George W. Hansen of Portland was here Tuesday, and called at this office. He is in the market for cedar poles. He formerly lived at La Grande in Union Co., and recalled seeing us there.

The employees of the Electric Lumber and Manufacturing mill at River Mill, filed an attachment against it Monday night, for non-payment of wages. This caused a temporary shut down until the dispute was settled. It started up again yesterday afternoon.

Discuss Vital Topics

That the people of this community are vitally interested in spending their leisure time wisely is shown by the fact that about forty people came for the second discussion on public amusement. The study class usually meets on Thursday evening at 7:15 in the Methodist church. There will be no meeting this evening. A week from tonight the discussion will center around the commercialization of amusements. Regular attendance is not essential to take part in these discussions. Those engaged in furnishing amusements to this community are especially invited to the next meeting.

500 Card Party

The United Artisans 500 card party held on Wednesday evening, was well attended. There were eight tables. High honors went to Mrs. R. H. Currin and Dave Eshelman, and consolation prizes to Mrs. Ed Linn and Vernie Duus. A delicious lunch was served by the committee in charge. The next card party will be on February 20th.

Herman B. Davis spent Monday and Tuesday in Portland.

The play night held at the grahge hall Saturday, was attended by over forty people and the evening was spent playing games. The next play night will be January 26.

School Election

Every voter should be present at the election tonight for school director. The question to be settled is whether the policy of the past is to be continued or not? Those who want a change, and judging from the past three elections, they are in the majority, should vote for A. DeMoy. The opposition candidate may be a good man, but he will stand for a policy which has brought dissension and contention to the community. Come and vote according to your convictions so that there can be no mistaking the will of the people.

Who Can Vote Tonight

Any citizen of this state, male or female, who is twenty-one years of age, and has resided in this district for thirty days immediately preceding this election, is qualified to vote. It is NOT necessary to be registered to vote at school elections. (See Oregon School Laws, 1923, Page 81.)

Dorcas Society

The Garfield Dorcas Society will meet Thursday afternoon, January 24, at the home of Mrs. Minnie Eash.

Priscillas Elect Officers

The Priscilla club met at the home of Mrs. Ethel Hively of Currinsville, January 10th. A delicious chicken dinner was served at noon, after which a business meeting was held. January being the club's election month the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Mrs. Lydia McConnell; vice-president, Mrs. Marie Heiple; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Rose Lovell. The remainder of the afternoon was spent in doing fancy work, visiting and listening to the radio. The next meeting will be held February 7th, at the home of Mrs. Lydia McConnell.

Leave Soon for Salem

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tompkins and family will leave next week for Salem, where they will make their home. Their son Lilo is the owner of the cute pair of Shetland ponies which moved the warehouses of U. S. Morgan from across the track this summer. They are well broken and gentle as kittens. Although it almost breaks his heart, Lilo is offering them for sale, as he will not be able to take care of them in the city. Here is a chance for some one to give great pleasure to his children.

GRANGE AGAINST COUNTY NURSES

The Clackamas District Pomona met at Logan with Harding Grange, No. 122, with nearly 200 members present, January 9. Among the many things acted upon was the resolution re-affirming the stand of that body favoring the strict enforcement of the prohibition law, without regard to the social or financial standing of the individual, and commending the officers who are conscientiously endeavoring to enforce the law; favored a 5 cent gasoline tax and that motor vehicles be returned to the property tax and a nominal license fee be charged.

The county court of Clackamas was severely criticized for its action in endorsing the two county nurses and the county agent, and proposed that the offices of county nurses, doctor and agent be placed upon the ballot at the coming November election; also went on record as favoring the proposed occupational representation measure.
