HYCADA NEWS

Class Editor, Richard Hayman

Last Friday the Adelpic society gave a program consisting of piano numbers by Corrine Trullinger and Lester Underwood, selections by the Adelpic orchestra, recitations by Lester Closser and Vernice Fantz, cartoons by Oliver Suter and songs by some of the Adelpics.

Immediately following the program, letters were presented to members of the boys' and girls' basketball team by Miss Homedew, the girls' athletic coach and Mr. Giddings, the boys' coach. Those who earned letters are Avis Cadonau, Florence June Reed, Irma Jones, Irene Kaake, Irene Hayden, Goldie Brown, Myrtle Hall, Eina Bates, Jim Jennings, Dan Jennings, Maurice Bullard, Ted Salting, Harvey Woodworth, Virgil Wright and Frank Hayden.

The Senior girls held a meeting Monday to decide about graduation dresses but as yet they have come to no decision. The high school orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Bushnell, played a few selections before the school, Monday. The players showed real ability and steady improvement. We hope they will give us some more music soon.

Monday the photographers finished the group pictures and also took the pictures of the grade classes.

The two basket ball teams enjoyed a dinner given by the faculty at the Estacada hotel last Tuesday evening, and needless to say, all report a fine time. The following were present: Misses Homedew, Blake, Kershner and Marshall, Mrs. Maurer, Mr. and Mrs. Olson, Mr. Giddings and Mr. Wilson, Irene Hayden, Avis Cadonau, Goldie Brown, Irene Kaake, Irma Jones, Florence June Reed, Myrtle Hall, Jim and Dan Jennings, Ted Salting, Maurice Bullard, Virgil Wright and Frank Hayden.

The Junior class is giving a three act comedy, "Nothing But the Truth," at the high school auditorium next Friday evening, April 3, at eight o'clock. The purpose is a worthy one, that of paying for the Junior banquet which was given last semester. The high school orchestra will be present and play several numbers. All are urged to attend this play. The seats are reasonable, 25 play. The seats are reasonable, 25 and 35 and reserved seats 50 cents, and the play promises to be an excellent one.

Mrs. Maurer talked to the Freshman Literary society, Friday afternoon on the "Value of public speaking." She gave one negro reading which was greatly enjoyed by all.
