No Place Like Home

So say Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Gohring, who returned from a trip to Sand Point Idaho, Bonner's Ferry and Libby, Montana. The country through which they passed was very dry, and the fresh verdure of western Oregon looked good to them on their return. They made the trip in their car and covered about 1,400 miles.

A Calumny Exploded

In some way, from some unknown source, a rumor spread through the town Tuesday evening, to the effect that the school board had forbidden the use of the high school for the commencement exercises. To refute this malignant calumny, the undersigned school directors went to the high school on Wednesday morning and addressed the student body, and assured the young folks that it was their wish that the exercises be held as always, in the high school auditorium, and further that the board was anxious to supply music and anything else which was needed for the occasion. On being called upon by Mr. Ames to vote on whether the student body would rather have the speaker secured by the board or the one engaged by the principal without the knowledge of the board, the vote was in favor of the latter.

A. G. AMES,
A. DEMOY.

Council Meeting

The council meeting Tuesday night aroused more than ordinary interest, as about forty citizens attended. A Portland engineering firm submitted a proposal to make a water survey for the city, which was taken under advisement. Objections were made against placing the sidewalks on Main street hill, between 3rd and 4th, so close to the pavement, instead of on the line. The council will try to meet the objections, if the property owners will meet the extra expense. Residents by the ball ground protested against the high board fence which shut off the view from their houses. The council referred the protest to the school board. It was also decided to install toilets and pipe water to the auto camp ground.

PARK BALL GROUND BEING LAID OUT

The P. E. P. Co. is proving its contracted appellation as it has started in, under the direction of Manager Moore of the Estacada Hotel and Dinty Moore, to clearing a space of about 350 by 250 feet for a ball ground in the park at the rear of its depot agent's residence. The band stand which was damaged last winter by the falling of a tree will be repaired as well as other buildings. The grounds are to be cleaned up and everything put into ship shape for picnics this season. On Sunday the Portland Dental College will hold its annual picnic, and a number of others are booked for the coming months.

The company deserves much credit for the way it tries to make this place popular for summer outings. The town receives not only benefit from the influx of visitors, but the park is always available to the townpeople for any occasion without money and without price. It is not every place that is thus favored by nature and a corporation.

Candidates Endorsed

Attention is called to the ad of the Good Government League which gives the names of those candidates, national state and county who meet with its approval.

Attention Voters

To the Voters of Clackamas Co.: "In behalf of our County Superintendent of Schools, Brenton Vedder, we the undersigned, ask your consideration of the following facts:

During his term of office as County Superintendent we have found him to be kind, courteous, just, and thoroughly efficient. The welfare of the schools of Clackamas county has been his first consideration, and no sacrifice of personal convenience, time or effort has ever been too great for him to make, in order that the best interests of the schools should be maintained.

Under his able leadership, our schools have steadily advanced until Clackamas County stands high in the educational ranks of our State.

We feel that the very best interests of children, parents, patrons and instructors will be secured by the retention of Superintendent Vedder as our County Superintendent and we gladly and of our free will write this letter of endorsement giving to Mr. Vedder our whole hearted support."

Signed by fifty-one names including Mrs. Ethel Lansdowne, county school supervisor, Supt. of schools Milwaukie, the principals of Canby, Gladstone, Jennings Lodge, Oak Grove, Concord, Ardenwald, Wichita, Damascus, Willamette, Battin, Milwaukie, Park Place, Union High West Linn, Sunset, and Barclay in Oregon City. Besides these there are a number of school officials, teachers and taxpayers, including 2 directors, clerk, janitor, a teacher and 3 taxpayers of the Oswego school and district.

Coolidge will without doubt carry Oregon by a large majority. A few votes may be given to H. J., which in comparison will make him look like A. J.

FOR SHERIFF

D. E. Christiansen of Oswego, asks the support of the republican voters for his nomination for sheriff. He is a farmer who owns and works his farm, and is also a student at the Pacific Chiropractic College in Portland. His slogan is "The cleanest and best county in the state." 4-24tf
