Evangelistic Conference

The lady evangelists who have been holding meetings all around this vicinity during the summer, will be in Estacada on Sunday. They will be assisted by a Dr. Nichol who will preach on Heaven at 11. In the afternoon a conference will be held at 2, and a night service at 8. The place of meeting was not stated in notice sent paper.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Moore returned Friday evening from their vacation trip to the McKenzie river country. They report a delightful time and are more than ever in love with Oregon and its scenic beauties.

OREGON NEWS ITEMS OF SPECIAL INTEREST

The first sales of 1924 Oregon hops of the late crop were made at 12 to 13 cents.

Native bred wild ducks are comparatively plentiful in waters of Umatilla county.

Bids for the construction of a $100,000 Junior high school in Astoria will be opened by the school board October 1.

J. E. Thompson, for the past 10 years chief auditor in the state industrial accident commission, died at the home of his mother in Salem.

Railroad service between Tillamook and Portland was halted by forest fires at Wakefield and Snark, about 38 miles from Tillamook.

More than 50 forest fires were started in the Umpqua national forest by a severe thunder storm. A heavy rain which followed extinguished the fires.

Chinook salmon eggs totaling 4,000,000 have been taken out for planting from the McKenzie river hatchery. Last year the record was 15,000,000 eggs.

A car of Oregon Wealthy apples was sold at auction at New York at $3.25 @ 3.50, averaging $3.37 for extra fancy and $2.90 @ 3.50, averaging $2.95 for fancy.

One of the army De Havilland airplanes used on forest patrol was badly wrecked at Eugene when it struck a fence at the edge of the municipal aviation field.

Half of the town of Sisters was destroyed by fire which started in the C. L. Gist hotel, apparently from a defective flue. The loss was estimated at $25,000.

Thirty boys of Polk county, who have been raising Jersey calves for exhibition at the state fair, will gather at Rickreall September 19 and hold an amateur Jersey show.

The state highway commission at a meeting to be held in Portland September 25 will open bids for the construction of approximately 15 miles of new road and one bridge.

Hop crop estimates of Oregon are being revised upward as a result of the last surveys of the Willamette valley yards. Figures now place the 1924 crop at close to 50,000 bales.

DOUGLASS MILL GOSSIP

The wedding bells rang Friday for Miss Ellen Hansen and Irvin Updegrave, both of the mill. The bride is the popular daughter of Mrs. Lulu Hansen and the groom is the son of Mrs. Susan Kellier of Dover. Their hosts of friends wish them many long years of married life. They will make their home at the mill in the house formerly occupied by the C. R. Montgomery family.

C. R. Montgomery and family visited Ike Akers Sunday.

Walter Douglass is making his Fordson do double service these days. Early in the morning he brings it to the lower mill pumps water to last through the day, and then goes home with it and farms.

Walter Kitzmiller and family of Oregon City were the dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph DeShazer Saturday evening.

Frank Mills was an Oregon City business visitor Monday. Raymond DeShazer acted as engineer that day.

Aid Society Wants Work

In planning their work for the fall and winter, the ladies of the Christian Church have decided that they can perhaps, better serve the community by doing sewing, quilting, tacking comforts, embroidery and crochet work. If any persons need work of this class done, the Aid Society of the Christian Church, will be pleased to have you communicate with any one of the following ladies: Mesdames D. M. Marshall, Henry Beers, Julius Krieger, John Osborne and B. O. Sarver.

There will be a meeting of the LaFollette supporters in the I. O. O. F. hall in Estacada on Friday, October 3, at 8 p. m.

FRUIT SHIPMENTS BEAT ALL PREVIOUS YEARS

The fresh fruit season was one of great success, in fact the greatest ever known in Eastern Clackamas. It started out in the early part of the summer with gooseberries followed by strawberries, logans, raspberries, black caps, Lawton blackberries, dewberries, cherries, pears evergreens and fresh prunes. Apples and dried prunes are coming on a little later. Not even in winter was there such a demand for fruit from this section. This result has been obtained only through great effort on the part of a few men. Fifty three car loads and about eighty truck loads were handled in all. Sgoble & Day consigning 33 car loads of prunes to points in the east, middle west and Canada. Libby, McNeil & Libby bought 20 car loads of prunes besides the whole logan berry crop, also raspberries and cherries. The remainder of the small fruit was sent to Portland, Salem and Hillsboro. This achievement is one of which we may well be proud and should inspire every fruit grower to get after this business with renewed vigor. It is too soon to make predictions for the coming year, but the prospect is very good that Estacada fruit will be in good demand.

Theatre Extends Courtesy

Mountain Chapter, order of the Eastern Star, held its first meeting in the new Masonic building Tuesday night. Quite a number of visitors from Portland and other places were present, beside a good attendance of members. The spaciousness of the beautiful room, seemed somewhat strange, but as soon as the Stars realize that "east is west," they will get along beautifully.

At the close of the meeting the worthy matron announced that an invitation had very cordially been extended by Mr. Feyerabend, the already popular young manager of the Liberty theatre, for the Chapter to witness the last run of the picture before returning home. The invitation was accepted and very much enjoyed by all.

Car Auto Agent

W. F. Cary has added another line to his many activities. He is now agent for the Star car, which has become so deservedly popular of late. He has the latest models and he drives one which is decidedly rifty in appearance.

We have just received a line of young men's trousers and sweaters, makes a good combination for a school suit. At Rose's.

An Aftermath

The proceeds from the celebration on Labor day, were $483.90 and when all expenses were paid it left a balance of $280.30, the Eastern Clackamas band and the Library Association sharing equally. The $140.15 was very acceptable to each, and received with thanks to all who contributed. The expense of the celebration was run on its own merits, which was quite unusual, as generally the business men are asked to contribute to such occasions.

SCHOOL OPENING NEXT MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 22

On Monday morning, September 22, the Estacada schools will open for the year. There will be an entirely new faculty. In the grammar school the teachers beginning with the first grade, are as follows: Miss Maude Sherman of Athena, Or.; Mrs. Bertha Pennington, Portland; Miss Thyra Staats, Monmouth; Miss Frances Hassell and Miss Lyla B. McKinney, Estacada; Miss Lillian Schmidt, Portland. These come well recommended having had two years or more of successful teaching.

The high school teaching force is: O. T. Olson, principal of both schools; home economics, Miss Katherine Marshall, Gervais; English, Miss Alta Kirshner, Salem; languages and history, Miss Dorothy Blake, Portland; manual training and athletics, Paul C. Giddings, Albany; science and mathematics, Claude Wilson, Portland. These were selected after careful consideration and are well qualified for their respective positions.

Prof. Olson advises that those having second hand school books for sale, to bring them Monday morning. Since some of the text books are to be changed next year it will be well to dispose of all books if possible.

School Buildings Improved

During the summer, a number of much needed improvements have been made in the High School building. Saturday morning under the guidance of the principal, we were taken through it and shown what had been done. On the ground floor, the boys' locker room has been calcimined and 26 locker doors replaced and all revarnished. In the hall ways four new fire hoses have been installed. The manual training room has been doubled in size by turning into it the former science room, the wall having been taken down. Thus the whole department will be in one room, instead of being divided up into three or four rooms as formerly, with part on one floor and part on another, which caused a great deal of inconvenience besides hindering its efficiency. The wood basement has been consequently enlarged by the space which the machines had occupied. In the domestic science room the tables and sink have been enameled, the stools varnished, and the walls calcimined for the height of three feet or so from the base board. Repairs have also been made on the furnace.

On the second floor considerable calcimining has been done, the desks in the auditorium and class rooms have all been varnished, the piano tuned and polished, and a leak in the roof fixed. The science room has been moved over to the former English room at the southeast corner of the second floor. A new flag also has been purchased for the High School so each building will have its flag. On the grammar school building minor repairs have been done where necessary, but not much was required this year. New grates have been provided for the furnace.

We found Janitor Sarver busy at work, and when the bell rings on Monday, September 22nd, the pupils will find everything spic and span awaiting them, so that they can study under ideal conditions.

Roger Cary of Portland, was the guest of his brother, W. F. Cary and family, last Thursday evening. He was enroute to his Hot Springs up in the mountains.

SPRINGWATER FAIR PROVES BIG SUCCESS

The Springwater fair and picnic again succeeded beyond expectations and the Grange is to be congratulated on its enterprise. Such gatherings are decidedly advantageous in advertising the resources of the community, and will repay the labors of those who promote them. Springwater district has received much favorable publicity and comment from this fair and will be known as a center for pure bred stock, grain and fruits.

A large attendance turned out from all around and everyone felt well repaid for coming, not only on account of the exhibition but the social spirit which was in evidence. The Clackamas County Guernsey club and the Clackamas County Jersey club met in the morning and held a business meeting in the school house, while the Holstein club met in the Grange hall. A child's welfare clinic was held from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m. by Dr. Brisco and Misses Pierson and Howard of Oregon City, in the church and twenty-four babies were examined.

In the afternoon, addresses were given by E. E. Flavel, editor of the Western Farmer and chairman of the agricultural committee of the Portland Chamber of Commerce; State Market Agent C. E. Spence; O. M. Plummer, manager of the Pacific Livestock Show; J. F. Tooze, state senator, of Oregon City, and G. A. Palmiter, of Hood River, State Grange Master. They were introduced by Edward Shearer, who acted as chairman.

The exhibits were fully as good as those of last year, although the grains and fruit showed somewhat the effects of the prolonged drouth. In the floral hall, besides the fresh fruits and vegetables there was a big display of canned goods, hand and needle work. The Ladies Aid had a booth and was sold out in record time.

In the livestock section pure bred Jerseys were entered by Lawrence & Son, W. F. Greer and Edward Shearer & Sons; Guernseys by J. A. Shibley & Son, and Peter Erickson; Short-horns by Otis Vallen; English bulldogs by S. N. Kilgore and J. C. Richards; and three colts by Otis Vallen.

First prizes of blue ribbons and $1.00 cash were awarded to Albert Stone, James Guttridge, Kenneth Keller, Orelj Vallen, Julia McAuley, Evelyn Dibble, Helen Perry, Albert Cromer, Edith Howell, Wilbur Howell, Claude Shriner, Cora McAuley, Ruth Guttridge, Raymond Perry, Wm. Tucker, and two first went to Edward Shearer Jr.

Second prizes of red ribbon and 75 cents cash went to Raymond Perry, Donald Perry, Wm. McClellan Jr. and two to George Guttridge Jr.

Third prizes of white ribbon and 50 cents cash were given Charles Farrier, Violet Tucker and two to James Guttridge.

The Eastern Clackamas band was present and enlivened the proceedings by playing a number selections throughout the day.

The band boys went in style to the county fair today, as they had their band stand painted and inscribed with the slogans, "Eastern Clackamas Band, Watch us Grow." "Estacada the Land of Plenty." "Come and See us, Free Auto Camp." "Estacada the Land of the Loganberry and the Prune."
