DOVER DOINGS

Al Anderson and Henry Udell have gone to Yakima, Wash., for the purpose of looking over the county with the intention of making their future homes there.

The rock crusher is in full operation and keeps the truck busy hauling gravel to the roads.

Dr. Waters, a retired minister of Portland, was a recent visitor to his farm in this community.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Exon drove out in their new Ford sedan to their farm one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. James Fitzgerald of Sandy, spent the Fourth at their farm.

Miss Alice Udell has returned to her home after spending a month in Portland with Mrs. James Akins.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kitzmiller and family spent the Fourth with Mrs. Kitzmiller's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph De Shazer. She and the children remained until Sunday.

The recent rains have practically ruined all of the cherries.

Former H. S. Teacher Weds

The friends here, of Mrs. Ida Marshall Holder, who was a member of the High School faculty three years ago, will be glad to learn that she was married on Wednesday June 27, to Benjamin F. Daniel of Akely, Minnesota, where she had been principal of the school for the past year. The editor of the News, begs to offer Mrs. Daniel his sincerest felicitations. He knew her father in Minnesota over 30 years ago, and it was a surprise when meeting her in Estacada, to find out whose daughter she was. During her stay here, she made many friends and endeared herself to her pupils. Her husband is to be congratulated.
