Bull Run Slide Kills Two

I. L. Schnaverly and N. E.
Benson, engineer and fireman on a steam shovel operated by the J. F. Shea company, were killed last Thursday evening when the shovel was carried across 50 feet of level ground, down an embankment of 75 feet and plunged into the Bull Run river about half a mile west of the intake at Bull Run by a landslide.

The Shea company had been engaged in doing the field work for the Willamette Iron and Steel Works, putting in a new pipe line to Portland. A small slide had occurred about a week before and the shovel had been at work since Oct. 30 with a crew of men clearing away the debris which had resulted from this slide.

Jury Decides Case

Wednesday afternoon in the office of Justice of the Peace S.
E. Wooster, W. J. Furnish proceeding under execution of judg-

CITY COUNCIL HOLDS MEETING

The city council met Wednesday evening, Nov. 12, with Mayor H. C. Stephens presiding and all councilmen present.

During the regular business, all bills presented were ordered paid.

The canvass of the city election was made. An error in the count of votes for the Charter Amendment was found and the following correction was made:
Yes 98, No 68.

The following were declared duly elected: Mayor, H. C.
Stephens; treasurer, Nina B.
Ecker; recorder, Wm. Dale; councilman first ward, J. F. Lovelace; second, U. S. Morgan and third, J. S. Osborne. It was decided that Wm. Dale, the newly chosen recorder, should take office January 1, 1925.

A street light was granted the residents petitioning for one on Fourth and Cedar streets. The question of graveling Zobrist between Third and Fourth street was deferred until the road meeting, which will be held Nov. 24.

P. T. A. Holds Meeting

The regular monthly meeting of the P. T. A. was held in the high school last Friday evening, with Mrs. W. F. Cary, president, presiding. Dr. Briscoe, the county health officer, was present and outlined the work done by the county health unit of Clackamas county, in combating contagious diseases.

Mrs. Sadie Orr Dunbar, the speaker scheduled for the evening being unable to attend, sent Homer Wheldon as her representative. Mr. Wheldon discussed his work in connection with the Oregon tuberculosis Association, and spoke of the importance of this organization in fighting tuberculosis.

The committee appointed to secure furnishings for the girls' rest room in the high school, reported that several donations of things needed, had been received and more had been promised.

The Estacada P. T. A. decided to affiliate with the county P. T.
A. The attendance was small due to the extremely stormy weather.

Wild Life Film Shown

A large crowd attended the showing of the "Wild Life of Oregon" films, Wednesday, Nov.
5, at the Liberty theatre under the auspices of the State Game Commission and the Eastern Clackamas Community Club.

Otto Jones, educational director for the State Game Commission spoke briefly on the efforts expended in securing pictures of these animals in their native state, relating some of his experiences in this work.

The conservation of wild life in our state is one of vital importance at this time and the showing of such pictures will do much toward creating an interest along such a line.

Notice
