QUALITY AT LOW COST

Chevrolet has now built 2,000,000 cars—and is the world's largest manufacturer of automobiles with sliding gear transmission.

This achievement has been made possible because Chevrolet has met the great public demand for a quality car at low cost.

Chevrolet has a construction typical of the highest priced cars; powerful economical motor and disc clutch, bodies of beautiful design, loved models by Fisher, Duco finish, interior of cars beautiful and substantially upholstered and fully appointed.

Be sure to see these cars and learn how much automobile you can really get for little money.

OREGON NEWS ITEMS OF SPECIAL INTEREST

Brief Resume of Happenings of the Week Collected for Our Readers.

Formal dedication of the new home for the Salem lodge of Elks has been set for sometime in November.

Receipts at the Eugene postoffice in August this year were 13 per cent greater than those in August of last year.

Six hundred and eighty-six cars of fruits and vegetables were unloaded in Portland during August, the greatest of any month in its history.

The new telegraph line to serve the Western Union and Southern Pacific over the route of the new Natron cutoff is expected to be in operation in a few weeks.

A northern Morrow county fair will be held at Boardman Friday and Saturday. The fair will exhibit crops and livestock produced with irrigation in that district.

Because he slept while his campfire grew from a small blaze into a forest fire, D. J. Sullivan was fined $50 and costs by Justice of the Peace Turner at Madras.

Budget estimates that total $7,155,138.60, or $3,105,138.60 more than the tax levying power of the city, have been asked by all departments of the city of Portland for 1926.

The United States forest service has just published a map and log of the Oregon Skyline trail from Mount Hood to Crater lake and will furnish them upon application.

Receipts at the Portland postoffice for the month of August amounted to $230,554.01, as compared with $217,720.66 for the same month a year ago, or a gain of $12,834.95 for the current year.

Three machines were placed in operation at the Miles linen mills, which were established at Salem recently at a cost of more than $150,000. Other machines probably will get into operation this week.

The 46-mile section of the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph company's long distance lines between Arlington and Umatilla in eastern Oregon is to be reconstructed at a cost of approximately $30,000.

A grass fire near the farm home of C. W. Miller in Flournoy valley, Douglas county, set fire to the farm buildings and the home, together with its contents, the barn and other outbuildings were destroyed.

The state board of control has authorized a reorganization of its forces at the state tuberculosis hospital to care for the many new patients that will receive accommodations in the new buildings now under construction.

The trials of Tom Murray, Ellsworth Kelley and James Willos, convicts, who on August 12 shot their way out of the Oregon state penitentiary, were set for October 5 by Judge Percy Kelly of the Marion county circuit court.

Gus Norquist, 55, a native of Sweden, committed suicide in the county jail at Albany by cutting two gashes in his throat and then tearing his throat open with his hands. His act was caused by despondency as a result of ill health.

Acting under a law enacted at the last session of the Oregon legislature, plans are now being formulated looking to the appraisal of all state property. This is the first time that such an appraisal has been attempted in this state, it was said.

Complaints that the contractors in charge of erecting the new state training school for boys near Woodburn had refused to pay common laborers double time for work in excess of eight hours per day have been filed with the state board of control.

A. D. Kern & Co. of Portland have received the contract of the Eugene water board to lay the new McKenzie river pipe line for the city water system and work is expected to start as soon as equipment can be placed. The company's bid was $285,151.

City officials of Gearhart passed an ordinance calling for a special election to be held on September 15 for the purpose of putting before the voters a proposition of bonding the city for $30,000 to be expended in putting in a modern water system.

Shipments of lambs to eastern markets have been finished this year by the Smythe ranches, according to Dan P. Smythe of Pendleton. The final shipment went last week and consisted of 17 double deck cars. Some of the feeder lambs sold for as high as $15.75.

Mrs. Catherine J. Adams, known as the mother queen of Oregon for the last five years because of the fact she was the oldest woman member of the Pioneer association of Oregon attending the annual sessions of that gathering, died at the home of her son, William Adams, at Hillsboro. She lacked but one month of being 97 years of age.

"I was glad when they said unto me, Let us go into the house of Jehovah."—Psalm 122:1.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. McCroskey of Astoria, Mrs. Rose Looney of Cove Orchard, Mrs. E. R. Leek and daughter, Elmer Leek and wife and daughter of Wilanette were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Matt Lonsberry recently.

Mine Host Moore of the Estacada hotel is enjoying a visit from his old chum and business partner, Joe MacHardy, whom he has not seen for two years. Messrs. Moore and MacHardy were partners in the Canadian forests from 1894 to 1910.

Clean nursery stock is the first recommendation of the experiment station for the prevention or control of systemic diseases of brambles in Oregon—mosaic, leaf curl and bramble streak. These diseases are carried from diseased plants in the tips and transplants taken from them.

A vigorous young queen is the big factor in preventing premature swarms as viewed by the O. A. C. bee specialists. Colonies headed by an old queen are likely to supersede her, in the process of which they often swarm.

To get cows on feed test to eat a full ration of sunflower silage required, a 10-day transition period for the O. A. C. station herd. Only two cows of one lot on test cleaned up the sunflower silage as ravenously as they ate corn or vetch or oats silage.

Hall's Catarrh Medicine
Those who are in a "run down" condition will notice that Catarrh bothers them much more than when they are in good health. This fact proves that while Catarrh is a local disease, it is greatly influenced by constitutional conditions.
HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE consists of an Ointment which quickly relieves by local application, and the Internal Medicine, a Tonic, which assists in improving the General Health.
Sold by druggists for over 40 years.
