"The Hunchback of Notre Dame" will soon be shown at the Gem theatre. Better read up the story in the novel by Victor Hugo.

A handsome limousine passed through Estacada, Monday afternoon. It contained Bishop Sumner of Portland, and the Rev. Canon Bliss of Seattle. The latter is a leading member of the Washington state committee on investigation of the narcotic evil, and is an authority on the subject.

Mrs. Lee A. Wells of Roseburg, Oregon, was here on Sunday calling on friends. She has been for a week or two visiting friends in Portland. Dr. Wells has a most flourishing dental practice, and the two boys are growing very rapidly and are very healthy youngsters.

"Little Old New York," shown last Sunday and Monday at the Gem theatre, very pleasantly afforded a glimpse of the days when life was more simple, more romantic and less strenuous than at present.

Mrs. George Hope and her daughter, Miss Alice M. Hope, of St. Paul, Minnesota, arrived Sunday noon for a brief visit with Mr. and Mrs. Upton H. Gibbs. Mrs. Hope is a very old friend of the editor as he lived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Hope when he came to America in 1881. The father of the former was the doctor of the Gibbs family in the late sixties at Boulogne in France, where they then lived, until 1870, shortly before the outbreak of the Franco-Prussian war.

EDWARD SHEARER

Having just read in the Oregon Voter a statement of the candidacy of Edward Shearer of Estacada, for representative from Clackamas county, I wish to offer a brief statement in his behalf.

I have been more or less associated with public affairs for thirty years, have had intimate acquaintance with many men and have often revolved in my mind a peculiar question—"If I were called upon to select the ten best all round men of my acquaintance; whom would I name?" Attempting a list of this kind today—a list of men rating high for broadminded intelligence, firmness, thrift, morality and right living—truly representative men—I would without hesitancy include the name of Edward Shearer, whom I have known and known thoroughly for sixteen years.

Clackamas county will make no mistake in the election of Mr. Shearer.

BEN F. KEENEY, Eugene, Gre. April 11, 1924.

At the last meeting of the City Council, the bids for the grading and sidewalk on Main street, between Third and Fourth streets were rejected, some changes in the plans and specifications made, and new bids called for, as shown by the "ad" to be found elsewhere in this issue of the NEWS.

County Judicial Mill Busy

Fred A. Miller, county clerk, has compiled the report of the judicial business of Clackamas county for the quarter ending March 31, 1924. During the three months forty-eight law suits were filed in the circuit court. There were also filed thirty-seven equity and 113 divorce suits.

There were twenty-seven criminal cases tried by jury during the quarter. Two contested divorce cases and eighty-five non-contested divorce suits were tried.

The cost of juries in the circuit court amounted to $2088.80. The cost of grand jurors was $134.80. The cost of witnesses in criminal cases was $853.50.

The number of law actions filed in the county court were thirty-seven and ten guardianship cases were filed.

It is now almost a certainty the President Coolidge will be the republican nominee. But who will be his running mate? Among those being mentioned are Senators Borah and Capper, Judge Kenyon and Congressman Dickinson of Iowa, Frank Lowden of Illinois, General Dawes, the reparations expert, Senator Ernst of Kentucky and Governor Hyde of Missouri.

The clock of time seemed for a few minutes turned backward, Saturday morning when a wagon drawn by a team of oxen was driven into town. They attracted considerable attention, especially among the older observers, who recalled the days of their boyhood when they followed such teams, cracking their whips and calling out "Gee" and "Haw".

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

Sealed bids will be received by the City Council of the City of Estacada, Oregon, for the material and labor necessary for the construction and erection on Main street between Third and Fourth streets, of sidewalks, fences, steps, culverts, etc. and the grading and filling in connection therewith. Plans and specifications therefor may be seen at the office of the City Recorder. Bids will be opened by the City Council on Monday evening, May 5th, 1924. The council reserves the right to reject any and all bids. BY ORDER OF THE CITY COUNCIL, 4-24-5-1 J. K. ELY, City Recorder.
