A Social Success

The Hard Times Box social given May 1, by the Neighbors of Woodcraft, was very well attended. It was for the benefit of the Wood Craft Old People's Home, and netted a total of $30.50. Grand Manager Mardell came out from Portland and gave an address on the Home and how it is progressing. He made it evident that the money contributed was well expended in a most worthy cause. The various costumes appropriate for hard times created a great deal of fun for all. A short musical program was given and dancing finished up the evening's entertainment.

DOVER DOINGS

The Rev. Roy Shea of Portland held preaching services in the Dover church Sunday.

Harry Morrison is visiting at the home of his father, James Morrison.

There is to be a box social at the Dover church on Saturday evening May 10. The social is being given by the school and the proceeds are to go for the repairs on the church. Every one is cordially invited to come. Ladies please bring baskets.

Joe DeShazer and family were visiting their son Ralph and family at the Douglass mill Sunday afternoon.

See the Hunchback of Notre Dame at the Gem, tonight, Friday and Saturday.

Methodist Episcopal Church

Sunday is Mothers' Day. Wear a flower for mother, red if she is living, white if not. The morning service at 11, will be in memory of her.

Sunday School at ten. Evening services dismissed because of baccalaureate service. Weekly activities as usual.
