GEORGE

Died in Portland, March 15, 1926, Lydia M. Pershin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Paulsen, formerly of this place. Mrs. Pershin was born here May 22, 1884, lived here until 1904, was married to Leslie Pershin in 1909. She leaves to mourn her loss, her husband, a son and daughter, Harry and Evelyn, her mother and father and three brothers, Julius Paulsen living on the old home, August Paulsen of Hermiston and Walter Paulsen of Portland. Sad as we are to see her go, it will always be pleasant to think of her as a true and faithful christian woman, and her many deeds of charity and kindness with children and others in the community where she lived will be missed by many.

Mr. and Mrs. McComb and baby from St. Helens were guests of Mrs. Dew and family on Saturday and Sunday.

tions can be instantly decreased 90 per cent by enacting a statute deporting every alien engaged in the traffic.

World Peace—The outlawry of war, reduction of armaments, and universal peace are possible by prohibiting profits in munitions and materials of war, subjecting capital to conscription same as man power in case of war, and establishing a method and place where causes that lead to war can be settled by arbitration "diplomacy and law."

Tax Reduction—Tax reduction will follow the accomplishment of the foregoing. Further economy in government can be obtained by abolishing useless and overlapping bureaus and eliminating needless employees and giving to the States the powers of local self government.

Other Issues—On legislation pertaining to rivers and harbors, soldiers, hospitalization, post office employees, and taxation I cite my attitude in Congress two years ago. My record there, together with my foregoing, is my platform here. I kept my pledge, obtained results for Oregon, and now solicit your support in the approaching campaign.

NOTES AND PERSONALS

A good and true friend of Oregon was Wallis Nash, author, rail-roader and colonizer, who passed on Saturday. His belief in the future of this commonwealth caused Mr. Nash to invest here and to bring others to aid in the development of the country. Many persons were attracted to this state by his financial articles in the papers as well as his books, chief among them which are "Oregon—There and Back in 1877," "Two Years in Oregon," and "A Lawyer's Life on Two Continents." He it was who built the railway from Yaquina to Mill City. His survivors are Miss Dorothea Nash, a well-known teacher of music in this city; Desmond Nash, Percival Nash, Rodney Nash and Darwin Nash, his children.—Spectator.

DINNER PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Hale entertained Tuesday evening with a dinner party in honor of their daughter Ruth's sixteenth birthday.

Those present were Ruth Hale, Harry Osborne, Emma Coleman, Edgar Hall, Myrtle Hall, Floyd Hale, Gladys Shankland and Orrie Whitney. The evening was spent in games and music. The guests departed at a late hour and wished Ruth many more happy birthdays.
