

LOCAL ITEMS

Gus Whitehead was able to return home last week after several weeks at St. Vincent's hospital.

Mrs. S. E. Robinson made a business trip to Portland recently.

Mr. and Mrs. George Forman and family spent Saturday evening at the Pederson home.

S. P. Pesznecker of Vancouver, Wash., was a guest over night at the Forman home one night last week.

Mrs. S. E. Robinson, who is interested with E. S. Chase in a business way, staged a surprise party for him on his 74th birthday. The guests assembled made merry with chat, music and song until the coffee and cake arrived, when everything else was forgotten for the time. Everyone present will testify to its quality and flavor. All reported a good time and wished Mr. Chase many returns of the day. Mr. Chase said that he would like a birthday party quite often just to meet with a crowd of such nice jolly people. He is convalescing slowly.

Mr. and Mrs. Jens Petersen entertained friends Sunday.

Mrs. George Forman called at the Chase home Monday afternoon.

There will be a program and a basket social at the Peterson hall Saturday night, February 24.

Mrs. W. C. Bacon has resigned as operator at the local telephone office, and Mrs. Ava Bronson has succeeded her. Mrs. Clyde Schock will act as substitute.

UPPER EAGLE CREEK

Roy Douglass was a Portland visitor last Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Renstrom and Fred and Naoma Paddison were Portland visitors Friday.

Eagle Creek Grange held its regular session at the Grange hall with about 35 present, including the children. A short business meeting was held in the morning, when they had a recess for dinner. After partaking of a bountiful dinner, work was resumed in the fourth degree. One candidate, Charles Hicinbotham was initiated in the third and fourth degrees. An interesting program was rendered. It was decided to have a contest in order to create more interest in the Grange. Two captains being chosen and they choosing sides, the losing side will give a banquet to the winning side.

Mrs. Ed. Douglass, who has been in Portland for some time under the doctor's care, is much improved and has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. Renstrom gave a party at the home of C. H. Paddison last Saturday evening, which was well attended and everybody had a pleasant time.

Will Douglass made a business trip to Portland Saturday.

Fordson
You Will Want Your Fordson Tractor Early

Everything points to the greatest shortage of Ford products this year that has ever existed. Never before has the demand been so great.

You will want a Fordson Tractor early—here is one product you cannot wait for—when the weather opens up you will need it.

You will want it for plowing, seeding, cultivating—and all your other work. Already it has proved the greatest help to profitable farming that has ever been offered to you. And at $395 f. o. b. Detroit, the price is so low that you lose money every day you are without a Fordson. To get delivery you must order early.

There are no reserve stocks among our dealers—our production capacity, great as it is, will not enable us to build up a reserve.

It must be a case of "first come, first served," and the only way in which you can protect yourself is to list your order with a Ford Dealer immediately.

By taking advantage of our dealer's first opportunity to make delivery, you will be assured of having your Fordson when you need it.
