The Spirit of Thanksgiving

As we read of old Thankgiving customs, we realize that the world has been traveling fast since then—away from the simple and the spiritual.

One of the customs, particularly, was quaint: After the Thanksgiving dinner, while the family was still seated around the table, each member was asked to tell for what, in the past year, he was particularly thankful.

These recitals were always revelations of character. The small children of the family mentioned some material thing, a sled or a doll, for which they were grateful.

The older children, those in their teens, were more abstract.
They were thankful for the advantages of education, of family prestige, or their social position —a bit self-centered, perhaps, as is wont with youth in its teens.

But mother and father, in their maturity of years, knew that the greatest blessings of life were health and happiness, and their recitals of thankfulness always included a word of thanksgiving that the family had been spared illness and poverty. No thought for themselves, but thankful for son's success in school, and daughter's improvement in controlling her temper.

The spirit of the day calls for just such a touch of spiritual introspection. It keeps alive that family spirit, the joy of an assembled family, the particular source of Thankgiving to each member, along with the joy of an old-fashioned dinner.—Ex.

Marriage Will Out

A young couple well known in Estacada, quietly got married on Armistice Day, and kept the affair secret until last Sunday.
They are Miss Ruth Saling, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. E.
Saling of this city and Frank Morrow of Portland. Sunday they were visiting the uncle of the latter, A. E. Sparks, when the suspicions of Mrs. Sparks were aroused. On being questioned, they acknowledged the soft impeachment. The charming bride graduated from the E.
H. S. in 1919, and since then has been a stenographer in a Portland office, and the groom has a lucrative position in a bank. All good wishes go with them.

assisted her in entertaining fifteen of her little girl friends and schoolmates, in the afternoon.
All of the third grade girls were invited, also Lavena Grabeel and Alice Kilgore. After playing numerous games for a time and enjoying the surprises of a "grab bag," the little guests were invited to the dining room where a long table was prettily decorated, having for its center piece a large cake with eight candles.
Sandwiches, cake and ice cream were served. Glen was the recipient of numerous presents.

tried at Moro last week, before Judge J. U. Campbell of the

EX-SERVICE MAN IS NOW BENEDICT

A wedding peal metaphorically rang out merrily last Saturday evening, November 25, in Portland, when Sylvester Lawrence was united in marriage to Miss Evelyn Stannard of that city.
The nuptial ceremony took place at the home of the groom's uncle, S. W. Lawrence, at Laurei-hurst, at 8:30 p. m. The Rev.
S. E. Carrick, pastor of the Forbes Presbyterian church, read the service and the groom was attended by his cousin Dwane Lawrence as best man, and the bride by Miss Ruth Fletcher of Portland as bridesmaid. Preceding the ceremony, LaVerne Lawrence, a cousin of the groom, sang "I Love You," and Miss Dorothy Lawrence played softly while the vows were being pledged and the twain made one.

At the conclusion of the service, the happy pair were the recipients of the heartiest congratulations from the company which numbered seventy-eight persons, and then all were ushered upstairs where tables groaned under the weight of comestibles and dainties of a wedding feast. In the course of the evening, the newly weds made a quick get-away without the guests being aware of it. They remained in Portland until the following day, when they went to their home in Springwater.

The bride is a native of Michigan, but has lived in Portland with her grandmother for several years and graduated from the Jefferson High School. She has since been employed in a bank as bookkeeper and stenographer.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Lawrence and has lived the last two or three years at Springwater on his farm where he has specialized in raising pedigree Jersey cattle, in which he has been very successful, winning many prizes at state and county fairs. Only lately he received the gold medal from the National Jersey Association for the record of one of his cows as a butter fat producer. He saw military service on the Mexican border, and later in the trenches in France, rising to the rank of first lieutenant. On his return home after the armistice, he helped organize the local post, Carl Douglass, of the American Legion, of which he was the first commander. He is accounted as one of our most popular young men, being noted for his courtesy and genial manners.

The editor of this paper in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Lawrence long life and happiness knows he is voicing the universal sentiment of this community.

County Debt Decreased

The report of W. W. Everhart, county treasurer, to the county court, shows the financial condition of the county, as of November 1st, as follows: Cash on hand and in the various banks of the county $375,429-18. The outstanding indebtedness of the county on November 1st was $441,871.47. This amount has since been reduced by the warrant call of November 3rd to $353,153.87, a reduction of $88,- 717.60. A warrant call under the date of Wednesday of the present week will call in approximately $60,000 additional outstanding warrants. There will be a still further reduction through a warrant call to be issued in December.
