Birthday Celebration
A triple birthday celebration occurred recently at the home of Mrs. McGraw of Currinsville, who gave a surprise party in honor of her son Burnie Looney and his uncle C. W. Bolen whose birthdays came on the same day, and also of Mrs. Bessie Emery whose birthday was to come a little later. About twenty guests assembled and did justice to the toothsome dinner which was provided by Mrs. McGraw. There were three birthday cakes angel, devil and gold, besides chicken, pies, and other comestibles too numerous to mention. All enjoyed a rattling good time and left wishing the honor guests many happy returns of the day, and praising the hostess's bountiful hospitality.

Barber Shop Sold
Frank Moreland who has been working the past week in Miller's barber shop has gone into partnership with him. The new firm has purchased the Square Deal barber shop from Earl LaForge and will run both shops in their same locations. The prices will be hair cuts 35, shaves 15 and 5 cents extra for neck shaves,
MILLER & MORELAND.

ESTACADA CELEBRATION PLANS FOR SEPT. 1

More details of the numerous attractions for the celebration on Labor day and ceremonies and plans in connection with the same, were worked out at a general committee meeting held at the city hall last night.

It was decided to have four attendants to the Queen, who will be crowned in the fore noon at 10:30. Following this elaborate ceremony there will be drills by the I. O. O. F. and Rebekah lodges and perhaps other attractions along this line, and plenty of music by the Eastern Clackamas band.

The barbecue will be the next attraction. Come and get a piece of juicy roast beef for your picnic dinner, which will be served liberally by the committee in charge.

After dinner at 2 o'clock, there will be a program of speaking, vocal and instrumental music, a concert by the band and other forms of entertainment.

A portion of the paved street will be cleaned and put in fine shape for dancing in the evening, and a good orchestra will furnish music for this unique terpsichorean amusement.

Other features of the celebration will be the attractions along the "Pike," consisting of a merry-go-round, a mountain ape, Old Man and Woman, nigger babies, vaudeville entertainment, country store, fortune teller, menagerie, lunch stands, a beautiful floral display, etc. Confetti, balloons and squacker stands.

It is expected that hundreds of visitors will throng our little city all day and that they will have the carnival spirit and enjoy the entertainment furnished. Remember that Estacada has a free auto park. The entire entertainment will be held on the flat near the city hall.

The contest for a Queen is already becoming interesting. There are eight candidates, one from Garfield, one from Springwater—selected by the Granges, and six from Estacada. All of them are charming and well qualified to grace the throne. The standing of the votes up to 9 o'clock last night, is as follows:
Olive Davis.....120
Lolo Moore.....178
Retha Ames.....195
Irma Gates.....46
Vernien Cramer.....16
Betty Weir.....25
Elva Shibley.....20
Rose Kolva.....160

The carnival section for the celebration, will be decorated in gala attire, and all those having large flags which they will loan, are requested to leave them at Ely's store. Of course it is expected that all business houses will assist by "dolling up" for the occasion.

The entire program can not be given at this time, as arrangements have not all been completed.

UPPER EAGLE CREEK

Mrs. S. J. Eddy and children and Mrs. J. M. Lightfoot and daughter, Betty, were the dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Gibson last Wednesday. Mrs. Eddy returned home that evening leaving the rest for a longer visit.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Gibson, Mr. and Mrs. Will Douglass, Mrs. Lightfoot and daughter Betty, were the dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Denning of Estacada last Thursday.

Mrs. Roy Douglass called on Mrs. Paddison last Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hoffmeister, little son Victor, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Woodlee and son Leslie, motored to Mt. Hood the first of the week.

Dick Gibson sold a Jersey bull to Earl McConnell the other day.

Mrs. Roy Douglass's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. Moehake, and her brother Albert and his family, stayed with her over Saturday night and Sunday.

Patrons of Eagle Creek grange please remember that there will be a meeting at the Grange hall, this coming Saturday night, August 23, every body come. Visitors from George and Damascus granges are expected. The ladies in the drill team are especially requested to be present.

Highway Dedication

Tomorrow at Oregon City the Pacific Highway between the county seat and Canemah will be officially opened and dedicated. At 10:30 a. m. the coronation of Queen Ruby I will take place and our versatile Governor Walter M. Pierce will have the honor of placing the diadem on her head. This will be on the county court house steps, and Her Majesty will be escorted by two maids of honor, Misses Mattie Burkhalter and Pauline Pace, and her prime minister Willard P. Hawley, Jr., will stand at her elbow. A reception will follow the coronation when all can pay their respects to the queen.

The formal dedication will take place at 2 p. m., beginning with a parade to Hawley Auto park where the ceremony will be held. Governor Pierce and others will orate, and ice cream, coffee and cake will be served by the committee. The conclusion of the day's functions will be a grand dance in the pavilion of Hawley park.

It will soon be time to think about school shoes. We have a very complete line of Peters' all leather shoes, the best for the money. We take pains in fitting them properly, which gives you better wear. Come in when you are ready and let us show you the difference, at Rose's.

For a Floral Display

There will be a floral exhibition on Labor Day as part of the celebration program. It will be held in the Pharmacy through the courtesy of Miss Sturgeon. It is intended to promote the cultivation of flowers which do so much to make a yard attractive. Everybody who has flowers is cordially invited to make a display or at least send in a bouquet. A request is made that the flowers be donated to sell for the benefit of the band and library. A prize, probably a choice pot plant, will be offered for the best display for variety, quality and artistic arrangement. Those wishing to send flowers please notify as soon as possible, Mrs. U. H. Gibbs, Mrs. F. G. Robley, or Mrs. A. G. Ames, so the committee will know how much space will be required.

ORATORS ORATE AT GRANGE PICNIC

At the Garfield Grange picnic in the Estacada park last Saturday a feast of reason and flow of soul followed on the feast of viands furnished at the basket dinner, the appetite for which had been whetted by an overture by the band, which made its first appearance in its new uniforms. When the time came for the program the audience was in a receptive and expectant mood.

The chairman of the day Lew Palmateer who is master of the Garfield grange which engineered the picnic. The first speaker was State Grange Master George A. Palmiter of Hood River, who spoke very strongly and earnestly of the need of cooperation and organization among the farmers, in order to protect and further their own interests. Jefferson Myers, state treasurer, spoke CON AMORE of what he had done in the treasurer's office in disentangling and straightening out complications, and promised if reelected he would get everything O. K., and stand back of the governor in his efforts to promote the interests of the people. W. A. Dazell, the governor's private secretary, was called upon and responded briefly by telling a funny story. State Market Agent C. E. Spence spoke mainly on his pet measure, the oleomargarine bill, showing how this product is lacking in vitamins and deleterious to health, and that it was threatening seriously to injure the market for butter, and thus throw the dairymen out of business.

But the chief speaker as was right, not only from his position but also his elocutionary ability which he has developed by continuous practice, was our estimable Governor Pierce. Whether you agree with him or not, it is always a pleasure to listen to him. He is never a dull speaker, no matter how erratic his oratorical flights may be. He captivates his audiences, sometimes to the verge of hypnotism. And while in debate he may hit out strongly, he is willing to take, and bear no ill will after the scrap is over. Saturday he was chiefly on the defensive and explanatory. He told what he had done while governor, and touched on the points coming up at election, especially advocating the income tax. At the outset of his speech he referred to the attempt to recall him, which proved abortive. He said he was glad to be present on this occasion as he had feared at one time he would be recalled to his white faced calves on his farm near LaGrande. He laid especial stress on the duty of voting and declared his intention to advocate taxes on cigarettes and picture shows.

Between the speeches two delightful solos were sung by Mrs. E. E. Morehead of Portland, who was accompanied by her sister, Mrs. J. E. Gates. A selection by a quartette, Messrs. J. B. Robertson, E. Marshall, W. R. Jones and J. K. Ely closed the program.

Band Show To-Night

The band will stage another show at the Gem theatre tonight. It will run a picture based on the well known novel by John Fox Jr., "The Trail of the Lonesome Pine." This is one of the most fascinating mountain stories. A comedy, "Friend Husband" will furnish a side splitting feature. Prices of admission are as usual.
