Our primary aim is to produce vigorously, husky chicks; healthy, rugged breeding stock, and first class hatching eggs. Hence, in many cases, our customers roll up bigger egg records than we do.
But we hold our mature stock back as long as possible after the molt and bring them into laying as near the hatching season as possible. Thus are our customers assured of strong, rugged chicks and high quality hatching eggs.

STATE MARKET AGENT DEPARTMENT.

An investigation of the various prices of potatoes on September 6th, resulted in these findings:

The price to growers had advanced about 15 cents per bushel over the previous week, and the growers were paid $1.35 per sack on the east side farmers' market for strictly first-class stock. Other than first grade were sold for lower prices. The price on this date was $1.75 for best stock.
The newspaper market prices to retailers were $1.50-$1.75.

The price to the consumer varied in different localities of the city. On the farmers' public market the retail price was 1 3-4 cents per pound; in groceries adjacent to the public market the price was 2 cents per pound, while retailers farther out sold 11 pounds for 25 cents. The range of prices between the grower and the consumer was from $1.35 to $2.25.

At the public hearing September 5, to investigate prices and markets for grain products, the millers admitted that the market quotations on grain were "merely bid prices and do not mean anything;" that "you can't go by the prices in the newspapers," and "buyers are not revealing what their prices are." Therefore it would appear that the newspaper market prices as quoted by the Merchant's Exchange are not reliable and do not represent actual sales or prices.

The potato grading and inspection law went into effect September 15. There is no inspection required of the grower who sells in less than ten ton lots, unless the grade is disputed and an inspection asked for, but on shipments above 50 pounds the grower is required to grade the stock and place on the sack or container his name and address. In shipments above 10 tons there must be state inspection of the grades.
Certified seed potatoes must bear the certification tag of the Ore-Agricultural College. All potatoes offered for sale that are not graded and do not carry the grower's name and address shall be labeled as culls. Pamphlets giving full rules and regulations of the State Market Agent and the standard grades may be had without charge on application at 723 Court House, Portland.

An Ancient Holy Day.

Beginning yesterday at sundown and lasting until sunset this evening, is the Jewish Day of Atonement. The observance of this day dates back to the time of Moses, and directions for its solemnization will be found in the books of Leviticus and Numbers in the Old Testament. It was the most solemn of all the holy days, and a rigid fast, during which not a morsel of food nor a drop of water or drink could be taken. The ritual was very impressive, and one feature was particularly striking, two he-goats were chosen and brought before the door of the tabernacle, and there presented before the Lord.
Two lots were cast upon them, one inscribed for Jehovah and the other for Azazel. The one on which the lot of Jehovah fell was slain, and upon the other the high priest, after he had made ceremonial atonement for himself, his order and the people, and purified the holy place, confessed the sins of the people, and then it was led away as an outcast into the wilderness. These ceremonies were prophetic and instructive, their meaning and purpose for Christians being afterwards manifested in the atoning work of Jesus Christ.

Escaped From Asylum.

Some excitement was caused Monday evening when Deputy Sheriff D. M. Marshall was called to River Mill to arrest a crazy man. Accompanied by A.
G. Ames he drove down and found the man at the house of P. Malzanini, where he was making himself very much at home, having kindled a fire in the stove and preparing a meal.
He proved to be George Hunt, who has been employed at the Silver Star restaurant in Estaca-da for the past five or six weeks.
Although he had once or twice acted a little queerly no one had suspected him of insanity. But Monday he bought a gun and said he was going hunting. When Messrs. Marshall and Ames arrived he made no resistance and quietly gave up his gun. A watch was kept on him Monday night, but he was not kept in restraint. He did not sleep any and had not, it is said, for four nights. Tuesday morning Deputies Marshall and Tub Falucin took him to Oregon City, and while on the way, he entertained them by playing on a mouth harp. At Oregon City the sheriff recognized him as an escape from the asylum last July, where he was taken back. It appears he was also, at one time, in an asylum in Washington state.

A Fine Flower Bed.

Mrs. A. G. Ames has a flower bed in her garden which is worth walking a mile to see. In the center tall cannas stand up, and these are surrounded by salvia splendens plants, which are exceptionally large and a flame of scarlet. These in turn are circled with geraniums, petunias, and a lavender colored ageratum, and the whole bed is bordered with blue lobelia. It forms a most artistic arrangement.

False Alarm.

A little flurry was caused last Friday evening about half past six when smoke was seen issuing out of the windows of the Oak Grove laundry. The hose cart was promptly taken to the scene, but it proved unnecessary to use it as the fire was only in the stove, and the smoke was caused by the pipe coming apart. No damage was done and the building soon cleared of smoke.

Returned to Estacada.

The Rev. H. W. Mort who was ordained elder of the M. E. church last Sunday, in Portland, has been assigned to Estacada for another year. His return will be very generally welcomed by the people of the community, as both he and his wife made many friends during the past year.

Reception.

A large number of the members of the Christian church and also many friends of the congregation, attended the reception last Monday evening at the church, honoring the new pastor, Rev. B. F. Clay and Mrs. Clay.
A few familiar songs were sung and then W. H. Holder explained the reason for the gathering and introduced the honored guests.
Rev. A. DeMoy invoked a blessing upon the new pastor and the church, after which Mr. Clay made a few remarks. Mrs. Clay also very pleasingly gave a talk and then the company enjoyed a social time. Light refreshments in the shape of apple pie "a la mode" were served.

New Stage Service.

The Royal Blue Stage Line Co. of Portland has inaugurated a daily line service between that place and Estacada, via Clackamas and Carver. The stages will leave Portland at 4 p. m. and 11 p. m., and Estacada at 10:30 a.
m. and 6 p. m. There is a city ordinance applying to stage lines which requires a permit from the council and the payment of a license fee. But the company seems to ignore this, claiming that according to state law it has a right to come in and operate its stages. The city council will look further into the matter to ascertain the exact legal status.

Thanks Expressed.

The officers and members of library association are very grateful to the celebration finance committee for the liberal donation of $200.00 from the surplus proceeds of the celebration. The money was used in canceling the debt against the building, which is now clear.

Rally Round the Band

The Eastern Clackamas Community Band of Estacada, met for the regular weekly practice, Tuesday evening with a large attendance. As they did not get as far as Barton on Labor Day, they have decided to make that place a friendly call next Tuesday evening, Sept. 25. The band needs instruments, music and players. So come and join, and all work together, pull together and blow together.

Notice of School Election to In- crease Tax More Than Six Per Cent Over That of the Previous Year.

Notice is hereby given to the legal voters of School District No. 108 of Clackamas County, State of Oregon, that an election will be held in said district at High School on the 15th day of October, 1923, at 8 o'clock in the afternoon, to vote on the question of increasing the amount of the tax levy in said district for the year 1925 by more than six per cent over the amount of such levy for the year immediately preceding.

It is necessary to raise this additional amount by special levy for the following reasons: The cost of materials and labor have increased approximately 25 per cent. The school attendance has increased, thereby requiring one more teacher, at a salary of $1250.00 to $1450.00 per year, as ordered by the Department of State.

1923.

SPRINGWATER FAIR

WELL ATTENDED.

The clerk of the weather favored the Springwater fair last Friday with an ideal day, which was in bright contrast to the one preceding it. This enterprising community set a good example to its neighbors, in getting up such a pleasant affair as this one proved to be.

The attendance comprised visitors from all around, and it was large enough to reward those who spent their time and trouble in arranging the fair.

The Springwater ladies had worked overtime in their kitchens to insure that no one should be hungry, and provided enough of good things to eat, which would have sufficed for many more than were there. Lavish praise by those who were fortune-tasted eloquently to their culinary skill and hospitality. Springwater with its store, church, school and grange hall makes an ideal community center, most attractive in appearance, and with the beautiful surrounding country impresses the observer as one in which progressiveness goes hand in hand with peace and plenty.

The exhibits were notable and as far as quality was concerned, they will not be excelled at the county fair. The floral hall contained displays of all kinds of grains, fruit, vegetables, both fresh and canned, cake, bread flowers and fancy work. All these exhibits were artistically arranged to show them off to advantage. The cereals, vegetables and fruits testified most forcibly to the fertility of the soil and the skill of the farmers. This is not supposed to be a corn section, but there were stalks of corn ten feet high of the Minnesota variety, and fully equal to any we have seen raised in that state.

The livestock comprised mostly Jersey and Guernsey registered herds belonging George E. Lawrence & Son, J. A. Shibley & Son, Edward Shearer and S. Kilgore.
Henry Cromer had some Holstein cattle. Among other livestock were English Bull dog puppies from the kennels of S. Kilgore.
The poultry comprised barred Plymouth Rocks, S. C. White Leghorns, bantams, white and gray geese.

In the afternoon with Ed.
Shearer as chairman, who introduced the speakers, the program was rendered. Governor Pierce, owing to his wife's serious condition, was unable to come, and appointed the Hon. Milton A.
Miller in his stead, who spoke very acceptably on rural life, taxation and constitutional methods.
Other speakers were O. M. Plummer, of the Pacific Livestock Association; W. A. Holt, Clackamas county Co. Agricultural Agent; Brenton Vedder, Co. School Supt., Prof. Allen, of the O. A. C., and G. A. Palmiter, of Hood River, the new State Grange Master.

Altogether the Springwater people may well congratulate themselves at the outcome, for it was a most happy occasion, which everyone enjoyed, and went away singing the praises of that community and its people.
