UPPER EAGLE CREEK

Eagle Creek Grange held its regular session last Saturday at the Grange hall, with about 31 present, including the children. A short business meeting was held before noon, when a recess was given in order to partake of an excellent dinner. During the afternoon session one candidate, Mrs. Theodora Heiple, was initiated in the first and second degrees. Had some quite interesting discussions during the lecturer's hour. On Saturday evening the losing side in the contest which the Grange recently had, are to give a banquet to the winning side.

Bert Douglass and son Albert, of Cooks, Washington, were guests of relatives down this way, over the week end.

Mrs. Walter Douglass was a guest at the golden wedding anniversary dinner, of Mr. and Mrs. Paulsen of Bissell, last Saturday afternoon.

A party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Paddison Saturday evening, in honor of their daughter Naomi, whose engagement to George V. Smith, of Eagle Creek, was announced at that time. Arrows, hearts and cupid's darts were everywhere lending true Valentine spirit to the occasion, while dancing was the main diversion. Miss Emily Bergen and Harriett Douglass of Portland, were present.

Cupid Captures an M. D.

On Valentine's Day appropriately, at the Sovereign hotel in Portland, Estacada's esteemed physician, Dr. G. F. Midford, was united in marriage to Miss Marguerite Cassady of Ritzville, Washington, the Rev. Mr. Lee of the Presbyterian church officiating. It was a quiet affair, with only a few relatives and friends present. The bride and groom spent a brief honeymoon in Portland, returning here on Tuesday.

Dr. Midford bought the practice a little over a year ago, of the late Dr. R. Morse, and has won a flattering reputation for his skill and ability as a physician. Since his arrival here he has been living alone in his commodious residence, but now his days of solitude are gone forever. Mrs. Midford, who is the daughter of one of Ritzville's prominent merchants, will no doubt be a great social acquisition to this community, besides being a true helpmeet to her husband. She will receive a hearty welcome from our people, not only on account of the estimation in which her husband is held, but for her own self.

The News on behalf of its constituency offers the newly married pair the heartiest congratulations and best wishes for their future life in our midst.

Official Visit

Centennial Rebekah Lodge No. 147, of Estacada, was honored by a visit from Mrs. Edythe Kelly of Roseburg, president of the Rebekah assembly of Oregon, last Monday afternoon. A special session of the lodge was held and the members enjoyed a splendid address by their distinguished guest. She was entertained for lunch, with the noble grand Mrs. Catherine Jones, and the vice-grand Mrs. Lydia McConnell, by Mrs. W. F. Cary at her home, and light refreshments were served to conclude the delightful afternoon meeting.

There was a large attendance at the M. E. church last Sunday night to hear and enjoy the excellent service of music.

EDWARD SHEARER OUT FOR REPRESENTATIVE

The political pot is beginning to boil, and candidates are coming forward. For representatives to the state legislature on the republican ticket, from this district, M. J. Lee of Canby, George Randall, R. F. D. Oregon City, Phil Hammond of Oregon City and M. S. Shrock of Millwaukie, have been announced. The first three gentlemen were representatives in the last legislature. But none of them is a resident of the eastern part of Clackamas county, and it is only fair that Eastern Clackamas should be represented by one who is resident in it.

Two or three weeks ago, mention was made that Edward Shearer of Springwater, had been approached on the subject, but was then undecided, he now declares his willingness to run. The News is heartily in favor of his so doing, and considers that no better selection can be made. He is a man of sterling worth, and respected wherever he is known. He has acquired distinction as a poultry expert, having been judge and superintendent of the poultry exhibit at the state fair for a number of years. He was born in 1869, coming to Oregon in 1890 and to this county in 1910. At first he was resident in Garfield, but about four years ago he moved to Springwater. Mr. Shearer states as his platform:

Economy in all departments of state affairs; fewer laws passed with a more thorough understanding and enforcement of the laws now on our statute books, will be part of my platform.

Never in the history of our country has knowledge acquired from years of practical, intelligent application to the varied agricultural interests done more to benefit the farmer as an essential counselor in the affairs of state than the present. To my mind the broadest scope of the needs of the whole people is that of the farmer.

Thus if I am elected as representative of the people of this county, I will represent the whole people to the best of my ability, ever bearing in mind the Golden Rule and with due regard and respect for my oath of office.

Community Club

The regular monthly meeting of the Community Club will be held Friday of next week, in the lobby of the Estacada hotel, beginning at 8 p. m. The subject of getting up some advertising for this vicinity will be discussed, and the committee which was appointed at the last meeting will report progress.

Dr. Steiner Dies

In Portland, February 19, Dr. John Steiner, aged 81 years, husband of Ernestine Steiner of Estacada, and father of Dr. J. J. Steiner of Richfield, Utah; Dr. F. W. Steiner of Havre DeGrace, Md., Mrs. Henry Martzloff and Mrs. Mary A. Koser of Portland. The funeral services were held today, at 2:30 p. m., at Finley's mortuary, commitment service, Rose City cemetery.
