UPPER EAGLE CREEK

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Douglass of Boyd, Oregon, were down on a short visit recently and gave a party up at their home on last Thursday night. Everybody had such an excellent time that Mr. and Mrs. Douglass were persuaded to extend their visit a few days longer and give another party. So they gave a dance last Saturday night with a much larger attendance than on Tuesday night—there being eighty or ninety present. Ed. Hunt and John Irwin of Estacada furnished the music. A delicious supper consisting of chicken, chicken sandwiches, potato salad, cake, pie and coffee was served at midnight, after which the guests departed, tired but happy.

Miss Mildred Douglass was visiting with the home folks on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Woodle made a trip to Troutdale last Friday evening.

Walter Douglass is building a new garage.

Balance in Co. Treasury

The semi-annual report of the county clerk of Clackamas county, covering the period from June 1923, to January, 1924, reveals a cash balance of $142,192 on December 31, with receipts amounting to $1,414,952.37, and disbursements of $1,272,759.84. Over $154 is paid out every day for interest on road bond indebtedness, which amounts annually to $54,209.

Incorporated in the receipts is a delinquent tax collection for 1923 of $710,244.33. From vehicle fund was received $10,390.36 and from the state school fund $22,173.41.

Will Discuss Bonus

At the regular meeting of the Carl Douglass Post, American Legion, on Monday evening February 4th, the bonus question will be discussed. All ex-service people are invited to be present. Pay your dues now and help put Carl Douglass Post among the 100% posts of the state.

ADJUTANT.

Every married person living with husband or wife, in order to claim the exemption of $2,500 and $400 for each dependent, must make a return, although his actual net income for 1923 may have been only $2,000.

Portland Saves 8000 German Babies

Portland people in two weeks subscribed $24,000 toward relief for German children, who are included in the millions in Germany who face starvation because, as Herbert Hoover expressed it, of the economic breakdown, following the world war.

As the American committee for relief of German children has shown it costs two cents per meal to feed a child one hot meal daily in Germany. This means that the people of Portland have saved 8000 children for 150 days.

"We never fought children," said Major-General Allen, head of the nation-wide relief campaign, and the people are showing they support his declaration. The state-wide campaign for this relief work is getting nicely under way, too, with a good response from the people everywhere.

BARTON.

Mrs. Leslie Wallace and little son visited the school Tuesday, also called on Mrs. Geo. Forman.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Ferrel and daughters, Grace and Mrs. Earl Odell, went to Oregon City, Friday.

Mr. Olsen made a business trip to Portland, Saturday.

Miss Clara Tiffany spent Sunday with Miss Bertha Warner.

Elenora and Gladys Guffnet spent the week end with their parents, also attended the dance at Peterson's Hall.

Robey and Carl Lyons of Gresham spent Sunday here visiting old friends.

Mrs. Geo. Forman made a business trip to Portland, Thursday.

Melburn Whitehead was a Portland visitor one day last week.

L. M. Peterson and Leslie Wallace went to Portland on business one day last week.

Mr. William McKinnis from Burns. Harney Co., visited his cousin, Mrs. Leslie Wallace, over the week end. Mr. McKinnis has been in St. Vincent's hospital several months with a broken leg.

Mrs. Wallace's mother and father and grandmother, all of Stafford, and her aunt, Mrs. C. A. Sweek of Corvallis, Ore., were Sunday guests at the Wallace home.

Rev. Mr. Berry held services in the school house Sunday. The attendance was large.

Paul Stassens spent Monday night at the Virilinde home in Currinsville.

CURRINSVILLE ITEMS

L. Hale is reported much better at present writing.

Mrs. Edgar Heiple is again confined to her bed with rheumatism.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Heiple were shopping in Currinsville, Monday.

Miss Ethel Hale is reported to be out of the hospital, and improving rapidly.

Quite a few of the Currinsville people attended the Community meeting at Estacada Friday evening and all report a good time.

A. Verlinde was shopping in Currinsville Monday.

The Currinsville store is making quite an improvement in front of the building. Cement tile has been laid on each side of the road, and covered with rock and gravel. This will make a wide road bed when completed.

J. H. Kitching is still on the mend, we hope to see him well again.

Mrs. Nellie Currin is driving a beautiful new Dodge auto, and she knows how to handle a car, as few women do.

To the friends of the Oregon Journal, February 5 is the last date to send in subscriptions.

The L. E. Bishop property has again changed hands and is now occupied by the new owners.

J. H. Looney is not very well at present writing.

The tamale supper given by the Currinsville ladies aid, netted over forty dollars.

The Currinsville school is doing excellently.

W. F. Coleman is planning to send a sample of wheat as an exhibit, the heads measuring seven inches. This was grown on the E. E. Saling ranch.

Charges to be Heard

As is now generally known, Principal Einarson was last Thursday night, requested by a majority of the school board to resign and given until the following evening to comply. Through his attorney, A. T. Elliott, he refused, so the board filed charges against him, which will be heard tomorrow night. As the case is now in court, further comment must wait. We hope though it will be clearly shown, whether the district has been buncoed or whether he is a much maligned, misrepresented man.

Later:—An injunction was served last evening, issued by Judge Campbell of Oregon City, restraining the board from proceeding further for the present.

Alumni Act Draws Crowd

The Doubleheader given by the Gem management and the E. H. S. alumni last Saturday, drew a record audience of over four hundred people. The alumni staged a one act play entitled "A cure for Hypnotism," with Lydia Matson, Raymond Lovelace and Phil Adams as the cast. In addition to this, Theo Ahlberg played a violin selection and Mrs. Sam Barr and Hobart Linn rendered vocal numbers.

It is reported that a similar show will be given the fourth Saturday of every month, the next one being on February 23rd.

NOTICE

In Praise of Their Principal

The News prints the following out of a sense of fairness.

January 29, 1924.

Dear Fellow Citizens:
As a teacher under the supervision of Mr. K. E. Einarson for the past two years, I wish in all sincerity and in the interests of justice, to make a few statements. Although over 75 per cent of the students and all of the teachers but two have given their signatures in support of Mr. Einarson, there are rumors that teachers and pupils are afraid not to support him. I speak here chiefly for myself but I know from what they have told me privately that those who are supporting him are doing so sincerely and I know a few who are not lending him their definite support thru fear of the opposition.

I am not afraid of Mr. Einarson, nor am I afraid to say frankly, that I believe the new members of the school board, of whom I should supposedly be afraid, are in the wrong in their action against Mr. Einarson. I am not only a supporter of Mr. Einarson but an enthusiastic supporter.

This is my 12th year of teaching and in all my experience I have never met a principal nor a superintendent whom I considered more effective in his administration of school affairs, more sensible and fair in his treatment of both pupils and teachers and more wholesome in his influence among students. There are of course always those both children and adults, who measure life by their own personal interests, whose attitude towards a man is measured by how much he favors them, whether they are right or wrong. Like everyone else Mr. Einarson has people of this sort to deal with.

Personally the more I know of him the more confidence I have in his good judgment and in his integrity in those fundamentals which go to make up a strong good character. I know because I have talked with him, that he believes in the tenets of real Christianity and practices them. I heard him say to last year's graduating class, "I hope you will always be real men and real women." I believe that is the key note of his attitude towards them. He hates cant and hypocrisy and if he said anything that might be misunderstood against churches and religion he had only in mind the hypocrisy and corruption which creeps some times into churches and pretending Christians.

In conclusion, I firmly believe that it will be a long time before Estacada gets a man at the head of its school who will do as much for their children as Mr. Einarson has.

Sincerely,

MARY ATKINSON.

Estacada, Oregon,
The above is indorsed by another teacher, Miss McLaughlin.

VARIED PROGRAM PLEASES AUDIENCE

The meeting of the Community Club at the Estacada Hotel last Friday evening was unusually well attended. The program was novel and highly entertaining from beginning to end.

Mr. Hall of the Oregon Life Insurance Company had several of his assistants entertain the members of the club.

Mr. Teasedale and Miss Aune won the hearty applause of the audience by the rendition of vocal selections; "In the Garden of My Heart," "O, Promise Me," "Honey if Yo' Only Knew," and "By the Waters of Minnetonka."

Mr. Edgar, the speaker of the evening, gave an interesting talk on the importance of imagination, the picturing power of the soul. "Imagination," he said, "fires ambition and it incites to idealism. During and immediately after adolescence the imaginative youth sees himself the master of his environment and he dreams of the life that is yet to come. Our schools should develop imagination and not suppress it as is too frequently done, for a vivid, healthy imagination increases immensely the chances of success in life. Imagination looks into the future. It exhorts us all to get together, each man for himself and the other fellow; it admonishes us not only to live and let live, but to live and help the other fellow to live."

Mr. Shepard, the magician, elicited much laughter by his ability to make objects appear from nowhere and vanish into nothingness. The audience simply roared when he produced a rabbit from the lining of a boy's coat.

During the business session it was voted to go ahead with the exhibition at the Oregon Agricultural College, February 22nd and 23rd. The existing committee on supplying our representative, Miss Irene Saling, with material for the exhibition, composed of John Osborne, Earl Day and C. A. Jacques, was increased by the addition of Mrs. J. R. Hughes, Mrs. S. E. Wooster and Mrs. H. C. Gohring. Mrs. Hughes was named chairman of this group.
