BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY
 Bible Thoughts memorized, will prove a priceless heritage in after years.

HAPPY IS HE THAT CONDEMNETH NOT HIMSELF IN THAT THING WHICH HE ALLOWETH.—Romans 14:22.

IS IT CONSCIENCE?

Grover Bergdoll, the escaped war slacker, evidently wishes to return to this country. Whether he is really homesick or whether he is only endeavoring to save his fortune from confiscation is not certain. But he is trying to negotiate, but the government replies in the terms of the late General Grant, "unconditional surrender." But it is remarkable how many men who flee the country to escape arrest for their crimes, are seemingly forced back by an inward compulsion. In former years when bank cashiers absconded to Canada, when there was no extradition law to fear, most of them voluntarily returned after a few years, and faced the music. How many deserters from the services, army and navy, do the same thing? What is the reason?

Governor Pierce is drawing up an anti-cigarette law to forbid the sale or possession of cigarettes or advertising them. Did not Oregon have such a law at one time? It has been tried in other states, only to be repealed or fall into desuetude. We already have a law which forbids their sale, or any kind of tobacco to minors, and in our humble opinion, this, if properly enforced, is all that is necessary.

Denby's Successor

The nomination of Chief Justice Curtis D. Wilbur of the California Supreme court to the Secretary of the Navy, succeeding Edwin Denby, who resigned, has met with approval on all sides. Wilbur is a native of Boonesville, Iowa, having been born there on May 10, 1867. He graduated from the United States Naval Academy in 1888, afterwards entering the law, his first entrance into public life was as chief deputy district attorney of Los Angeles, serving in that capacity for four years. He was then elected Superior Judge, holding that office until 1918, when he was elected Associate Justice of the California Supreme Court, entering that body in 1919 for a twelve year term. Last year he was elevated to the chief justiceship. Despite the fact that he forsook the navy for the law he has always maintained a keen interest in naval affairs, more especially the mechanical side, and has ever been a keen student of the progress made in battleships during the past decade or so. In California they say that his very industriousness causes others to work while engaged upon any task with him.

Mr. Wilbur is a man of deep religious feelings. He does not smoke or drink and for a number of years wrote what might be called a weekly sermon for the Los Angeles papers. He is a man who stands for those institutions on which this country is founded. He believes in church life and the sanctity of the home.
