ELECT AL A. PRICE TO LEGISLATURE

Among the names which will appear on the legislative ticket at the general election in November, perhaps none stand out more conspicuously than that of Al A. Price of Oregon City, Democratic candidate from Clackamas county. Some may be more versed in oratory, but none possess more solid qualities of character, and none secure a greater share of personal respect and affection. His long business career in Oregon City, indeed, presents a remarkable example of how much a man of comparatively moderate powers can accomplish by means of assiduous application and indefatigable industry. During the many years he has been identified with a great merchandising industry his labors have been prodigious. Suffering an enormous loss by fire some years ago, sufficient to discourage and retard the progress of any ordinary character, Mr. Price started again at the bottom with a determination characteristic of the man. The great department store in Oregon City today is a monument to his courage and ability.

Al Price has always been a conscientious man, and whatever he undertakes to do, he does thoroughly. In his conversation he shows careful study of important topics at issue. He is elaborate almost to excess and spares no pains to adapt himself to the various capacities of his work, both personally and publicly.

Withal, Al A. Price possesses much practical sagacity, great strength of purpose and power to direct the issues of action with steady hand and eye. Such a man is certainly competent to represent Clackamas county in the legislative halls; nor should his party affiliation, in a county overwhelmingly Republican, stand in the way of his success in this campaign.

Mr. Price was the only candidate who came right out in the open before the primaries and stated that he was in favor of a reasonable income tax which, he believes, is the only means of equalizing tax burdens. He also stated that Oregon is one of the three remaining states where the price of school books was exorbitant and exploited, much to the detriment of encouraging a maximum education at a minimum cost.

One of the sore spots of the Willamette valley, Mr. Price contends, is the salmon fishing industry which is being reserved by class legislation for a few private interests in the canning business at a great expense to the people. That is one issue which he will be glad to assist in eradicating, as it is a natural industry and belongs to the people.—Canby Herald.

OREGON NEWS NOTES

The state game commission has created a 2500-acre game preserve at Alford station, north of Harrisburg, on the Pacific highway. Chinese pheasants will be liberated on the new refuge this fall.

Miss Ella Nolan, 43, of Ione, committed suicide at the eastern Oregon state hospital at Pendleton. Removing the drawstring from her skirt and tying it to a heating pipe in her room, she hung herself.

The Rainier Fish company shipped two carloads of the fall catch of salmon to New York Sunday and another carload was shipped to Boston Wednesday. The gillnetters, trappers and seiners report heavy catches.

Mining excitement is running high in Wallawa county following the discovery of a vein containing gold, silver and copper on Lick creek, near Enterprise, which rough assays indicate will run $100 to the ton.

The University of Oregon has received permission to establish an extension course in the Salem high school building during the coming year. The course will feature literature, health, education and similar subjects.

The largest timber deal made at Marshfield in years was completed between the Western White Cedar company and the Stout Lumber company, involving delivery of 40,000,000 feet of white cedar logs to the Western White Cedar company within the next two years.

If you wish your trade to rise, you must surely advertise.

AMERICAN YOUTH CANDIDATE

Miss Helen F. Dodge of Pennsylvania, holder of a Carnegie medal for heroism, has been nominated as a candidate for the American Youth Award established by the directors of the Sesqui-Centennial International Exposition, which is to be held in Philadelphia from June 1 to December 1 in celebration of 150 years of American Independence. Miss Dodge, the daughter of George H. Dodge of 5944 Walton avenue, Philadelphia, jumped into the Toms River at Ocean Gate, N. J., fully dressed, and, while having use of only one arm, saved the life of a drowning girl.

PAST WORTHY MATRONS CLUB ENTERTAINED

Mrs. Catherine Allen entertained the Past Worthy Matrons' Club of Mountain Chapter, No. 108, at a delightful afternoon on Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Allen.

A most delicious lunch, consisting of chicken salad, sandwiches, angel food cake and coffee, was served at the close of the afternoon.

The following guests enjoyed this happy affair: Mesdames Womer, Keith, Norris, Mary Smith, Cordelia Carter, Reed, Miss Sturgeon, Mrs. Elizabeth Allen, Mrs. Brunner and the hostess.

TEACHERS' RECEPTION

The teachers' reception held on Friday evening at the high school auditorium was not attended as well as usual, due to the very rainy evening. However, there were about thirty-five present, who enjoyed the evening and took this opportunity of getting acquainted with the teaching staff of our schools for the year. This affair was given under the auspices of the Parent-Teacher Association.

ESTACADA AT FAIR

Everyone will be attending the county fair this week, an unusually fine program being announced. The Estacada band has been engaged to play the four days. Also on Friday evening the Greater Union of Clubs of Clackamas County will hold a banquet on the fair grounds which is interesting news, as all who have been attending these meetings during the year throughout the county, have indeed enjoyed them immensely.

EAGLE CREEK GRANGERS

A unique program will be given at Eagle Creek Grange Saturday, the 24th. In the morning will be initiation assisted by the Eagle Creek Drill Team. Afternoon will be given over entirely to lecture hour. Every member and visitor is asked to come dressed as a kid. Dig out your clothes of 1776 and come. Good speaking.

PLEASEING ARTISAN FUNCTION

The Artisans held a pleasant evening on last Wednesday when they opened their meetings for the fall and winter with a sumptuous dinner, including chicken and all the trimmings. There were about thirty-five present and all report a grand time and are looking forward to a number of such gatherings before the year is over.

P.-T. A. MEETING

The P.-T. A. will have its first meeting Tuesday, Sept. 28, at the high school auditorium at 3:30 o'clock. Would like to have all the members present, as we want to get lined out for our winter's work.

MRS. R. E. BECK, President.

Ray Woodie and family, accompanied by Mrs. Katie Douglass, motored over to Malcom Woodie's Sunday afternoon, then returned home by way of Portland, leaving his son Leslie who is attending the polytechnic school.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hoffmeister are busy these days picking hops for Ed Trullinger of Lower Eagle Creek.

STANFIELD WINS FIGHT

Salem, Sept. 21.—Robert N. Stanfield, independent candidate for United States senator from Oregon, wins in his fight to use a slogan after his name on the November ballot.

The supreme court today allowed a writ of mandamus requiring Secretary of State Koser to comply with Stanfield's request for the use of the slogan, "Freedom from Dictatorship, Independent" after the name of the candidate as it will appear on the general election ballot.

Acting under an opinion from Attorney General VanWinkle, the secretary of state had refused Stanfield's request for the use of the slogan. Chief Justice McBride, in writing the opinion for the court, however, points out that the law covering election ballot provides that in addition to the name of the candidate and the office for which he is aspiring, he is also entitled to have "the political principle which he represents expressed in not more than three words."

"It would seem that the words 'Freedom From Dictatorship,' the opinion sets out, 'express a political principle quite as definitely as the words Republican, Democrat, or Socialist, and unless there is some inhibition in the statute the plaintiff is entitled to have them go on the ballot, the idea of the framers of the statute being to inform the voters in a general way upon what particular political principle the

SPRINGWATER

The Joe Guttridge family were visitors on Sunday at the John Shannon home at Clarks.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Van Houten were in Portland on business last Wednesday.

The Garfield Dorcas and W. C. F. U. will meet Thursday this week at the home of Mrs. Belle Duus.

R. E. Davis and family and Mrs. W. L. Shriner returned from Watchee Saturday. Mrs. Davis returning to Portland Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Perkins and son, Otis, have returned to their ranch for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Micheal and family spent Sunday at their ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniels also spent the week end on their ranch.

'OTHER PAPERS PLEASE COPY'

One may be happy though in jail. The case of Alfred Lindsey, Eureka, Cal., editor is in point.

A judge sentenced him to pay a fine of $2000 or stay in jail 1000 days for contempt of court.

Judge Richardson denied all appeals for clemency for Lindsey.

Lindsey is in jail, and may stay there quite a while; but he is happy. The food's good. The cell is light, well-ventilated and roomy. Sympathetic friends send him flowers, books and choice viands.

And, meanwhile, the judge who sent him to jail ran fifth in the race for the superior court bench at the recent election, and Governor Richardson is buried feet up in the political cemetery.—Portland News.

Is turn about fair play?

A Japanese newspaper in Tokyo imported American linotype operators and discharged its native ones. The foreign office has been appealed to to oust the Americans.

candidate claims their suffrage.

"It may be a little hazy and ambiguous, but perhaps not much more than many political platforms or statements of political principles. The words 'Freedom From Dictatorship, Independent,' succinctly inform the public that the candidate is opposed to dictatorship and he should have these three words placed on the ballot," the opinion concludes.

AMERICAN YOUTH

Elizabeth ("Betty") Clark, 13, of Cedars, Delaware, is one of that state's girl candidates for the American Youth Award, established by the directors of the Sesqui-Centennial International Exposition, to be held at Philadelphia from June 1 to December 1 in observance of 150 years of American Independence. If "Betty" is finally chosen to represent Delaware she will be given a week's trip to the Exposition and to Washington and the White House, where she will receive a medal from the hands of President Coolidge.

LA DEE LOGGING COMPANY TO RESUME OPERATIONS

The La Dee Logging Company expect to begin shipping logs in about ten days. At the present time they do not have a full crew of men working, due to some repair on the incline; but expect to soon put on a full crew, and then continue right along. This solves quite a problem for a number of men of this vicinity who do not have steady employment, giving them work near their homes.

EASTERN STAR MEETING

The Eastern Star held a very interesting meeting on Tuesday evening with a good attendance present. Several new members were initiated into the order. At the close of the meeting the members adjourned to the banquet hall where they were seated to most attractively decorated tables and a lovely lunch was served.

FORMER TEACHER VISITS

Miss Lillian Schmidt, of Portland, formerly a teacher in the grade schools here, was visiting friends in this vicinity during the past week. She was the guest of Miss Alta Darrow on Monday night and returned to her home on Tuesday. Miss Schmidt intends to go to Normal school this winter at Monmouth.

McNARY BUYS TROUT

Sandy, Sept. 16.—The Mt. Hood Trout Co. recently sold 500 trout to Senator McNary to stock the new McNary pond, at his ranch near Salem. The price was 75 cents per fish. The order was for 1000, but the company could not supply more.

OREGON NEWS NOTES

Mrs. Myrtle Williams, 21, of The Dalles, who was injured when an auto driven by Gerald Wilcox of Antelope struck the horse she was riding near Criterion, died at Maupin.

Albany will hold a special election November 2 to vote on the question of repealing the tax limitation clause in its city charter restricting its general fund budget to 8 mills.

Transfer of the budget-making power of the state to the governor, and making him fully responsible, is proposed by I. L. Patterson, republican nominee for the governorship.

Pat McGinnis, who was found dead in a cabin in an isolated district 14 miles from Baker, was murdered, according to a coroner's jury verdict. No clue to the slayer has been found.

For their heroic work in battling a forest fire on the shores of Pamela lake, in the Santiam national forest in August, Ione and Iris Hewitt of Sherwood, have been thanked by forest officials.

A $20,000 hotel, six stories high, 100x112 feet, containing 125 rooms, will be constructed in Baker within the next year. It was announced by representatives of a group of eastern capitalists.

WALSH TO OPEN HANEY CAMPAIGN ON OCT. 4

United States Senator Thomas J. Walsh of Montana will open Bert E. Haney's Multnomah county campaign for the senatorship with a speech at the Auditorium in Portland Monday evening, October 4, it was announced at Haney headquarters Saturday.

"Your fighting qualities and your attachment to progressive principles and measures are known here of all men," wrote Senator Walsh, in a letter of congratulation to Haney following his victory in the May primary, "and I venture to say that the forward-looking members of the United States senate without regard to party, those who are deeply concerned to see progressive principles embodied in legislation and progressive thought evidenced in executive branches of the government are an sincerely desirous of seeing you elected," the letter concluded.

Senator Walsh is now serving his third term as senator from Montana and his record of achievement at Washington have made him one of the nation's outstanding political characters.

His prosecution of the cases involving former Secretary of the Interior Albert Fall and Sinclair in the Teapot Dome scandal and Donnelly of California brought him nationwide fame. He served as chairman of the Democratic national convention in New York in 1924 and was offered, but declined, the nomination for vice president, preferring, as he said, to continue his services for the people in the senate.

SPRINGWATER FAIR

The Springwater Community fair was a huge success in spite of the rain. A large crowd attended and the exhibits were numerous and unusually good.

The fair board wishes to express their deepest appreciation for the help they received from the Estacada people, especially the band boys, as well as the surrounding districts who helped to make the fair a success.

Preparations are already under way for the building of a stock shed for next year's fair, where the livestock may be properly cared for.

A Clackamas County Canning Club team, consisting of Helen Perry and Edith Howell, gave a canning demonstration, which proved their ability in that line. They are putting on a demonstration at the county fair on Thursday and at the State fair next Monday. Elva Shibley is their leader.

MRS. COUPLAND HONORED

Mrs. Rex Ludlow entertained at a charming surprise party on last Monday evening at her home, honoring Mr. Ludlow's mother, Mrs. Coupland, the occasion being Mrs. Coupland's birthday.

A delicious lunch was served which included a lovely birthday cake.

The guests were a number of friends and neighbors of Mrs. Coupland who joined in wishing her many happy returns of the day.
