Methodist Episcopal Church

A good sized audience greeted Mr. Dawe last Sunday morning and his talk proved very interesting.

Rev. Mr. Mort will return home this week and hold services as usual next Sunday.

An especially attractive and interesting meeting of the Epworth League, is announced for Sunday evening. It is hoped that there will be a good attendance.

Matinee Tomorrow

Tomorrow the Gem Theatre will run twice in the afternoon. The first show at 2:30 and the second at 4 o'clock.

LOGAN RIDGE

Quite a thunder storm in this locality Monday night, but only a sprinkle of rain. However it did much to relieve the heat of Sunday and Monday, which was terrific.

John Hassell of Estacada was out to his ranch on Thursday. He reports his logan and black cap crops will be short from lack of rain.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Young were in Portland on Thursday.

Mrs. J. Arnold called at the Darby home on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Pathe and Mr. and Mrs. White attended the Holstein sale at Gresham Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Asquith were in Portland Friday to secure the cates for harvesting their black-caps. They have a small Ford truck.

W. K. Winslow, wife and son, of Aumsvill, were visiting at the home of Mrs. Winslow's brother, P. J. Darby, on Sunday. They reported things being more damaged in their locality than here, by the drought.

Bert Hall, wife and daughter, spent Monday at the ranch.

Messrs. Pathe and White were in Oregon City at the organization of the Holstein association. Mr. Pathe was made secretary and Mr. White one of the cow inspector committee.

Mr. and Mrs. Cooper were callers at the E. S. Cromer home Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Feathers and son Clayton are visiting at J. Youngs.

Haying is the common pastime right now. The crop, tho light, is better than expected.

The road work in this quarter is about completed. Is it a big improvement? Yes, but not enough yet.

VIOLA

We are having eastern warm weather at present, which we Oregonians don't like very well.

Mrs. John Randolph has as guests her friend Mrs. Nettie Jurian and daughter Elma, of California.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hinkle are the proud parents of a baby girl, born in Oregon City June 20. Mrs. Hinkle will return to her home here Tuesday, after spending the past four weeks in Oregon City with her mother.

J. H. Sevier and Mr. Linde and son Millard made a business trip to Portland on Monday.

Ladies have you seen the new shades in silk hosiery at Rose's? The prices are exceptionally low and the quality exceptionally high.

DOVER DOINGS

Among those attending the baptising in the Sandy river on Sunday from here, were the Joe De Shazer family, Pete Pashal and the Charles Updegrave family.

Berry picking is over for the season. A good crop was had by all.

Hiram Johnson is helping Joe De Shazer put in his hay.

Miss Alice Udell has been visiting friends and relatives at Barton.

The Bear Creek Logging Co., successor of the Dwyer Logging Co., has a large number of grading crews at work on the right-of-way. They expect to be logging over the rails by the last of the summer. The railway is to tap the 3-6 country.

Ernest Rynning after an enforced vacation through illness, is now back again managing the People's C. & C. store.

POMONA GRANGE

Clackamas District Pomona Grange held its regular quarterly meeting at George on June 25th, Worthy Master M. C. Glover, presiding.

The morning was passed in routine business. A basket dinner was served in the grove on tables beautifully decorated by George Grange.

Memorial service was held for George A. Brown of Maple Lane Grange and the charter was draped in memory of Past National Master Oliver Wilson.

There were reports from subordinate lodges and echoes from the State Grange under the supervision of Acting Lecturer Florence Dickinson.

Pomona Grange went on record as favoring an amendment to the constitution making the compensation law compulsory in a state fund.

A resolution passed asking the courts to sentence all liquor violators, both sellers and buyers, to hard labor, and that the county court be asked to provide suitable means for employing such prisoners.

Also a resolution was passed asking that the tract of land at the junction of Eagle creek and North Fork, known as Fern Park, be made a federal reserve and to be open to the public at all times.

Seventeen candidates were initiated in the fifth degree.

An interesting and varied program was given in the evening directed by Henry Joyner, lecturer of George grange.

Prominent speakers present were State Master George A. Palmiter, State Market Agent C. E. Spence and Judge Gordon E. Hays.

The next meeting will be held at Milwaukie, Ore., October 8.

Irrigation Hours

Cheer up, it had to come and it has come, so grin and bear it. The city council has ordered the following regulations for the use of water for irrigation. The city is divided into four districts and the hours will be as below:

West of Broadway and south of 5th street, on Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 5:30 to 7:30 a. m. and on Sunday 6:30 to 7:30 a. m.

East of Broadway and south of 5th street, on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday from 5:30 to 7:30 a. m. and on Sunday from 7:30 to 8:30 a. m.

West of Broadway and north of 5th street, on Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 6:30 to 8:30 p. m. and on Sunday from 6:30 to 7:30 p. m.

East of Broadway and north of 5th street, on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday from 6:30 to 8:30 p. m. and on Sunday 7:30 to 8:30 p. m.

A penalty of $1.00 will be charged if instructions are not strictly followed, and violations will be noted and reported.

Roy Richard and a boy friend of Pleasant Home, are spending a few days at La Rose Lawn.

A short time ago, J. A. Upton went to Portland to live at the Pisgah Home. Friday word came that he was seriously ill, and his daughter Mrs. W. E. McWillis, and his son Upton went to Portland to see him. Returning Saturday they reported that he was improving.

Mrs. Clara Hicinbotham of River Mill, while picking cherries on Friday, had a narrow escape from getting seriously hurt. A limb broke and she fell backward about ten feet, landing in a blackberry bush and on a fence. Her arms were bruised and her neck and back hurt quite a bit.

"White Tiger" at the Gem theatre is one of those unusual photographs that present melodrama and clever humor at the same time. It is a Universal Jewel production starring Priscilla Dean, with Wallace Beery, Matt Moore and Raymond Griffith supporting her. The story is of international crooks and furnishes plenty of drama in their operations, and at the same time tells lovely little jokes about "honor among thieves" and all that hokum and bunk that has so long been exploited in fiction and film.—Booked to show at the Gem next Tuesday and Wednesday.

Attention Odd Fellows

The installation of officers will take place next Saturday night. All members please make an effort to be on hand.

SECRETARY.

UPPER EAGLE CREEK

Mrs. S. J. Eddy accompanied by her friends, Mrs. Koon and Mary and Alice Koon of Portland motored out to R. B. Gibson's last Thursday.

Last Saturday evening a party was given at the old Douglass house in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Douglass and daughter Edna, who, accompanied by some friends of theirs of Boyd, Oregon, motored down to Upper Eagle Creek. Quite a large crowd was present and everyone seemed to enjoy themselves. Delicious refreshments were served.

Eagle Creek Grange held its meeting last Saturday evening. A short business session was held. Three candidates were initiated in the first and second degrees, and one candidate reinstated. The Grange now has a degree team and they put on a drill and tableau after the initiations. The ladies presented a very nice appearance in their white dresses and regalia. There was one visitor at the Grange meeting, a Garfield patron, Mrs. Gilgan.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Douglass accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Douglass, to Estacada, Sunday, where they took dinner with Mr. and Mrs. James Denning.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Gibson were calling on Mr. and Mrs. Dick Gibson, Sunday Evening.

Mr. and Mrs. King and two children who live near College City, California, are guests of H. S. Gibson. Mr. Gibson used to live with them some thirty-five years ago while attending college in College City.

To Fruit Growers

We appreciate the co-operation the growers are giving us in selecting and picking their berries. We have established a reputation which we are making every effort to maintain, and at this particular time it can only be done with the help of the growers in selecting only the perfect fruit at the time of picking.

We have felt the result of the late hot wind, but not nearly so much as in other localities. Let us continue to exercise great care in our picking for only by doing so can we expect the approval of the canners. In visiting the various yards we find the vines are in good condition and the best fruit is now coming on. We are still in the market for Royal Ann cherries. Carriers may be had at the cannery.

J. G. HAYMAN, MGR.

For the Glorious Fourth

A grand good time is assured in Estacada for the Fourth and two following days, as the Eagles lodges of Portland will hold their annual picnic on those dates in the park. This fraternal order is noted for the lavish way it gets up these affairs. Look up its display ad. They have made arrangements with our local band to help furnish the music, the band to receive 75% of the gate receipts to the park, admission to which will be 10 cents. Come out and help our band.

Stork Leaves Daughter

A young lady weighing over 7 pounds was left at St. Joseph's hospital, Tacoma, Wash., for Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Dodge, of Roy, Wash., on Sunday, June 29. All are doing well. Mrs. Dodge was formerly Miss Frances Murphy and niece of C. S. Allen of Estacada. She is well known here and her friends will extend congratulations.

Mrs. Bernard Just of St. Paul, Minn., visited her friend Mrs. John Blauth, the first of the week.

MOVES INTO NEW MODERN PHARMACY

Miss Maude Sturgeon is to be congratulated on being located in her new pharmacy, which takes the place of the one burned last fall. Phoenix like it has risen from the ashes in a more substantial and handsomer form. Built of hollow tile with cement exterior coat, it is fire proof, and the plate glass windows and superb fixtures finished in dark oak, give it a most artistic appearance. Designed and equipped after the most modern fashion, it is a building which would be a credit to any city.

Miss Sturgeon is entitled to the highest praise for her enterprise. The NEWS hopes that under the new favorable conditions for rendering better service to the public, she may soon recoup her losses from the fire.

Was It Foul Play?

J. E. Gates was summoned to Portland, Monday, to get the body of Gilbert Goldstrom, who was the brother of Mrs. William Gilgan of Garfield. There is a mystery about his death, altho the coroner pronounced it suicide by drowning. But his friends are by no means convinced on this point, and believe he was the victim of foul play. According to the testimony submitted, shortly after midnight, Monday morning, he jumped off the Burnside bridge and fell on the dock below and then rolled off into the river. A night watchman heard his cries and summoned the police. His body was found later in the morning by the patrol boat.

As he was a young man of exemplary habits and had money in the bank, there seems no reason for him committing suicide. Moreover he seldom went to that part of Portland, rather avoiding it. His friends think that he must have been drugged and then thrown into the river. It was known he had a watch and some money on him when he left his boarding house, and these were not on him when his body was found.

He was born in Appleton, Minnesota, September 11, 1898, in 1900 moved with his parents to Canada. In December 1924, he moved to Oregon, where he lived ever since. He leaves a father, two brothers and two sisters to mourn his loss. The funeral arrangements are awaiting the arrival of his father from Alberta, Canada.

W. C. T. U. Notes

The ladies of the W. C. T. U. will meet Thursday, July 10, at the residence of Mrs. H. C. Gohring for their regular meeting.

Through the generosity of the Multnomah County Fair board, the Children's Farm Home at Corvallis, sponsored by the W. C. T. U., will receive fifty per cent of the sale of the fair tickets, except those purchased at the gate during the fair. A friend, Mr. John Barde, has met the entire expense for the sale of the tickets. This should merit industrious and hearty effort to boost the sale of the tickets. It is hoped that enough money will be obtained from the sale for a much needed cottage for boys, who are now crowded into every available space at the Home. Another cottage is therefore imperative, or else many homeless boys must be turned away. Buy tickets and attend the fair which meets at Gresham, at least on Farm Home Day, Wednesday, July 30th.

John Blauth Jr. was in Portland Tuesday.
