OREGON NEWS ITEMS OF SPECIAL INTEREST

The first timber wolves to be caught in Oregon for some time were taken in a trap on Evans creek in Josephine county last week, according to Stanley G. Jewett, predatory animal inspector of the United States biological survey. After months of hunting to eradicate a family of the almost extinct species, three were caught and killed in one week by Harry Stokes, predatory animal hunter.

The state grain inspection department, which at the last session of the legislature was taken from the jurisdiction of the public service commission and placed under the direction of the state market agent, is not functioning in the best interest of the public, according to a resolution adopted at Salem by more than 60 members of the Willamette Valley Millers' and Feed Dealers' association.

Exclusive of the investments made during 1923, which were not included in the capital account, the rate of return from operations of the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph company during the year was slightly more than 4 per cent. This was set out in the annual report of the corporation filed in the offices of the public service commission. The net income of the corporation for the year was $5,967,698.27, and the capital investment $140,242,673.36.

Nonagenarian Passes

At the ripe age of 91 years, 7 months and 20 days, Charles W. Seymour passed away last Friday night in the Carolina Kissling home for aged invalids at Portland, where he had been taken a few days previously.

He was born near Syracuse, N. Y., on August 14, 1832, and passed his early life in that state. Subsequently he moved to Missouri, where he met and married Mrs. Alice Chapman on February 24, 1887, near Bethany, and then went to Kansas, where Mr. Seymour engaged in farming. In 1905 they came to Clackamas county, Oregon, and have been residents of Estacada, for the past fifteen years.

Mr. Seymour was a devout member of the Christian church. Some years ago he suffered a paralytic stroke, and never was a well man since, though until recently he was able to go about town and enjoyed meeting his friends.

The funeral service was conducted Sunday afternoon by the Rev. B. F. Clay with interment under the direction of Joseph E. Gates, in the I. O. O. F. cemetery of Estacada, where he had expressed a wish to be buried. Besides his widow, he leaves a sister well advanced in years who lives in Chicago, and no other near relatives.

Birthday Celebration

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Westerman of Boring, had a very pleasant surprise Saturday evening when quite a number of their friends came in to give them a birthday party, the 7th of April being Mrs. Westerman's birthday and the 17th Mr. Westerman's. The evening was spent in playing games, music and a delicious supper was served at the late hour of 12:30 o'clock. All had a good time and left wishing Mr. and Mrs. Westerman many returns of their birthdays.

Two bids for graveling the sidewalks on Main street between third and fourth streets, were received at the meeting of the city council Tuesday night. One was from W. H. Ritchie and the other from A. Sagner. The council is holding them under advisement.

E. E. Brodie, U. S. Minister, to Siam and owner and editor of the Oregon City Enterprise, is home on a furlough. He will leave for Washington, D. C. soon for a conference with the President and the State Department.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Sersanos motored out to their Deep Creek farm Sunday, to see how their fine dairy cows were doing.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Woodlee motored to Troutdale and got two sacks of smelt, giving them out among their friends and neighbors.

Mr. and Mrs. Hal Gibson were calling on H. S. Gibson Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Douglass, accompanied by Sam Wilson, were Portland visitors Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Popina's little daughter Shirley, has the pneumonia.

Advertising Pays

The Ford Motor Co. instituted last fall an immense advertising campaign not only to obtain business but early orders so as to insure early deliveries. That it was eminently successful is shown by the following report received at this office:

Detroit April 7th, 1924—Retail deliveries of Ford cars and trucks in the United States during the month of March reached the record breaking total of 205,735, it was announced by the Ford Motor company here today.

Nothing in the history of the automobile industry compares with this remarkable record.

A significant feature developed during the last ten days of the month when sales averaged 10,804 cars and trucks a day, indicating that the spring buying rush has begun and that under this enormous demand production of the company will be taxed to the limit in an endeavor to meet the heavy flood of orders.

Brenton Vedder Files

Brenton Vedder has filed for re-election to the office of county school superintendent which he has filled for the past four years. His slogan is, "Absolute honesty and integrity, efficiency in public service."

Mr. Vedder said in outlining his candidacy for the office of school superintendent, I wish to assure the taxpayers, patrons, teachers and school children of the county that I shall at all times as in the past, devote my entire time and attention to the upbuilding of the educational interests of Clackamas county and the state of Oregon.

C. W. Brinkhoff, mother and sister, are visiting at the home of Mrs. Brinkhoff's mother, Mrs. Delia Rehn. Mr. Brinkhoff is enroute to San Francisco, where he has accepted a position with the M. Friedman company as manager of the drapery department, having recently resigned from a similar position at Spokane.

COUNCIL TACKLES WATER PROBLEM

A number of our citizens, including Mayor H. C. Stephens, John Osborne, J. F. Lovelace Roy Wilcox of the Water committee; J. C. Duus, W. F. Cary, W. E. Linn and W. H. Ritchie, went to Canby last week to inspect the city water system at that place, which is supplied by a well. They then proceeded to Aurora which has a like system. From what they found out, they are not much impressed by this mode of supply. In fact both the Canby and Aurora authorities advised adoption of a gravity system as preferable. The council is going to see once more if it is not possible to make some arrangement with Oregon City, as there is a new administration there that may be more favorable to it than the previous one. Their engineer has lately reported that by an expenditure of $25,000 they could increase their water supply over a million gallons a day. If this is correct Estacada could help defray the expense on condition of receiving an adequate proportionate amount for its use.

Forest Ranger Addresses Schools

Last Friday afternoon Forest Ranger Albert K. Wiesendanger of the Eagle Creek camp grounds addressed the pupils of the high and grammar schools in the auditorium on the work done by his department for fire protection. Colored slides were shown illustrating how fires are located and extinguished, and the equipment used by the rangers of the National Forest. This address has been given at all the Portland grade and high schools, and it was through the efforts of Ranger Tom Carter that it was delivered here. This is part of his Forest Protection campaign in which he is engaged.

Forest Protection Week

Tom Carter, government forest ranger is preparing for the observance of Forest Protection week, April 21-27. He has interviewed the principal of the school for the purpose of suitable exercises being held by the pupils, and is arranging with the merchants for space in their ads for the publication of fire data in next week's issue of the NEWS.
