WOODMEN OF WORLD

TO STAGE SHOW

Free Stag and Vaudeville for Members and Their Gentlemen Friends

On Thursday evening, February 19th, the Woodman of the World of Estacada will give a high class vaudeville and stag smoker for members and their gentlemen friends. The affair will be held in the I. O. O. F. hall at Estacada and all Woodman and friends from the surrounding country are invited. Large delegations are expected from Eagle Creek, Logan and Carver.

Deputy Head Consul E. S. Martin of Portland, under whose personal direction and supervision this show is given, will be present. Mr. Martin assures the Estacada Woodman that they will be well pleased with this program for it has been presented to many camps throughout Oregon and Washington, and has always met with the highest approval of everyone present, and has repeatedly shown to record breaking crowds. Every act is a scream and every performer is a professional.

Every member of the Woodmen of the World in and near Estacada has been supplied with a number of tickets, and anyone not a member can secure a complimentary ticket by asking any member or applying to Clerk J. E. Gates at the Gates Furniture Store, Estacada, or District Manager J. J. Quillin. Get your ticket early and spend a pleasant evening the guest of Estacada Camp Woodmen of the World.

The members of the Woodmen of the World of Estacada are planning increased activity and in the near future will have several other feature meetings, chief among them being a class initiation at which time there will be a large delegation of members from Multnomah, St. John, Milwaukie and Arleta Camps of Portland.

George Baker, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Baker of Garfield met with an accident last Saturday while playing with a gun which resulted in the loss of several fingers on his left hand and necessitated his going to the St. Vincent hospital. Dr. Midford was in attendance.

S. Noel of Portland was in Estacada last Tuesday on business.

NATION ENSHRINES IN HEART HEROES LOST IN ARGONNE

Tale of Lost Battalion Already Part of America's Traditions.

Americans thrill with patriotic pride when they hear the story of The Lost Battalion of the World War, the tensest, most dramatic, most gripping incident of America's part in the conflict. To give the people of Estacada an opportunity to "feel" this epic action as they could not otherwise do, the Carl Douglass Post of the American Legion has arranged to show "THE LOST BATTALION", a motion picture faithfully reproducing this historic event with an interwoven tale of delightful romance in this city, Friday, February 20, 1925.

The story of the Lost Battalion has become definitely part of the traditions of the American people. No sooner had the news of the superhuman resistance of this handful of men, completely surrounded by German troops in the almost impenetrable Argonne forest, been flashed to the nation than these men took their places at once as national heroes. The story of their dogged stand is as firmly fixed in the history of America as is that of Washington crossing the Delaware that winter night or in kneeling in the snow at Valley Forge to pray while his men paced their sentry rounds with bleeding feet.

For six bitter days these heroes of 1918 clung to their hillside, galled by German fire from every direction, hugging the hope that relief would somehow come. Death lurked in every bush, behind every tiny mound. Out of the treetops the spiteful fire of machine guns hailed upon them. Nor was this all. Hunger, privation, the terrible agony wounds were worse enemies than German sharpshooters and machine gun nests. Then came a demand that they surrender—a demand met with instant refusal, a renewal of battle, rescue, victory.

BARTON

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Stone and Mr. and Mrs. R. Dibble are the proud parents of baby boys. The former was born Feb. 5, and the latter Feb. 1.

Mrs. John Hoffman and Mrs. Fred Werner called upon Mrs. Lehmann and Mrs. L. Wallace.

Martha Whitehead, Rosie Davis and Margaret Brown spent Sunday afternoon at Bertha Werner's home.

Mr. Herrick of California, is visiting his sister Mrs. T. H. Odell.

Leslie Wallace had his hand cut last week while at work, so was forced to come home until it heals, which will be soon we hope.

Mrs. George Forman and son made a trip to Portland by stage.

Miss Alma Lizberg, primary teacher at Barton, spent the week end at her home in Oregon City.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Stone, a son weighing 8½ lbs. Dr. Adix was in attendance.

Mrs. W. E. Linn went to Portland last Saturday to attend a lecture given by Miss Reed on the Near East Relief. She reports that this was unusually fine and that plans are already being formulated for the collection of bundles to be sent to these people.

ALL-COLOR PICTURE DUE

"Wanderer of the Wasteland," a Zane Grey Paramount production, directed by Irvin Willat and featuring Jack Holt, Kathryn Williams, Noah Beery and Bille Dove, comes to the Liberty Theatre on Sunday and Monday next to remain two days.

You've heard about the wonderful colorful photograph in Cecil B. DeMille's "The Ten Commandments" Well this one is done entirely in color. There's not a black and white sequence throughout the length of the film. Think of it!

Even if it weren't for the great story it really is, you should go see this picture just for the novelty of the thing. Remember, it's the very first really practical all-color production to be shown on the screen anywhere. But it's more than just a novelty—much more. It's Zane Grey's greatest story brought to life. They say you can even see the different shades of sunburn on the players!

Skeptical? Why not take it in?

LOCAL ITEMS

Mrs. W. J. Moore is reported ill at this time.

Cooked Food Sale—Valentine special, February 14th, at The People's Store, Women's Dept., L. D. S. Church.

The P. E. P. Co. spent some time recently in this community replacing light poles and making a few extensions.

Work of cleaning up his new auto park and camp grounds on Eagle Creek has already been started by J. M. Moore. Several of the old buildings have been torn down.

A. Janssen and W. Anderson returned last Saturday from Klickitat, Wash., where they had gone to get some of the tools needed in the well drilling work.

Mesdames Gerald Wilcox, O. E. Syron and J. F. Lovelace attended a meeting of the Clackamas County Health Association in Oregon City Tuesday.

The Estacada town team will meet the Portland Aces in a basketball game scheduled for Saturday, Feb. 14, at 7:45 p. m. on the 'gym' floor. The admission will be 25c and 15c.

Mrs. H. C. Stevens entertained a group of ladies Wednesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. U. H. Gibbs, who plans to leave for Washougal soon.

We are in receipt of the first issue of the Washougal Record under the direction of Upton H. Gibbs, editor and it clearly emphasizes the high standard set by Mr. Gibbs in the news game. We wish him well in his new field and that he may make a success wherever he may go.

Considerable concern has been caused by the unusual occurrence which has recently taken place on the hill across the Clackamas. In some places the hill has apparently sunken several feet and a well on the B. Schoenberg farm has been partially filled. Probably a part of the slide is due to the unusually heavy rains of the past few days.

In honor of Mrs. Frank Morrow's birthday last Sunday, a number of friends and relatives drove to Portland to visit her. Those in the party were Mrs. Jack Hayden, Mrs. E. Saling, Mrs. Clara Boyer, Mae Rose Bartholomew, Ted Saling and L. Webber.

ESTACADA TEAM WINS

The basketball game between the Estacada boys and the Sunnyside DeMolay team last Friday night on the 'gym' floor proved a victory for the Estacada team with a score of 25 to 19.

The lineup was as follows: Estacada; (Saling (2) g; R. Lovelace, (2) c; Denny, g; Montgomery (3) g; Giddings (3) g; Wilson (3) g; A. Lovelace (8) f; Harold Sarver (2) f; Harry Sarver (2) f. Sunnyside: Noyer (8) f; Barnum, f; Brice g; C. Stennet, f; Hull, g; B. Sarver, f.

The game between the high school girls and the town girls resulted in a victory for the high school girls.

OLD TIMER PASSES

The many friends of Will Kingston, who resided in Estacada for sometime, were grieved to learn of his death which occurred in Portland, Wednesday evening, February 4, 1925.

Funeral services were held last Monday at Seaside, where interment took place.

Mr. Kingston was 87 years old and had contracted a severe cold during the winter from which he failed to rally, and grew continually weaker each day. He was moved to Linn's Inn where he was given the best attention and care, and was later removed to a Portland sanitarium where he passed away.

Mr. Kingston is survived by a daughter residing in Portland, a daughter in Seaside, two sons, Emery and K. Kingston of Eagle Creek.

WOULD A GIRL STOOP TO THIS?

Few situations in recent motion pictures are as striking as the episode in William de Mille's production of "Icebound" for Paramount, in which a girl steals the new dress of her rival, finds herself in the arms of the man at the very moment that the owner of the dress enters, and then shamefacedly offers to return the garment.

Lois Wilson has the part of Jane, Richard Dix as the youth, and Vera Reynolds has the role of Nettie. Other noted players in the cast of the picture, which comes to the Gem Theatre for a run of two days, next Saturday and Sunday, are Edna May Oliver, Ethels Wales, Helen Dubois, Mary Fox, Joseph Depew, Alice Chapman, John Daly Murphy and Frank Shannon.

SCHOOL NOTES

Last Thursday morning Mr. Stephens gave another talk on banking with the subject, "Investing the Bank's Money." He stressed the importance of character, capacity and capital, the three "C's" of credit. The talk was interesting and greatly appreciated by the students. Mr. Stevens also announced that the bank would conduct an essay contest open to high school students. Each essay must cover one phrase of the banking business on which a series of talks are being given. The prizes will total twelve dollars.

Last Friday night on the home floor, the girl's team of E. H. S. and the girl's town team played a fast game of basketball. The score was 55 to 5 in favor of the school team. The boy's town team played the De Molays of Sunnyside the same evening and the home team won, 27-19. Another feature was a hot dog sale. Quite a crowd witnessed the two games. Next Friday night, Feb. 13, on the home floor, both the boy's and girl's teams from Silverton will play.

The Freshmen entertained the Sophomores with a party Friday night. The party took place in the domestic art room which was very prettily decorated with red and white crepe paper and hearts. All were obliged to pass beneath an arch decorating the doorway. Several guessing games, in which the Freshman class returned the favors of the initiation received earlier in the year, were played. The prizes were awarded to Wilma Kitching and Avin Tracy. Ice cream and heart shaped cookies were served.

GARFIELD ITEMS

A good time was had by all who attended the Pie Social given at Garfield grange Friday evening. The play put on by the women was fine although only a week was given them to learn it in. Howard and Fred Davis entertained with several cornet duets, and Mrs. Anders and Mrs. Robertson, gave readings.

J. C. Ayers was called to Ridgefield Washington, Friday, owing to the serious illness of his mother.

A fine meeting was held Saturday by Garfield Grange. Work in the first and second degrees was put on. The Juvenile Grange had a fine meeting and initiated four candidates. Miss Kate Casto, Master of Milwaukie Grange was a visitor. Brothers W. H. Holden, M. G. Weatherby and W. K. Carlin, were appointed on the legislative committee.

Miss Kate Casto of Milwaukie spent the week end with Mrs. H. B. Davis.

Kenneth Dart was home from school in Portland for over the week-end.

Lillian Duncan was home from Portland with her parents over Sunday.

Oscar Harlen of Chinook, Montana, is visiting his brother, Chas. Harlen of Currinsville.

REBEKAHS MAKE MERRY

Many of the members of the Rebekah order last Wednesday evening donned wearing apparel of their childhood days and turned the clock of time back for that particular evening.

After the regular business meeting of the evening, games of childhood days were played and at a late hour lunches were served in paper bags with quantities of pink lemonade. Those in attendance claim that this meeting will long be remembered.

COMING

The new spring and summer styles are now here. Snappy one button models, also two and three button in lounge suits or more conservative models.

I will be at Linn's Inn the week of Feb. 23rd.—Last opportunity to order your new suit for Easter.

P. F. BLACK.

HORSES, MULES, HARNESS

The Union Stock Yards at North Portland, Oregon, is about the only place left to buy horses with a good guarantee. We are not here today and gone tomorrow. Have more horses to pick from than all the dealers in the state. We rent as well as sell. Have harness of all kinds. Our sales average about 75 horses per month.

North Portland Horse & Mule Co.
Box 518 No. Portland, Ore.

CITY COUNCIL HOLDS REGULAR SESSION

When Mayor H. C. Stephens called the council to order last Tuesday night in the city hall the following were present: Councilmen J. Osborne, P. Morton and R. Wilcox. J. Lovelace joined the session later in the evening.

Recorder Wm. Dale read the minutes of the last meeting and those of a special meeting called for the purpose of considering the extension of the present city boundaries which were approved.

The Finance committee took up the bills and the following were accepted: Crane Co., $5.40; P. E. P. Co., $21; Wm. Dale, $15; Stamps and stationery, $3; J. W. Shuld, $20; P. E. P. Co., $14; Estacada Tel. and Tel. Co., $1; W. Ritchey, $9.50; C. E. Hively, $12; S. Lovelace, $6; J. Deardorff, $6; J. Osborne, $5.50; H. C. Stephens, $5; J. Denning, $53.33. A bill for $18.05 was held for further explanation. A motion was made and carried that all bills approved be ordered paid and warrants drawn for the same.

Mayor Stephens explained the work done recently by the men sent out from the State Fire Marshall's office in standardizing the threads on the fire hose and hydrants in the city. This is being done all over the state so that in large fires the apparatus from one town could be used in another.

A petition was presented the council by W. F. Cary and signed by a number of citizens asking that the city install a street light at the corner of Sixth and Broadway.

A discussion followed this and it was moved and carried that the city recorder write the P. E. P. Company for an estimate as to the cost of extending the street lights from the corner of Fifth street to the county road on Broadway.

The question of placing a carload of gravel on Sixth street in front of the high school so that cars could be parked there was taken up and a motion was made and carried that the city and school district go fifty-fifty on the proposition.

A greater share of the evening was given over to the discussion of providing an ample water supply. Mr. Gilbert, an engineer was present and spoke on this matter. The council has taken the matter under careful consideration.

SUMMONS

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for the County of Clackamas.

J. W. Wheeler and Phebe Fugate, vs.

Theresa Johnson, sometimes known as Theresa Johnston, and H. P. Furlong, Defendants.

To said Theresa Johnson, sometimes known as Theresa Johnston, and to H. P. Furlong:
