HIGHWAY FETE SUCCESSFUL AFFAIR

The highway celebration on labor day was a grand success in every respect, everyone co-operating in a splendid manner. Even the weather man came forth with as fine a day as one might wish for, which added much toward the success of the occasion.

The first event on the program for the day was the grand parade which left Estacada about 9:30 a. m., led by the car bearing the queen and her attendants, which was followed by some hundred cars or more.

When the caravan reached Barton the cars were parked and all joined in witnessing the coronation ceremonies. The American Legion color bearer and attendants, followed by the band, led the procession. They then formed an aisle through which passed the dainty little crown bearer, Joyce Wilcox, followed by Miss Lola Johnson, who was escorted to the coronation stand by Hon. Harvey E. Cross, Princesses Margaret and Martha. Then on an attractively decorated platform, Miss Johnson was crowned Queen Lola by Judge Cross of Clackamas county in honor of this memorable occasion, the completion of the wonderful highway loop.

Queen Lola was then given the key for the day which closed this ceremony. She was then escorted from her throne to the car, and just before entering to finish the drive around the loop, she christened this very fine paved highway by breaking a bottle of Clackamas river water.

The procession then proceeded on its way, stopping at Carver only long enough for the band to render a selection reminding them of the fact that something was happening up in this end of the county.

Upon reaching the Old Oregon Trail in Logan, the party again retired from their cars and led by Governor Pierce, Judge Cross, Quenn Lola and other notables, proceeded down the Trail for a few yards while the movie camera man took moving pictures of the procession. Again the parade was on its way, reaching Estacada Park about noon, where lunch was served the Queen and her party, the Governor, Judge Cross and party. After the lunch, the audience gathered around the band stand, where the program of the day was given. The Estacada Choral society, under the able direction of Mr. David Horner, rendered several delightful numbers, adding much to the entertainment of the afternoon. Mr. Matt Glover then introduced Mr. H. C. Stephens, Mayor of Estacada, who welcomed all present to this city for the day and hoped all would have a splendid time. Judge Cross was then introduced, who spoke chiefly of the road program of the county, expressing his gratitude that this new fine highway had been completed, and the next road in this district to receive his best efforts was the Colton road, which would open up another fine territory.

Mr. Milton A. Miller, of Portland, also spoke briefly on subjects pertaining to present day events of interest.

Governor Walter A. Pierce, the speaker of the day, was introduced and brought to our attention the wonders of our country, our state and county; and hoped we were grateful for all these things. He also congratulated Clackamas county for its fine highway and road program.

Other events of the celebration included the base ball game between Lipman-Wolfe and Sandy and the dance in the pavilion, both afternoon and evening, and other side attractions.

The band delighted the crowd, at different times during the day with their music.

The day was truly a big success and one that will stand out as one of the big events of the history of our city.

The movie camera man was present during all the ceremonies, taking pictures which will add much to the publicity of our county. These pictures will no doubt prove interesting when shown at our local theatre.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Wilcox were guests of honor at a farewell party on Saturday evening at the I. O. O. F. hall, with the members of Centennial Rebekah lodge acting as hostesses.

The evening was spent in playing games of various sorts, after which the party marched into the banquet room and were seated at tables beautifully decorated in pink and green, the colors of the order. A dainty lunch consisting of sandwiches, pickles, coffee and cake was served.

The Wilcoxes were presented with a serving tray in token of the esteem and affection held for them by the members of the lodge, and hope was expressed that they would not remain away from us for any great length of time, but would return at an early date to make this their permanent home.

There were some sixty or more members present to enjoy this pleasant evening.

day celebration in our community was held at the I. O. O. F. hall on Monday.

This display surpassed in every way any ever staged here, and brought forth some wonderful blossoms of varied varieties.

Due to the very dry season the committee in charge of this portion of the program was a bit hesitant in having a floral exhibit this year, thinking there would be few flowers and thus it would not prove the success it had been in former years. But such was not the case, and the large room used for the display was a bower of flowers, creating a gorgeous sight in all their bright colors.

In the sections arranged by individuals for their general display of flowers keen originality was shown and the judges were called upon to figure closely in awarding prizes. The final awards in this department were:

First Prize—Mrs. F. C. Bartholomew.

Second Prize—Mrs. B. O. Sarver.

Third Prize—Mrs. Fred Johnson.

Mrs. Irving Smith won first prize for asters with a dainty bouquet of the single variety.

Mrs. Matt Lonsberry won second prize for asters.

Mrs. Fred Robley received the award for the finest display of gladiolus with a massive basket of three ovely blossoms.

In the dahlia exhibit, which proved most interesting, with the various varieties, colorings, etc., the following prizes were awarded:

First—Mrs. B. O. Sarver.

Second—Mrs. Fred Robley.

Third—Mrs. Herbert Huxley.

Best display of dahlias—Mrs. H. A. LaBarre.

Mrs. O. A. Kiggins received the award offered for zinnias with a brilliant bouquet of red blossoms.

Mrs. Tucker, of Boring, also brought a beautiful display of choice dahlias from her home and was in attendance all day giving interesting facts concerning this popular flower.

Several hundred people passed through this flower bedecked hall and spoke most highly of this division of the celebration.

MISS LOLA JOHNSON QUEEN OF HIGHWAY CELEBRATION

In a highly spirited contest for queen to rule over the highway celebration on labor day, Miss Lola Johnson, the candidate of the Estacada band, received the highest number of votes and was declared elected for this very auspicious occasion.

Miss Johnson is the charming and beautiful daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Johnson, and a very popular young lady of this community. Her subjects were indeed happy to have such a gracious personage to preside over the festivities of the day.

The other two highest candidates in the contest acted as princesses to Queen Lola and were also charming in their dainty dresses of pastel shades. They were the Misses Margaret Beck of Springwater and Martha Whitehead of Barton.

Another lady, and an American at that, has succeeded in swimming the English channel. Goes to show that Napoleon when he gazed with longing eyes across those turbulent waters did not realize what an easy job it was to cross over.

Peace, Goodwill

Columbia, Peace and the Spirit of Brotherly love have been joined in one person, a beautiful woman. This young lady was one of the central figures in a pageant staged at the Sesqui-Centennial International Exposition in Philadelphia, celebrating 150 years of American Independence. The Exposition continues until December 1.

FIFTY YEAR MASONS TO BE HONORED

Every member of the local Masonic Lodge who has been a Mason for fifty years or more will be an honored guest at the impressive ceremonies that will be held in Portland September 15th to celebrate the 75th Anniversary of the founding of the Grand Lodge of Oregon. Instructions were received today by Wm. Dale, secretary of the local Masonic Lodge, to immediately ascertain how many fifty year Masons there are among its membership in the city and surrounding district. As soon as the names are received special invitations will be sent them from Grand Lodge headquarters.

Thousands of Masons will gather from all parts of the state to participate in the celebration, and in addition representatives from various lodges of Washington and Idaho that were originally under the jurisdiction of the Grand Lodge of Oregon when the Northwest was still a territory, will attend. Of the 29,000 Masons in the state it is estimated that between 5,000 and 6,000 will be present when Edgar H. Senenich, Most Worshipful Grand Master, calls the meeting to order in the Municipal Auditorium in Portland.

The program will be divided in two sections. The first section will consist of a banquet held in honor of all fifty year Masons now members of the various Oregon lodges. Attendance will be limited to these fifty year Masons, Grand Masters of the United States and Canada, heads of the various Masonic bodies in Oregon, Past Grand Masters, Grand Lodge officers and District Deputy Grand Masters of the Grand Lodge of Oregon, Masters and Wardens of the lodges which organized the Grand Lodge of Oregon, and of the Washington and Idaho lodges under its jurisdiction. The second section will revolve around a huge meeting for all Master Masons at the Public Auditorium.

The Grand Lodge was organized three quarters of a century ago at Oregon City in 1851. The then Oregon territory embraced everything from the coast to the Rocky Mountains. At the coming Portland meeting, the principal addresses will deal with the history of Masonry in Oregon and the part Masonry has played in the state's development.
