BIBLE QUESTIONS
QUESTIONS
 and Bible Answers
 If Parents will encourage children to look up and memorize the Bible Answers, it will prove a precious heritage to them in after years.
 Upon whom should we cast our burden? —Psalm 55:22
 What is the promise if we fear or revere the Lord? —Prov. 19:23
 What is said of one who is slow to anger? —Prov. 16:32

RECALL OF GOVERNOR.
 Petitions are out to recall Governor Pierce. We did not vote for him, but we see no adequate reason why he should not be allowed to complete his term of office. Of course his policy has not suited his opponents and even some of his own party, but that would be the case with any governor. It is not sportsmanlike to try to upset him at this stage. Those who want a change should wait till the next election. If it was a mistake to put him in office, it would be a far greater one to unseat him now. Whatever his errors, we believe he is working hard to give good service to the state.

There are two remarkable documents, both of which stand for justice and liberty for the individual, and to insure him these rights. One is the Magna Charta of Great Britain, and the other the constitution of the United States of America. This is Constitution week.

CALIFORNIA FIRE DISASTER.
 Berkeley, California, the seat of the University of California, was fire swept Monday, and nearly the whole residence section was destroyed, but the main buildings of the university were saved. The loss amounts to $10,000,000 or more. Besides this thousands of acres of timber land and farm homes in other parts of the state were destroyed. Rain will be sincerely welcomed to remove the danger of further conflagrations.

Coming Auction Sales.
 J. F. Jenkins, of Springwater, will sell at his place three miles east of Estacada, tomorrow, Friday, by auction all his live stock and farm machinery. Sale starts at 10 a. m. with free lunch at noon.
 Terms: Under $20 cash, all sums over, ninety days time on negotiable paper at 8 per cent interest.
 Thursday, September 27, W. F. Greer will hold an auction sale on the Wm. Stubbe place, one mile east of Estacada on Garfield road. He will sell to the highest bidder all his stock, household goods and farm machinery. Sale starts at 10 a. m. with free lunch at noon. Terms: Sums under $20 cash, over, six months at 8 per cent on bankable paper.

NOTICE.
 There will be a public meeting of potato growers and shippers at school room No. 720, court house, Portland, Saturday, September 22, at 2:00 p. m., for the purpose of discussing the new potato grading and inspection law and coming to an understanding regarding its provisions. All points of the law will be taken up and fully covered, and there will also be a demonstration of grading. Growers and shippers are urged to attend.

Reduced Chevrolet Prices.
 The substantial reduction in Chevrolet prices announced Sept. 1st, caused a great surprise in the automobile world, in view of the common opinion that good grounds existed for expecting higher prices.
 Wilcox Bros., of the Cascade Garage, local Chevrolet dealers, state that they had no intimation that a reduction was coming, as they knew that for more than six months the Chevrolet Company has been unable to fill half the volume of orders received. Three new assembly plants at Janesville, Wisconsin, Buffalo, N. Y. and Cincinnati, Ohio, and six new body plants adjoining assembly plants are rapidly building up production, so that it is believed the Company will shortly be in a position to fill a much larger proportion of its orders, as it is the fixed policy of the Chevrolet Motor Company to price its product as low as production cost permits. The greatly increased production now possible with seven assembly and six body plants, and four parts plants, insures construction and overhead savings, reflected in the new list prices and which constitute an important step towards still more economical transportation. The following are comparisons of the old and new prices, f. o. b. Estacada. There is no change in the models:
 Superior Old New

WRITES OF LIFE IN PERSIA
 Customs and Costumes Were Something of a Shock to Observant American Visitors.
 Arthur Sherburne Hardy writes interestingly of Persian costumes in "Things Remembered." He describes that of the ladies of the court as "a caricature of the costume of the corps de ballet, a dress which had captivated the shah's fancy when visiting Europe," and which spread generally through the upper circles of society. As to the costumes in general, the streets of Teheran offer none of those brilliant color effects which dazzle the eye in India, Mr. Hardy says.
 Among other national peculiarities which the author found it difficult to become accustomed to was the apparent complete disregard of the passage of time, and the popular disregard of the importance of punctuality. He tells some interesting things about Persian rugs, some of which, he says, receive treatment as regards dirt which would shock a New England housekeeper. For the Persian spreads his rug wherever he may happen to be, to rest, to eat, to say his evening prayer. The glass which comes with age he attributes to his bare or stockinged feet.
