:00, at Nora Memorial church.

A Night of Fun and Frolic

Last Friday night the pavilion was the scene of a jolly carnival, given under the auspices of the Parent-Teacher's association.

This entertainment was rather unique, in that the management presented each guest with $25 in paper money to pay admission to the various booths. After receiving his roll, the eager amusement seeker traversed the passageway between the booths, undecided which to enter first. At last, desperately he made a random choice and after depositing a dollar, he entered a booth in charge of Miss Gertrude Fink, and was shown "Three of a Kind." The three handkerchiefs displayed might have been thrins.

As smilingly he emerged from the booth, he was attracted by the crowd around the cage of the sole specimen in captivity of "The Rat Tailed Granium." Its keeper, Miss Melba Harmon, expatiating on the habits and habit of this wonderful creature, aroused his curiosity and at the price of another dollar, he looked upon a rat tail in a pan of grain.

The "Sweet Sixteen" booth proved a great attraction for the men, numbers of whom cheerfully parted with their cash to see some lumps of sugar and a 16 year old lass, Leta Posson.

Miss Evelyn Bacon stuffed to the limit with pillows, posed imitatively as the "Fattest Woman in America." Two fortune tellers Misses Nelson and Ward revealed the past, present and future with unerring accuracy. Oliver Suter showed himself a skilled cartoonist affording much fun by his caricatures. Andy Jannsen had charge of a bowling alley, and Ted of an archery booth.

But frivolity was not the sole aim of the evening, so a grave and learned senior, Miss Constance Richmond, a modern Hypatia, lectured impressively on the patriotic part played by our soldiers "over there" and the importance of the "Watch on the Rhine," then neatly executed a descent from the sublime to the ridiculous, by ushering her audience into a booth where an Ingersoll was discovered reposing on a meat rind.

The whole affair proved very entertaining and netted the P. T. A. about thirty dollars.

LOCAL BREVITIES

The I. O. O. F. is planning to give its first annual dance on Dec. 30.

It is not too soon to sound the warning "Do your Christmas shopping early."

John Marchbank and wife were over this way on Monday looking for a cow.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Douglass called on Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Gibson Monday evening.

Little George Lawrence was here the first of the week, to visit his father, Gordon Lawrence.

Watch our window for display of Picnic Hams, the best the market affords, Saturday, 20c per pound. Come early as supply is limited, at Rose's.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Allen came down from Bull Bun Tuesday, to attend the session of the Eastern Star that night.

Mr. and Mrs. James Norris have moved back to Estacada from Dwyer's Camp, which has shut down until after the New Year.

A family reunion was held on Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hall. The three sons of the latter, Perry, William and Ernest Hirt, coming from Portland to spend the day.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Woodle and son were visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Claude Woodle Sunday. The latter are planning to leave soon for California where they will make their home this winter.

We have a large assortment of Holiday goods on the way, which will arrive shortly. It will pay you to wait until you see these goods before making your holiday purchases, at Rose's.

At the school meeting last Monday night the budget as published was adopted with the exception of one item, the salary of the principal of the grade school was cut $200. This is rather unfortunate as Miss Howe was offered a position at a more lucrative salary in the Oregon City schools and declined it out of loyalty to her home town.

Judge Cross Gives Thanks

In a statement County Judge Cross thanks his friends for their support in the attempt to have him recalled. He says:

"I wish to express my profound appreciation and thanks to my friends in Clackamas county who went to the polls last Tuesday and expressed their confidence in my administration of county affairs. Their vote is an inspiration to higher and better effort in behalf of good roads, well built, and just treatment to all.

Let me bespeak for the new county court, to take office January 1, 1923, the loyal support of all good citizens of the county in a campaign for clean government and better economic conditions."

Rainbow Trout Planted

J. C. Moreland of the new state fish hatchery on Delph Creek, reports that he has recently planted 242,000 rainbow trout, four and a half months old, averaging 4 inches in length in the streams of Clackamas Co. and divided up as follows:

In Deep Creek above Barton, 62,000, in Cedar Creek near Sandy, Upper Delph, Fall, Clear, Mill and Trout Creeks, 30,000 each.

Additional ponds are being built at the hatchery for the young fry, which will supply approximately next year, 3,000,000 for this county. These hatcheries are independent of taxpayers, as their maintenance cost is derived from license fees.

COUNTY COURT MAKES LIBERAL ROAD OFFER

All those interested in securing a paved road from Barton to Estacada, should be particular to attend the road meetings in their respective districts on Saturday. That in district No. 7 will be held in the Estacada City Hall at 7:30 p. m. The county court has sent the following communication to the districts interested.

"The Court wishes to convey to the Road Meeting to be held on the 25th of November, 1922, its willingness to cooperate in preparing the grade and base of the road from Barton to Estacada. Our engineers estimate the cost will approximate $1,000 per mile."

"If your meeting desires to vote a tax of $500 per mile for that portion of the road that lies in your district, the Court will appropriate a like sum out of the Market Road Fund to aid in this improvement. Of course it being understood that the work will be done under the supervision of the County Court."

"We are also informed that on your portion of the road the pavement could be constructed during the year 1923, provided, that it can be laid down for $11,000 per mile."

"If your meeting desires to take up this project, the Court would be pleased to have three representative citizens selected to counsel with them during the progress of the work."

O. E. S. Highly Entertained

A gala evening in lodge circles was that of Tuesday night when a special car from Portland brought fifty-two members of the Eastern Star to visit Mountain Chapter. Most of these were from Waverly chapter whose officers conferred the degrees upon five candidates for the Estacada chapter. The car arrived at six o'clock and the visitors were met at the train by the worthy matron, Mrs. Mae Reed, and the worthy patron, E. S. Womer. A reception committee looked after the comfort of the guests after arriving at the hall. Slips of paper on which a part of a rhyme or verse was written, were given to all as a means of getting acquainted. These slips were in groups of five and as soon as the jolly company found their numbers they proceeded to the dining room where a delicious chicken dinner was served by a committee of Star ladies. The room presented a most beautiful appearance with its artistic arrangement and beautiful decorations in the O. E. S. colors and the innumerable quantities of flowers. Each place at the table was marked by a small cluster of bright red buds. At the conclusion of the splendid repast, the parts of verses were read from the slips, and while perhaps the rhythm was not quite according to "Hoyle", they furnished much merriment.

After a few preliminary ceremonies in opening the Chapter, the degrees were conferred by the Waverly chapter in a most charming and impressive manner. A surprise to the members of Mountain chapter was sprung when the visitors again assumed charge of the program and conferred the floral degree upon the worthy matron and patron, who were almost overwhelmed with appreciation for the honor bestowed. The work was beautiful and instructive and put in a most creditable manner. A short time was taken up with informal speeches and the closing of a most pleasant evening. The car with the jolly visitors left for Portland at 12 o'clock.
