GRADUATION EXERCISES HELD FRIDAY EVENING

Last Friday evening in the high school auditorium, commencement exercises were held for the 1925 class of the Estacada high school.

The auditorium was decorated for the event in purple and gold and a goodly number of friends and relatives were present to witness the closing ceremony of commencement week.

After several well rendered selections by the high school orchestra, the following program was given: Invocation, Rev. Ira Rankin; "I Passed By Your Window," E. H. S. Girls' Glee Club; Class Address, "The Two Per Cent," Corinne Trullinger; Selection, Orchestra; Commencement Address, "The Inevitable Tragedy," Prof. Percy L. Edwards of O. A. C.; "Farewell to Thee," Girls' Quartette; Presentation of diplomas, A. G. Ames, Chairman of Board; Selection, Orchestra; Benediction, Rev. B. F. Clay.

Prof. O. T. Olson presented the Oregon Conference Scholarship to Corinne Trullinger and announced that the following students had earned the highest scholastic record during their high school course: Virginia Dubois, Irene Hayden, Mary Alice Reed, Corinne Trullinger and Harvey Woodworth.

Prof. Edwards, in addressing the class, brought a splendid message, urging them to particularly heed the opportunities and responsibilities of life. Stating that tragedy comes to every man or woman who is untrained to meet such opportunities. The three
