Great Christian Creed
The Athanasian creed was one of the three great creeds of Christendom—the two others being the Apostles' creed and the Nicene creed. It derives its name from Athanasius, the opponent of Arius and champion of orthodoxy, by whom it was supposed to have been written. It is the most rigid of three creeds mentioned, and was the standard of orthodoxy during the Middle Ages. It is famous for its so-called "damatory clauses." By many it is thought to have been written by Sergeant Hilary of Arles about 450; some argue for a later date, between 700 and 800, while others pronounce it a forgery.—Exchange.

Unexpected Pleasure
One side of the famous Devil's Glen was open to the public; the other side was kept strictly private by the landlord.
An American visitor, ignoring the notice boards, was walking up the private side of the Glen when he was met by a choleric old gentleman, who shouted: "What do you mean, sir, by trespassing on my property?"
"Great Scott!" replied the American. "I knew this was the Devil's Glen, but I never expected to meet the proprietor!"—London Mail.
