

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

The basket ball season has opened and the pavilion has been rented for the use of the boys and girls teams for this season.

The report cards for the second six weeks of school have been given out. The A and A plus grades will be published next week.

The cooking department of the E. H. S. has been serving so many more hot lunches than formerly that they have had to purchase some new dishes and silverware; also "much needed" cooking utensils.

The Science department has received the new apparatus for the physics class.

The floors of the High School building were oiled during the Thanksgiving vacation. This improves the appearance and sanitation of the building.

The Campfire girls and the Boy Scouts are having a contest in the sale of Christmas seals. The two organizations have $30 worth to dispose of.

The subject to be debated in this district is, Resolved that the graduated income tax should become a factor of the Oregon law. The material for the question has been received.

Beulah Hicinbotham registered in the freshman class Dec. 4.

Card of Thanks

We the undersigned, widow, father, brothers and sister of the late August F. Mahrt, wish to express our grateful thanks to the friends who showed such kindness, sympathy and help during the illness, death and burial of our beloved husband, son and brother. We also much appreciated the beautiful offerings.

Mrs. August F. Mahrt,
Fred Mahrt,
George Mahrt,
William Mahrt,
Mrs. Anna Gillette.

Miss Frances Hassel, accompanied by Anita Kopp, came over from near The Dalles where they are teaching, to enjoy the Thanksgiving holiday at the home of the former.

No Labor for the Farm

James R. Howard, president of the American Farm Bureau Federation, adds his strong protest to that of manufacturers, builders and others already raised against the drastic restrictions of the immigration act. That measure, Mr. Howard warns the country, is stripping the farm of its manual labor. This means the crops cannot be raised in adequate quantity.

With a general shortage of common labor the manual worker on the farm is now drawn in unusual volume to the great industrial centers by urgent wage bids for him there. For years this drift of labor from the country to the city has gone on, but hitherto a new supply for the American farmer has flowed constantly from the agricultural districts of Europe. With that supply now shut out by the rigid immigration law, the American farmer has no place to get his necessary labor. He faces directly the danger of not being able to get his heavy work done. And when the American farmer cannot get his work done the American people will not be able to get their food at prices that will be bearable.—New York Herald.

This shows that laws apparently wise in theory may not work out in practice.

The coming state legislature will pass an Oriental exclusion law which will keep out the Japanese and Chinese, but who will do the work of raising the vegetables and food stuffs which these people have been doing? In time there will be a great shortage in the big cities because the American has never taken to the kind of work involved on a commercial scale. A big economic problem will inevitably result.

Auxiliary Elects

The Ladies' Auxiliary to the American Legion held a social meeting last Monday night, and also elected officers as follows: President, Mrs. Myrtle Townsend; vice-president, Mrs. Janet Davison; secretary, Mrs. Rose Wilcox; treasurer, Mrs. Inger D. Ludlow.

School vs. Town

On Nov. 30, at 10 a. m. the H. S. football squad trimmed the town team to the tune of 39 to 0. The game was characterized by fumbles and loose playing on both sides. The High School boys made their first touchdown on the second down, running up a score of 26 in the first quarter. In the last half the town team tightened up and began to have hopes of a touchdown when their opponents were penalized 15 yds, bringing the ball to their 20 yard line. But their hopes ended in chagrin when they found they could not score. This game ended a very successful season for 1922.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Morton and mother Mrs. W. J. Moore, spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Morton in Portland.

Mrs. C. F. Allen will represent Mother Goose at the fair Tuesday, and similar to the old woman who lived in her shoe with so many children she didn't know what to do, she will have a large number of dolls to sell, the proceeds for the benefit of the Children's Farm home. Get your Christmas dolls at the fair and help a worthy cause.

Three men lost their lives and $30,000 worth of property was destroyed when fire of an unknown origin swept the Ben Hur hotel at 247 Oak street, Portland. The dead are: Chrisostomo Madarang, 24; Thomas Carino, 26, and J. J. McDonald.

Some relief was noted in the car situation by the mills of the northwest last week, according to the figures of a report for the week ending November 25, issued by the West Coast Lumbermen's association. Shipments were within 8 per cent of new business placed on the books of the 152 mills reporting to the organization. New business was 13 per cent below production and production was 4 per cent above normal.
