DOUGLASS MILL GOSSIP

The gossip says that the mill is closed for a week so that every one will have a vacation.

That Mr. and Mrs. Ed Douglass and Betty Jean accompanied by Mrs. Cluster of Morrow, the mother of Mrs. Douglass, Mildred DeShazer and Raymond Hansen, started for Newport on Monday.

That Gus Sanindia and little son Orvil visited a day or so with the Ike Akers family. Early on Monday morning they all went to Marshfield where Mr. S. lives. He is Mrs. Akers' brother-in-law.

That on Sunday Mrs. Carl Montgomery entertained her sisters from Willamette, also Miss Hively of Currinsville.

That Carl Montgomery was in Oregon City Monday.

That the Montgomery family left Tuesday morning for Eugene where they will spend a week with friends.

That Ed Chapman was visiting at the mill Sunday.

That George Douglass' family motored out several times last week from Portland.

That when the mill opens up again Mrs. Hansen will have the charge of the cook house.

That the ball game at Barton Sunday afternoon between Barton and Douglass Mill proved quite thrilling. The Lumberjacks won by a score of 9 to 10. Carl Rehberg was the Babe Ruth for the mill, while Duke knocked a three bagger. Roy Douglass was in five pitching trim, and George Smith as catcher. Both teams deserve praise for their sportsmanship. The mill players were the three Smith brothers, Ray Hansen, Roy and El
