Two made One

Stanley Turel of Ellwood was married June 28, in Oregon City to Miss Mamie Marrs of Dodge, Judge Campbell officiating. The newlyweds immediately started off on an auto trip to Grants Pass and Myrtle Point in the southern part of the state. They returned to the groom's nice little home in the foothills last Saturday evening and Tuesday night their friends accorded them a noisy serenade, which they suitably acknowledged by serving a fine treat to the serenaders. The bride is the daughter Jim Marrs and was born and raised in Dodge. All unite in best wishes for their future journey together on the sea of matrimony.

Ladies, we have just received a line of the latest things in novelty suitings. Come in and look them over; they will interest you. At Rose's.

"We have made our whole campaign for gifts among the alumni center around this splendid war memorial court" said Mr. Kuykendall. "While it will especially honor the men of the state university who died, it will in a larger sense commemorate the sacrifice and the service of all men of our state who died and all who served. We want it to be at the very heart and center of the University's life so that, for generations to come, Oregon students will find in it a constant inspiration to self-sacrifice and service."
