UPPER BARTON

Those enjoying a picnic on Eagle Creek near the falls, on Sunday were, Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Erdman of Deep Creek, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Mowery, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Paul, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Snyder, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Mowery, Mr. and Mrs. H. Ellinwood of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. G. Gollings and son Melvin of Ridgefield, Wash., Mr. and Mrs. Lester Irving and son of Boring, Mr. and Mrs. George Forman of Barton, the Misses Esther and Mabel Erdman, Marnie and Florence Paul, Jessie Snyder, Dr. Blair Paul and Till Forman. All reported a most enjoyable time and thanks to Mrs. D. L. Erdman for extending invitation.

Mr. and Mrs. George Forman and son were Oregon City and Portland business visitors Monday.

The guests for lunch Sunday at the home of Mrs. S. E. Robinson were, Mrs. Blancher of Portland, her daughter Mrs. F. Richard and her daughter Mrs. Penny, who motored from San Jose, California. Three generations, mother, daughter and granddaughter and Mrs. Agnes Robinson of Portland.

Mrs. Marie Gibson had as dinner guest one day last week, Mrs. S. B. Robinson.

Gean English and wife and two grown sons of Spokane, Wash., who have been friends of Mrs. S. E. Robinson for 20 years, drove out and spent Friday night and Saturday. Mr. English and family, who have one of the best camping equipments on the market, and who traveled 6000 miles, driving thru Yellow Stone Park and from there to Mexico, through California visiting all the sights, but the most wonderful sights were the Oregon caves which words cannot tell of their wonders and beauty. Mr. English said of all his travels Oregon is the most beautiful state, and he contemplates making it his future home.

R. B. Robinson and wife drove out from Portland one evening recently, spending the night with his mother. With her and Mrs. Hal Gibson they took a drive over the newly laid pavement to Estacada.

"Mighty Lak' a Rose"

A fine cast appears in this new Edwin Carewe production, that will be shown Thursday and Friday of next week at the Gem Theatre. It is a crook play and shows the power of music not only in swell society but in the underworld where desperate crooks plan desperate work.

VIOLA

The Chautauqua at Gladstone was very much enjoyed by those who camped and others who attended from Viola.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ficken and son Stanley have gone to Kansas to live. We hate to lose such good neighbors and hope they will come back to Viola some time.

Ed Ficken has bought his father's farm and moved his family there.

Babe White and family have moved back to Viola from Tillamook. He is talking of running a store in the building where he is living.

Mr. Jacobson, who has been working at the mill here for some time, has moved his family to Idaho.

Earl Larkin got his leg hurt at the mill, but fortunately it is nothing serious.

A new wire fence has been built in front of the parsonage yard.

Mrs. Burt Griffith and little son from California, are spending the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Larkins and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Heinbothem and their two daughters, Mildred and Esther, camped at the Gladstone park during the Chautauqua last week.
