

DOUGLASS MILL GOSSIP

The gossip says: That George Douglass has purchased a Buick. That Gene Ford and family moved down by Oregon City, on Saturday.

That Carl Montgomery and family and Ike Akers and family motored to Oregon City, Sunday.

That Mr. and Mrs. Ed Douglass and Betty Jean drove to Morrow Saturday evening to spend the night and Sunday with Mrs. Douglass' mother, Mrs. Cluster. Her brother came back with them to stay a few days.

That the mill will close down for a week next Monday.

That Ralph De Shazer and his family spent Sunday at Dover.

That the best fish story of the year originated at the Douglass mill. Friday morning the ram stopped and investigation proved that a trout was lodged in the pipe so that no water could pass through. There was only water in the tanks to run half a day, so Ed and the other mill hands went fishing.

J. W. Shafford came from Portland Monday afternoon. He will remain here about a month. He came to look after the harvesting of his loganberry crop on his patch east of town. We regret to learn that Mrs. Shafford is in a very weak condition, not being able to walk or talk and is gradually sinking.

DOVER DOINGS
