ENTERTAINS LADIES AID

The Ladies Aid Society of the Christian Church was entertained on Thursday, the 8th inst. by Mrs. Dora Herring. There were fourteen present. At that time the society decided that their next work for the church would be the purchase of a piano for their services. All had become tired of the spunky organ that they have been using for many years. As a starter on the piano fund they propose to give a tea and program in the Oddfellow's Hall on next Friday, January 16th, beginning at 2 P. M. They will be pleased to see all their friends at this meeting with a silver offering for their piano. No one will be limited in the size of his or her offering, only they insist that no one go home from their meeting "dead broke."

NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that any person who has a claim against the Estacada Telephone and Telegraph Company shall submit their claim within 10 days or they will be stopped from asserting said claim in the future on account of transfer from Earl and Bertha Gunter to Alva Smith, manager.

PLUCKY CASHIER FOILS BANK ROBBER

Shortly after one o'clock last Friday afternoon, Miss Ruth Dillon, cashier of the Estacada State Bank calmly looked up to wait on what she supposed was a customer only to find herself looking into the barrel of a revolver leveled at her and hear the command, "Shove it over," which she immediately decided to obey and began shoving a pennies across the counter much to his disgust.

Miss Minerva Dew who had been standing at Miss Dillon's right wrapping pennies caught the idea of slipping into the office and calling for help. While she did this the robber apparently failed to notice her leave and upon hearing her loudly calling and finding that his command to open the door was not being obeyed, and hastily departed, making a quick get-away with out any interference. The two patrons in the bank at the time of the hold-up were so completely taken by surprise that they could do nothing.

The robber was of slender build, slightly above the average in height, wore a dark overcoat which came well below his knees, a mask covered his head and fell down on his shoulders and he carried a revolver in his left hand. He appeared to be an amateur and seemed a very nervous. He allowed the two customers to get behind him while intent on getting the cash. Foiled in this he left, running down Second street, up the alley between Broadway and Zobritt to Third street where a Chevrolet touring car bearing a 1924 Oregon license was waiting with the motor running. He was seen to leave the alley unmasked and carrying his gun and as he stepped on the running board on the left hand side of the car it sped away.

It was several minutes before Deputies D. M. Marshall and H. Monroe started in pursuit thus giving him time to get a good lead on them. He is supposed to have taken a side road and in this way avoided capture.

A suspect was picked up near the Twelve-Mile house at Gresham about three o'clock the same afternoon driving a Ford sedan but after a time even though identified as the one who held up the bank by those who saw him he proved an alibi sufficient to cause Sheriff Mass to release him.

The Estacada State Bank carries full insurance against all losses by burglars should they occur. Fortunately no money was taken at this time and the bank carried on the business of the afternoon as usual.

Both Miss Dillon and Miss Dew deserve much credit for the coolness which they displayed at that time and in saving the cash and other valuables.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Stephens had just left for Oregon City when the hold-up was staged but upon hearing of it they immediately returned to Estacada.

The regular monthly meeting of the city council was held Tuesday evening in the City hall, with Mayor H. C. Stephens presiding and Councilmen T. H. Morton, U. S. Morgan and J. S. Osborne present, and Recorder Wm. Dale.

The bonds of the newly elected recorder, Wm. Dale, and Treasurer Nina B. Ecker, were accepted and filed. The re-elected officials received their oath of office. J. K. Ely, the outgoing recorder was present and turned over the books. The bills presented were ordered paid.

A discussion as to the needs of replacing one of the water mains leading from the reservoir was held and a committee was appointed to make a thorough investigation of the amount needed to do this work.

A committee composed of Mesdames A. S. Hassell, U. S. Morgan, H. C. Stephens, S. Bishop, O. E. Smith and Nina B. Ecker requested that the council employ Jas. Denning as night watchman for the city, stressing the need for such an officer at this time. After a lengthy discussion Councilman J. S. Osborne moved that the City council employ a night man at $100.00 per month, said salary to be taken from the general tax fund. Motion carried by an unanimous vote. The council then discussed the duties of such an officer.

Violet DeShazer and Hugh Guthrie were especially good in their roles. An added attraction was a clever little recitation by Eddie Hansen, who came up from the Douglass mill with his folks, to the entertainment.

Walter Kitzmiller and family of Oregon City spent Sunday at the Joseph DeShazer home.

Mrs. Mark Pugh has been entertaining her mother and little brother and sister since the holidays.

H. L. Guthrie had the misfortune to freeze his motor and break the cylinder.

P. T. A. MEETING

The January meeting of the Parent Teachers Association was held at three o'clock Monday afternoon in the high school assembly room. The session opened with prayer, after which the high school orchestra came on the stage in its first public appearance. Several numbers were rendered in a manner which gave much pleasure to the parents and friends who made up the audience. Following the music came the business session. A resolution was adopted in approval of the interest in essay work as shown by the participation in the recent home lighting contest, and read as follows:

Resolved, that we of the Parent Teachers' Association thus publicly express our appreciation of the work of Miss Ruth Day and Miss Corinne Trullinger in the recent essay contest on Home Lighting, and that we commend all others who entered the contest, as well as the helpful attitude of our English department toward such work.

After the business session the program continued:

Why Go to College, was the topic of an interesting talk by Mrs. Rankin, in which she stressed education as a means of inspiration and self discovery.

Why Go to High School, was discussed from the standpoint of a high school student by Miss Irene Hayden who developed some very excellent reasons under the two main heads, "For Education," and "For Employment."

"Know Your Own School," the last topic, was presented by Mr. Olsen. He called attention to the size and importance of the school plant in comparison with any other in the community in which it is situated, showing that such a comparison holds, not only locally, but in any community. In closing he called attention to the infrequency of visits made to the classroom work of the high school and urged that parents makesuch visits oftener.

"Lawful Larceny" Coming

The Paramount picture, "Lawful Larceny" will be shown at the Gem theatre, Saturday and Sunday nights, Jan. 17 and 18.

The story, an adaption by John Lynch of the stage success by S. Shipman, is a domestic drama featuring Hope Hampton, Nita Naldi, Lew Cody and Conrad Nagel.

Although not a crook story in the full sense of the word it will prove delightful entertainment for those who appreciate a crook drama of the better sort. The climax is in doubt, carefully guarded by an unusual plot.

ROBBER VISITS THE SPRINGWATER STORE

Last Saturday evening about 6:30 o'clock a lone robber entered the front door of the Springwater store and covered F. Madden, the proprietor, who was alone in the store, with a rusty looking gun, demanding his money.

Mr. Madden opened the cash register and the robber proceeded to help himself. To make sure that the robber was getting all of the money, Mr. Madden pulled the drawer out and emptied the contents into the robber's hands.

There was not over ten dollars in the till. He hastily searched Mr. Madden's pockets finding no cash and paying no heed to the watch which Mr. Madden carried.

Mr. Madden described the burglar as being about six feet five inches tall, of slender build, wore a dirty white mask over his head, a light colored cap, a long moleskin overcoat and rubbers. He carried a rusty revolver in his right hand with the butt of it wrapped in what appeared to be new burlap, and deftly searched the cash drawer and pockets of his victim with his left hand.

He fled from the store and entered a waiting automobile which he had parked a short distance down the road from the store, and drove rapidly away without any interference. It is supposed that he drove down the ridge and made his escape.

Word was soon sent out and men were stationed at various points to hold him up, but he made good his escape before this was done.

In many ways the description of this man tallied with that of the one who has been holding up other places in the county during the past few weeks.

HIGH SCHOOL CARNIVAL

Lest you have forgotten this is to remind you that on Friday night, January 16th, the student body of your high school is giving a carnival. It will be held in the gymnasium, which will be thrown open to the public at this time.

You ought to come and see just what "The Gym" looks like. The young boys and girls of your high school have undertaken to finance this proposition. Your presence will be great encouragement to them. Two musical organizations, the local band and the high school orchestra, both under the efficient leadership of Mr. Bushnell, will furnish an abundance of music for the occasion. Besides there will be a great variety of attractions, and good things to eat. It will cost you only ten cents to get in, but there will be fine opportunities of spending small change in sharing what the students have planned. It's the chance of the year in helping a good cause and enjoying an evening of fun.
