KICKED OUT.
Why not more consideration for the Oregon Humane society?
It is ordered out of the community. Its allotment from the Community Chest was so scanty that it declined to accept it.
It is one public organization that functions every minute and all the time. It receives an average of 100 telephone calls, and its office is visited by 20 callers a day. This shows that folks accept it as an important, and most valuable instrument of public service.
Leaving out of consideration all the work in behalf of dumb animals, service in cases of fire, neglect, and abused children, it is a most welcome recipient of the community chest and a prime instrument of its allotments of the Community Chest.

The governor of Massachusetts would rather his son had a knowledge of the Bible than a college education. As the latter education consists of football, roving, and other things, he is right. For more "cough," there are many more of us of the same thought.

Officers for Ensuing Year Are Elected and Salvation Army Christmas to Be Considered

At the Kiwanis luncheon December 3d, officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows:

President, Rev. M. M. Stocker; vice president, James A. Brady; district trustee, William Hammond; George Sullivan, W. P. Hawley, Jr., Harry Draper, G. A. Tracy, W. A. Huntley, Albert Roake and W. A. Holt, directors.

Election is by ballot with the candidates chosen without their knowledge. Rev. Stocker, in accepting the post as president, said that while he had considered the advisability of accepting if elected, he did not believe under the conditions that he could decline, having been elected without aspiring. He asked for cooperation of the members during his term.

The inter-club committee was authorized to look into the problem presented by the decision of the Salvation Army to give a community Christmas tree. The program and educational committees will consider the advisability of the club entertaining the ladies of the members some time during the coming holiday week.

DRY FORCES RAP COOLIDGE; WAVE MELLON OUSTED

Washington, Dec. 8.—(L. N. S.)—The most acrid criticism that has yet been directed at President Coolidge came today from the united committee on prohibition enforcement, comprising representatives of more than two score reform organizations.

In a report on present day prohibition conditions adopted and sent to the white house, the professionally denounced the administration's enforcement of the 18th amendment and the so-called "dry law" as "farce and a scandal," demanded the removal of Secretary of the Treasury Mellon and laid responsibility for non-enforcement on the white house doorstep.

The report was drafted by Clinton Howard of Rochester, N. Y., one of the earliest prohibitionists, and was adopted at a meeting from which the public and newspaper men were barred.

Says People Insulted.

"The president has done some fine specializing on the general enforcement of law," said Howard's report, but he never has yet unreservedly admitted himself and his administration to the enforcement of the 18th amendment as provided by his oath of support and defend the constitution.

Concerning present conditions, the report said: "It is an insult to our intelligence and a challenge to our patriotism so say this is the best the government can do to enforce its laws. If this is true, the government ought to be cited for its imbecility and damage, or its incapacity."

The reference to Secretary Mellon was an "ex-distiller," and President Coolidge was advised to take direction of enforcement from his hands.

Will Ignore Threat.

President Coolidge will ignore the threat, it was stated on his behalf at the white house today.

The fact that the drys made public their criticisms of the executive at the same time they sent the report to the white house constitutes sufficient reason alone for Mr. Coolidge to ignore the matter, it was stated.

When the report was brought to the attention of Secretary Mellon, however, he was not so reticent. Mellon characterized the conclusions reached by the reformers as "unfounded, uncalled for, violent and amounting to nothing."

A meeting of radical reformers to blow off was Mellon's description of the session and its work.

MACLAREN MUST GO TO PRISON.

Governor Refuses to Lodge Reprise; Young Portland Man Convicted in Local Court.

Governor Pierce announced in Salem yesterday that he would not interfere with the execution of a sentence of four years in the penitentiary imposed upon Allan MacLaren for more than a month. MacLaren has been kept out of prison by the governor, but Saturday's decision is taken to mean that he must begin serving his time. MacLaren, son of a local reform worker of Portland, was one of three young men convicted in a three-stroke Judge Campbell as having assaulted Gene Evans, a Portland girl.

For months the trial was delayed and after conviction by a jury, delay was secured by appeal to the supreme court. Upon confirmation by the higher court the governor was induced to delay execution of sentence. The elder MacLaren was a member of the state parole board. He is alleged that he might be more free to light his son.

The crime of which MacLaren was convicted was one of the most unexcusable in the history of the state. He participated in overhauling this one girl with the help of other young men—Gladwin Lawbaugh, serving five years, and Archie Livingston, paroled
