LOCAL NEWS

Mrs. Anna Dunlop, who is at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Dunlop, of this place.

Lewis Nelson, who bought the Hassel place east of Estacada some time ago, was here the latter part of last week looking after his property. He resides at Gales Creek, Ore., but expects to move to Estacada some time in the near future.

It is said that while one of the deputy marshals for Hallowe'en night was down town looking after the protection of property, the boys stole a march on him and visited his home. The gate to the front yard has not been found yet.

Clark Posson, who had his foot badly crushed while at work in the powerhouse at Faraday a few days ago, came home from the Portland hospital last Thursday, but makes regular trips to Portland to have his physician dress his foot.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Roberts and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Schock of Estacada visited the assembling plant of the Ford Motor company at Portland last Friday. The plant broke all previous records one day last week in assembling cars, when 125 automobiles were put together.

Mr. and Mrs. Milt Marshall returned last Friday evening from a fishing trip at Tillamook. Mr. Marshall did not report this because he was afraid, no doubt, it would "get out" that his better half caught most of the fish. However, it "got out."

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Duus last Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Kirshem and daughters, Elaine and Mable, of Oregon City; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Douglass and daughter, Miss Florence; Mr. and Mrs. Herman Duus and little daughter, and Mr. and Mrs. Vernie Duus.

Next Wednesday, November 11, is Armistice day. The consensus of opinion among business men favor a holiday, and it is likely many of the establishments will be closed for the day. In Portland the American Legion will have charge of the day's festivities, the big feature being a street parade.

The Estacada high school football team went to Gresham last Friday afternoon and "trimmed" the Gresham high to the tune of 15 to 6.

Among the pretty "kid" parties during Hallowe'en week was the seventh birthday party given by Mrs. R. R. Cooke for her daughter, Suzanne, on Friday afternoon. The little folks played games and were served nice refreshments, all being seated at one table. Suzanne is the recipient of many pretty presents.
