

The FORD WEEKLY PURCHASE PLAN

MAKES BUYING A FORD EASY. IT IS A SATISFACTORY ANSWER TO THE PAYMENT PROBLEM.

A Ford bought with weekly savings is a thrifty investment. It increases the comforts and conveniences of your family life. It provides healthy recreation at a small cost.

Besides this, a Ford contributes to your earning ability. You can get to and from your work more quickly and more easily. You can work farther from home where you may find better working conditions and more pay. You can live farther away from your work where living conditions are better and cost less. Savings in rent and carfare more than cover the car's maintenance.

Money saved to buy a Ford is an investment in health, happiness and prosperity.

We will gladly explain the FORD WEEKLY PURCHASE PLAN to you at any time.

Last Friday there were two St. Patrick's Day programs. One was given by the Websterian society, before the upperclass men. It consisted of several Irish songs and a play entitled, "A Scene in a Courtroom."

The other program was a Freshman affair, and was given and seen by that class only. The first number was a harmonica duet by Carl De Moy and Joe Marshall. The other numbers were the reading of some Irish jokes by Guy Fanton; a song, "The Wearing of the Green," and "My Wild Irish Rose" by the girls' chorus; an Irish recitation by John Scott; the story of St. Patrick, by Loretta Ritchie; and the last number was a short play, Pat and the Specimen, which was given by Oliver Beck, Helen Carter, and Emil Bohrer.

The seniors were delightfully entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Olson at their home, Saturday evening. Different games were played during the evening, after which refreshments were served. Another feature was the singing of popular songs. On leaving each guest declared that he had had a most enjoyable time.

Ardella Dunlop, a former student at Estacada was a visitor at high school last week.

Last Saturday night after school the Websterian and Adelphe girls played a game of basketball. The Web team was composed of the following members: Lola Moore, Avis Cadonan, Geraldine Warren, Erma Jones, Myrtle Hall, Goldie Brown and Evelyn Gibson, who was a sub guard. The Adelphe team was composed of Emma Coleman, Florence June Reed, Irene Kaake, Edna Bates, Edna Carter, Thelma Wilcox and Vernice Fantz, sub.

The Webs won with a score of 12-29.

On Friday evening the Web and Adelphe boys played a game, the Web again being the winners. The Web team was composed of Jim Jennings, Harold Sarver, Frank Hayden, Ted Saling, and Virgil Wright. The Adelphe team claimed Harold Bronson, Richard Hayman, Harvey Woodworth, Maurice Bulard, and Harry Osborne. The Webs' score was 18 and the Adelphe's 10. In both games the Adelphe team put up a good fight.

Mr. Feyerband promised the girls of the basketball team a free show if they could win the last game of the season. This was won from Corbett and the girls were admitted last Monday night. They all reported an exceptionally fine show.

A high school rally was held Monday morning to celebrate the winning of the state news story contest about the O. A. C. Educational Exposition by Corrine Trullinger. Needless to say the students are very proud of Corrine.

Irma Gates, who was registered as a Sophomore, entered Gresham high school this week.

REBEKAHS HOLD ANNUAL CONVENTION

The nineteenth annual district convention of the Rebekah lodge was held in Estacada, Wednesday, March 11, with over 100 in attendance and delegates from five lodges present. The convention convened in the I. O. O. F. hall at ten o'clock with the following officers presiding: Mrs. Della Ewalt of Estacada, chairman; Lillian Holcomb of Clackamas, vice-chairman; Eva Surface of Oregon City, secretary; Zelma Ridding of Molalla, treasurer. The Grand Officers present were Mary Moss, president of the Rebekah assembly; Elizabeth Howell past president; Ethel Meldrum, past grand warden; Amy Morand inside guard; Sol Walker, past grand representative.

The address of welcome was given by Mrs. Mae Reed of Estacada and the response by Mrs. Scott of Oregon City. Following this the reports of the visiting lodges were given by the secretaries. Delegates were present from the lodges at Oregon City, Molalla, Gladstone, Clackamas and Milwaukie.

A program consisting of talks and discussions on various topics was held. Several interesting things were brought before the assembly during the business session and a paper was read by Mrs. Mary Eshleman. Memorial services were held for Mrs. V. P. Elder and Ray Cooper of Milwaukie; J. Dibble of Molalla; Mrs. M. A. Stewart, P. N. G. and Mrs. Dot Woods of Oregon City; Wm. Clossner and J. H. Palmateer of Estacada.

The meeting for the next year will be held at Clackamas with Shamrock lodge as the hosts.

The officers elected were Lillian Holcomb of Clackamas, chairman; Eva Surface of Oregon City, vice-chairman; Mary Eshleman of Estacada, secretary; Zelma Ridding of Molalla, treasurer; Mrs. Scott of Oregon City, left supporter chairman; Selma Verhaegha of Milwaukie, marshal; Rhoe Syron of Estacada, conductor; Edith Yonce of Oregon City, right supporter vice chairman; Elva Ahlberg of Estacada, left supporter vice chairman; Christina Barbur of Oregon City, outside guard; Grace Eby of Gladstone, inside guard; Mae Coale of Molalla, chaplain.

In the evening the Rebekah degree was exemplified in a splendid manner by the degree staff under the leadership of Hugh Jones, degree captain. The president gave a very splendid talk and following this a luncheon was served in the dining room.

Last week in the article concerning the surprise party on Miss Erma Gates, the name of Miss Lola Moore was unfortunately omitted from the list of guests. We apologize for this omission.

Glenn Ely has been appointed the caretaker of the I. O. O. F. hall.
