

Campfire Girls

Last week the girls of the Clackamas Campfire of Estacada, under the guardianship of Miss Garbe, climbed Larch mountain. They left here about 6 a. m. arriving at Multnomah Falls at 8 a. m. They spent the remainder of the day climbing as none had ever made the trip before. They returned Sunday evening about 6 o'clock. All had a very enjoyable time. The party consisted of Miss Garbe, Florence June Reed, Alice Kaake, Irene Kaake, Helen Smith and Avis Cadonau. Later in the week a ceremonial was held. The girls to receive the rank of wood gatherers, were Irene Kaake, Florence Hassel and Avis Cadonau. Lucile Saunders was received as a new member.

Hymeneal

On Tuesday, May 20, at Vancouver, Wash., Miss Mary Ely, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Ely, was united in marriage to Mr. Jack Norton. The bride was attended by her mother and the groom by personal friends. They will make their home in a houseboat on the river below the Oaks park Portland. The bride is a great favorite among her friends here who will all wish her joy. The groom until recently was the proprietor of the Sanitary barber shop, but is now employed in Portland.

Old Scotch Liniment

G. A. Masse has favored this office with an order for 3000 handbills and 1000 labels for his famous Old Scotch rheumatic liniment. He is at present located at Shelton, Wash., and writes that his liniment is achieving marked success among the men in the nearby lumber camps, and that he is short on his orders. We are glad to learn of his doing so well, as we can vouch for the remedy being good. His own health he states, which has been poor for sometime, is now fully restored.
