Christian Church Services

We are planning for Rally Day in our Bible School, on Sunday, October 5th. We want every member of the church with us in the school at 10 a. m., promptly. It will be promotion day as well. For next Sunday, the services will be:
Bible School at 10 a. m.
Preaching at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.
Prayer Meeting Wednesday at 7:30 p. m.
Choir rehearsal Friday 7:30 p. m.
Morning sermon, "Christians Made Kings and Priests."
Evening sermon, "What was Expected of Jesus?" Luke 15-1. You are cordially invited to attend these services.

E. F. CLAY,
Minister, Christian Church.

In Spite of Volstead

The silver loving cup given to the American polo team which obtained a crushing victory over the British, was filled with seven pints of champagne. But we suppose it was pre-war and pre-Volstead stock.

See Mrs. J. E. Gates for piano instruction. Prices reasonable. I. O. O. F. building.

OREGON NEWS ITEMS OF SPECIAL INTEREST

Banks of Curry county have declined to purchase county warrants, alleging that the county has exceeded the 6 per cent statutory limitation.

The next annual Oregon conference of the Methodist Episcopal church will be held in Eugene, it was decided at the 72d conference in Medford. Five works on the dead road between River and the forest has ended for this season, according to Ralph S. Shelley, supervisor of the Siuslaw forest.

Apple week in Oregon will be October 26 to November 1, according to announcement of the agricultural committee of the Portland Chamber of Commerce.

It will require $469,240 to conduct the state industrial accident commission during the next biennium, according to estimates filed with the state budget commission.

Voters of Multnomah county will pass upon a proposal to issue $500,000 in bonds for completion of the Ross Island and Sellwood bridges at the November election.

The Multnomah county fair at Gresham, held July 29 to August 3 this year, made money for the first time in a number of years, according to the financial report.

The Stout company shingle mill at North Bend, burned some time ago, has been rebuilt and started sawing shingles Monday. The mill will run continuously through the fall and winter.

General rains over the Umatilla national forest so relieved the fire danger that three areas closed to hunting July 28 were ordered reopened Friday morning by District Forester George H. Cecil.

The public service commission has issued an order authorizing the Mount Angel Telephone company to put into effect a new tariff providing slight increases in the telephone rates demanded by the corporation.

R. B. Maxwell, 30, powderman for the Walter A. Woodard Lumber company, operating seven miles south of Cottage Grove, was killed when his own rifle was accidentally discharged, the bullet piercing his heart.

State Resident Highway Engineer Collier reports that the pavement between Albany and Corvallis will be ready for travel in five weeks. The pavement, which is of concrete, is now open as far as Granger station.

Following the completion of the hop and prune picking season, fully 75 per cent of pickers who were at work in the Willamette valley during the last few weeks have left for the Hood River district, to assist in the apple harvest.

The California-Oregon Power company has filed application with the state engineer for 14,000 horsepower on Clearwater creek, near the headwaters of the Umpqua river. The development contemplates a 500 foot head with 250 second-feet.

Federal Judge Wolverton issued a temporary restraining order against Frank C. Bramwell, superintendent of banks, directing him to set aside $500 of the funds of the Bank of Sherwood, now defunct, to meet the government's claims against the bank.

Will Study Pharmacy

Ernest Rynning retired from his position as manager of the People's C. & C. Store, Saturday night. He will leave this week for the Northern Pacific college at Portland where he will take a course in pharmacy. Ernest is one of our local boys of whom we may be proud. He is 23 years old, and was born on his father's ranch in Garfield and was educated in the Garfield and Estacada schools, graduating from the high school in 1920. Since then he has been employed at The People's Store, first as clerk, and when this firm put in their C & C Store he was promoted to its management. Thoroughly reliable, industrious and clean living, we predict he will make his mark in the world, and all his friends will wish him abundance of success.

Firm Changes Hands

Another Estacada firm has changed hands. Crawford Bros. have sold their Ford agency and garage business to Robert Cook of Portland, who will take charge the first of the month.

SPRINGWATER NEWS

The October Neighborly club will meet with Mrs. Archie Howell on October 8th.

The following have attended the State fair at Salem one or more days: Mrs. E. Shearer, Mrs. Peter Erickson, Everet and Elva Shibley, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bard, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Shibley, Mr. and Mr. Mrs. S. Lawrence.

Elva and Elma Tenny each received prizes at the Canby fair, in the twins' contest, being the youngest twins present.

Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Guttridge were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Zurcher, Miss Ruth Zurcher, Mr. and Mrs. Candler and children, Mr. and Mrs. Watson and son, Mr. and Mrs. Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. Litchfield and daughter, all of St. Johns.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Folsom of Dayton, Wash., arrived Sunday for a visit with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. H. Homer.

For Pleasure and Profit

Last Sunday we called on a gentleman who lives at Bell station on the Estacada-Portland line, who specializes in raising gladioli tublets for sale. He has about three lots set out with this flower. It is almost incredible the story he tells of selling between eight and nine thousand dollars worth of tublets in one season. But it lies in the knowing how. It does not pay to fuss with cheap stock, and one of the bulbs from which he raised several thousand tublets, originally was valued at $200. We have seen in one catalogue a bulb priced at $1000. He informed us that that he worked his market, and that he shipped packages of tublets to Europe and other foreign territory. To those who naturally take to this kind of work, it affords a pleasant and profitable occupation, but requires strict attention.

Last Thursday night as Al. Feyerabend, manager of the Liberty theatre, was coming from Portland, a rod on the steering gear of his machine broke and he went into the bank. Fortunately he escaped without injury and with assistance, got the films for the Liberty here on time for the evening program.

Two Million Readers

If the two million readers of Harold Bell Wright's "When a Man's Man" go to see the screen version of the story, they will see the real Cross-Triangle Ranch, the real bunk house, the real corral and Thumb Butte Mountain of the story. The photography was made in Williamson Valley, Arizona, about which the story is written. The western atmosphere of the picture is correct in every detail, because it is the real thing. This will be run at the Liberty theatre on Sunday and Monday, September 23 and 29.

The rains this week have kept many in this section from attending the state fair.

LOCAL ITEMS

The school children going back and forth from school make a pleasant sight.

Mrs. U. H. Gibbs will take orders for dahlia bulbs for spring delivery. 9-18tf

Miss Reliance Moore returned to the state normal at Monmouth last Sunday.

Miss Florence Kendall is here visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. W. J. Moore.

Two of the William Ritchey children have gone to Milwaukie to attend the Sisters school.

Mrs. E. J. Stone from Montana, was here last week to visit her friend Mrs. J. A. Willey.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Wilcox and daughter Miss Mabel, attended the Pendleton Round-Up.

Miss Elnora Ross was here yesterday looking after business affairs connected with the planing mill.

William Kaake and family have returned to their home in Estacada to reside, after spending the summer on a ranch at Springwater.

Now is the time to select your dahlias while they are in bloom, for next year. Call on Mrs. U. H. Gibbs and place your orders for spring delivery. 9-18tf

The exterior of the Estacada Pharmacy has received its final coat of paint, and looks bright and glistening. Pointer & Morrow did the job.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Cary and children and Mrs. N. B. Ecker, drove to Portland Sunday afternoon to make a brief visit with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. George Kelly and little daughter of Portland, spent the week end here at the Estacada hotel. Mr. Kelly is the land man for the P. E. P. company.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Liberty church will meet at the home of Mrs. U. S. Morgan, Thursday afternoon, October 2. As there will be election of officers for the coming year a good attendance is desired.

The funeral of Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Shafford, wife of John W. Shafford of Portland, took place in the Portland crematorium on Monday afternoon. Mrs. Shafford was well known here, and for some months past has been a great sufferer from a lingering illness.

The state fair is on this week. Edward Shearer of Springwater is superintendent of the poultry exhibit. He has held this position a number of years.

The Prince of Wales left Sunday for Canada, and his departure no doubt is mourned by numbers of the fair sex. He has this to his credit, that he held front page in the big newspapers for three weeks, even a prize-fighter could not do better.

The Board of Equalization is in session at Oregon City, and a number of our merchants and business men have been notified to attend on various days.

The Rev. J. F. Dunlop, former pastor of the M. E. Church in Estacada, has been returned for the third year to his present charge at Falls City. He held the Estacada pastorate for three years, which is a long pastorate for a Methodist minister.

There were services in the M. E. church last Sunday at 11 a. m. and 2 and 8 p. m. Evangelist Duff preached at the morning service, in place of Dr. Nichol, who was expected but did not appear. The lady evangelist, the singer Hart and others accompanied the Irish evangelist. There was a good attendance at all services,

ELWOOD ITEMS

Mrs. Effie Brown of Portland, visited with her sister Mrs. Montie Vallen, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Dibble and daughter Evelyn, attended Sunday School at this place Sunday, and were dinner guests at the L. N. Vallen home.

Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Harris of Colton, spent Sunday afternoon at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Matt Park.

Emile Bittner of Sandy, spent Saturday evening and Sunday at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Bittner.

School began the 22, with Miss Butterfield at the desk.

Club to Elect Officers

The first fall meeting of the Eastern Clackamas Community Club will be held in the lobby of the Estacada hotel tomorrow, Friday evening, at eight o'clock.

The principal business will be election of officers and planning the course for the coming season. This club has done notable work in the past, as a get-together, and strengthening the bonds which unite Estacada to the adjacent communities. It has been fortunate in its past presidents, and A. G. Ames, whose term of office expires, is to be congratulated on the able manner in which he has presided during the last year.

We do not know whether he cares for re-election but it will be a graceful act on the part of the club if he is again offered the position. After the business is concluded light refreshments will be served, and musical numbers will be rendered throughout the evening. There should be a large attendance to give the club a good send off. Representatives of the adjacent communities are especially urged to come.

School Registration

The Estacada schools opened last Monday, and the registration shows that the enrollment is about the same as last year. More pupils are expected later, when the prune picking is out of the way. Principal Olson reports 102 in the high school divided as follows: Freshmen 37, Sophomores 22, Juniors 25 and Seniors 17. The freshman class is larger than that of last year. The grades' enrollment is 137, as follows: 1st 24, 2nd 22, 3rd 17, 4th 24, 5th 20, 6th 14, 7th 18 and 8th 16.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Until the new company taking over the publication of the Eastern Clackamas News is fully organized and plans outlined, the following will constitute the personnel of the force: Miss Lela Howe will be local editor and business solicitor; Mrs. Nina B. Ecker will retain the same position she has held with the News for some years, helping with local news and in the mechanical department. Elliott Stewart will be foreman in the shop and assist in the business management.

As soon as the new firm is established in the News office, a solicitor will call upon the business houses of the city, to arrange for advertising space. Further announcements will be made as soon as the business is taken over. The country correspondents are asked to keep up their good work of sending in news.

ELLIOTT STEWART,
For the Management.

PIONEERS TO BE GUESTS OF CITY

When Manager Joe Woodle of the Gem theatre, booked "The Covered Wagon" for Friday, Saturday and Sunday, October 3, 4 and 5, he started something which the citizens of Estacada have arranged to finish. It has been decided to make Saturday, October 4, "Pioneer Day" for eastern Clackamas county. Manager Woodle invites the old-timers to be his guests at the matinee Saturday afternoon. In addition to this a banquet will be provided for them at the Estacada hotel, at which they will be the guests of the citizens of Estacada. A speaker has been secured who will address the pioneers. There will be music, both vocal and instrumental, during the banquet, which will be started off by everyone joining in the National Anthem. The entire entertainment, of course, will be free.

"The Covered Wagon" as a picture, is in a class by itself. It is magnificent, colossal and soul stirring, as well being true to historical fact in every detail. Many an old-timer's pulse will leap and many an old lady's eyes will dim with tears as the vivid story of their early lives flash upon the screen. Many a silent prayer will be offered up to the Creator from the hearts of these people who gave of their vitality upon the altar of progress, that the Great Northwest might come into its own.

Reception to Teachers

There will be a reception to the teachers of the Estacada schools, on Friday evening, Oct. 3, at the high school auditorium, under the auspices of the school board, Parent-teachers association, Community club and the two churches. Everybody invited.

Improvements at the Liberty

The Liberty theatre is keeping up to date in its appointments. One hundred and fifty new chairs have been received for the auditorium, which will increase the present seating capacity to three hundred. In addition some very handsome ivory enameled rattan arm chairs with tapestry upholstery, have been placed in the loges on each side of the operating room. Manager Feyerabend is certainly sparing no pains to popularize this modern theatre.

NOTICE

The Eastern Clackamas News having been sold, I will pay all bills contracted by me payable October 1, and collect all accounts due at same date. The new management will have complete charge after the 25th of this month, will continue the publication of the Eastern Clackamas News, collect all subscriptions due and fill out all the unexpired.

UPTON H. GIBBS.

New Methodist Pastor

The Rev. Ira Rankin, from North Dakota, has been appointed to the pastorate of the M. E. Church in Estacada. He is a young man with a wife and two children, and comes highly recommended.

Mill to Millions

Announcing its new fall and winter shades in silk, and the new silk and wool for fall and winter wear. A post card addressed to Perry Kitzmiller, the permanent bonded representative of the Real Silk Hosiery Mills, P. O. Box 435, Gresham, Oregon, will bring him to your home with the new service at any time. 9-25-10-2
