James Norris was exhibiting a mink and an otter which he caught in his traps Monday on the forebay at Faraday. The skins of the two animals were worth about $35 in the raw state. Mr. Norris is an experienced trapper and has brought in some unusually fine skins during the season.

HYCADA NEWS

Editor..... Mary Alice Reed
Assistant Editor..... Irene Hayden
Sport Editor..... Helen Ely
Class Editor..... Richard Hayman

Our school is allowed five delegates to O. A. C. during the Educational Exposition of February 21, 22 and 23. Those chosen to represent Estacada were Mary Alice Reed, Irene Hayden, Corrine Trullinger, Harvey Woodworth, and Ted Saling.
Last Friday the Websterian society gave an interesting program, several of the numbers were concerning Lincoln. Copies of the Hicada were distributed the same afternoon.

Last Thursday Mr. Carlton of the Extension Department of the U. of O. spoke to the high school. He urged the students to choose their life work, and then pick out the college which could best train them. He defended the small high school, saying that if a student tried he could do just as well in it as in the largest schools.

Afterwards Mr. Carlton told the senior class about different things, such as college entrance requirements, opportunities in different lines of work and the training required.

Last Friday on the home floor Estacada defeated Silverton high school in two games of basketball.

The girls' score was 25-24 in favor of Estacada and the lineup was:

Silverton	Position	Estacada
Aliphant	Forward	Brown
Gilkeson	Forward	Kaake, I.
Alma, D.	Center	Hayden, I.
Johnson	Side-Center	Cadonau
Dezart	Guard	Jones
Alm, D.	Guard	Reed, F.

Substitute-Center was Edna Bates. The boys' score was 23-22 in favor of Estacada. The lineup was:

Gilkeson	Center	Jennings, J.
Kircher, D.	Forward	Woodworth
Edison	Forward	Jennings, D.
Woods	Guard	Saling
Blazer	Guard	Bullard

Senior News

At a Senior Class meeting held last Friday the following people were chosen to write articles for their class to appear in the Annual in the senior section: George Rose, Senior Class Will; Evelyn Davis, Class History; Mary Alice Reed, Class Prophecy; and Virginia Du Bois, senior poem.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH SERVICES

The Evangelistic services at the Christian church are showing marked interest. Elder Francis A. Ware is doing some good preaching that will do all who hear him lasting good, whether such hearers are saints or sinners.

Sunday morning the Bible school will have the hour from 10 to 11. Then Mr. Ware will preach to the congregation, on "The World's Greatest Memorial."

Sunday night the subject of discourse will be "The Unpardonable Sin". Have you committed that sin yet?

Friday night of this week will be "Home Night". How much do you know about Home? Is yours all it ought to be?

Thursday night will be "Ladies Night". Let every woman in town be there to hear about these fair ones.

Wednesday night will be "Man's Night". This will be the time for all men to learn something about the other fellow. Be sure to come.

Thursday night will be "Young People's Night". Every boy and girl of Teen age has a special invitation to be one of those in the audience.

Friday night will be "The Old People's Night". That is the time when you can hunt up the old folks and bring them to Church to hear the Old Songs and the Old, Old Story that is always new.

We are hoping that these special evenings will be attended by all who are interested in such people. You can, one and all, help to make this a notable week for the homes and people of Estacada and vicinity.

FRANCIS A. WARE,
Evangelist.
B. F. CLAY,
Minister Christian Church.

The dance given Saturday evening by the Estacada fire company was not very well attended, due perhaps to so many interesting features happening the same evening.
