"Salomy Jane" an Artistic Treat

"Salomy Jane," to be shown at the Gem theatre Saturday and Sunday night, is an artistic treat from start to finish, featuring Jacqueline Logan, George Fawcett and Maurice Flinn.

The picture is based on Bret Harte's splendid story of the gold rush days of '49, and it is graphically presented by a cast of exceptional merit. Many pictures of this romantic period have been seen on the screen, but it is seldom that one sees so delightful a creation as this. From the robbery of the old stage coach in the beginning, the arrest by the Vigilantes, trial and conviction of an innocent man for the crime, and his romantic meeting with Jane on his way to execution, his escape, and a thousand and one dramatic incidents that follow, there isn't a dull moment in the action.

"Salomy Jane" has been artistically produced by Mr. Melford, and it is 100 per cent pure entertainment. Screened in the Santa Cruz mountains, it is scenically a marvel of its kind. Dramatic action and thrills are the fitting concomitants of every scene, and even the most blasé picture fan will find in this offering bits that are new and satisfying to his jaded taste.
