

Eastern Clackamas News

Devoted to the Interests of Eastern Clackamas County

VOL. XXI

EASTERN CLACKAMAS NEWS, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 18, 1926

NUMBER 7

OREGON NEWS ITEMS OF SPECIAL INTEREST

Brief Resume of Happenings of the Week Collected for Our Readers.

Peppermint is being planted this week on several tracts of land at Hermiston.

The 12th annual convention of the Christian Endeavor union of Clackamas county was held in Oregon City.

County assessors from all sections of Oregon met at Salem Friday and Saturday to discuss county tax ratios.

Harold Hall, son-in-law of Governor Pierce, was appointed district attorney of Crook county, to succeed Willard Wirtz, who has resigned.

Resolutions were adopted by the Arlington city council and sent to Salem, urging that the new state normal school be located in Arlington.

A move was launched at Salem to combine the county agent's office and that of the horticultural inspector. The salary would be fixed at $3000 annually.

A new record was established election day, November 2, when 848 unregistered voters were sworn in at the 17 precincts of Klamath Falls by freeholders.

Wheat shipments from the Columbia river in all trades for October reached 5,094,989 bushels, bringing the total for the cereal season to date to 16,211,865 bushels.

Leroy Ledgerwood, superintendent of the Mehama fish hatchery, states that he now has 5,400,000 chinook eggs at the hatchery, which is all that will be hatched there this year.

The state law authorizing the collection of inheritance tax in Oregon is constitutional, according to an opinion written by Justice Belt and handed down by the state supreme court.

Salem outdistanced all other cities in the Pacific northwest in residence and business construction during October, according to the monthly building survey of S. W. Strauss & Co.

Governor Pierce appointed John C. Veatch of Portland a member of the Multnomah county tax supervising and conservation commission to succeed L. J. Goldsmith, who has resigned.

County assessors from all sections of the state met in Salem to confer with members of the state tax commission with relation to the tax ratio of the various counties for the year 1927.

Multnomah county will receive a total of $45,598 as its share of the tax refunds from the reverted Oregon & California railroad grant lands, as provided by an act recently passed by congress.

Oregon City school district No. 62 purchased a 5 1/4-acre tract of land in what is known as the Ryan Mount Pleasant tracts, adjoining the Mount Pleasant school grounds, for an athletic field.

Exports from the Oregon customs district for nine months represent a valuation of $52,525,448, far over-shadowing the showing for the same period in 1925, when the figures were $26,090,620.

Members of the state textbook commission met in Salem Monday to adopt one-third of the textbooks used in the public schools of the state. The books adopted by the commission will be used for six years.

The Benedictine Fathers have decided to rebuild St. Benedict's Abbey and the associated educational institutions, which were destroyed in a million-dollar fire September 21, on the butte at Mount Angel.

The mill dam of the Moehnke Bros. sawmill at Cedar Canyon, near Banks, broke loose, the water taking everything in its path, including bridges and a mile of plank road, causing a heavy loss to the company.

The outstanding feature of the apple harvest season at Hood River this year has been the large shipments made. The valley has shipped 3030 cars, more than 700 cars in excess of the entire tonnage of last year.

William McGregor, prominent Astoria sawmill operator, timberman and banker, died at Astoria as the result of an accident when the automobile in which he was riding was hit by a Spokane, Portland & Seattle train.

The distribution system and all property of the Sutherlin Light & Power company was taken over by the California-Oregon Power company. The purchasing company will spend several thousand dollars improving the system.

PINOCHLE PARTY AT THE GOHRING HOME

A delightful evening was spent at the H. C. Gohring home on Saturday of this week, when Mr. and Mrs. Gohring entertained a number of guests at Pinochle. Those winning honors for the evening were; high scores, Mrs. Ahlberg and Mrs. Raymond Lovelace; consolation prizes, Mrs. Lovelace and Mr. Wallace Smith. A most delicious lunch was served at the close of the evening.

Those enjoying the Gohring's hospitality were, Messrs and Mesdames Wallace Smith, Raymond Lovelace, Fred Bartholomew, Theo Ahlberg and Mrs. D. B. Eshleman.

AN UNIQUE PROGRAM

The program for the next Community club is unique. Among other things there will be a considerable number (some fifteen or twenty) who will make short talks of from one to three minutes each, on what the speaker considers the most necessary thing to be done for the advancement of Estacada and vicinity. There are certain to be many worthwhile suggestions. Don't fail to attend.

The date is Friday night of next week, the day after Thanksgiving. Complete program will be announced next week.

ARMISTICE DAY PARTY

Mrs. Raymond Lovelace and Mrs. Wallace Smith were joint hostesses at a charming party at the home of the latter on the evening of Armistice Day. 500 was the diversion of the evening and high honors were won by Mrs. Harry Smith and Mr. Alva Smith; low scores by Mrs. Herman Gohring and Mr. Theo Ahlberg. A dainty lunch was served at the close of the playing.

Those present for this party were: Messrs and Mesdames Harry Smith, Herman Gohring, Theo Ahlberg, Alva Smith, Wallace Smith, Mesdames Eshleman, Bartholomew, Lovelace, and Mr. Henry Heiple.

COMMUNITY CLUB MEETING FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 26th

The next regular meeting of the Eastern Clackamas Community Club will be held at the Estacada Hotel, Friday evening, November 26th, at eight o'clock. Many interesting numbers have been secured by the entertainment committee. The first public appearance this fall of the Estacada band will be made at this meeting.

Topics of local interest will be spoken on by a number of speakers. These speakers will all have a message to bring to us that is of the first importance. You are all urged to hear them at this meeting.

This is the night of the annual election of officers. It is to the interest of everyone to attend and vote for the officers that will guide the club for the coming year.

SPRINGWATER CHURCH

THOS. I. KIRKWOOD, Pastor
The Sunday School and church services will be combined in a special Thanksgiving service to begin at 10:30 a. m. The theme for the day will be National Missions, and a thank offering will be taken for national missions. Services at George and Eagle Creek as usual. Mr. Weir is expected to supply the pulpit at Eagle Creek.

MRS. WOOSTER'S BROTHER PASSES AWAY AT DAYTON

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Wooster received word on Sunday morning of the death of the latter's brother, Mr. Harris, of Dayton, Oregon.

Mr. Harris was a very prominent citizen in his community, identified with all organizations established for the betterment of his city. He was serving his twelfth year as mayor of Dayton when called by death. He was a mason and an Odd Fellow.

Mr. and Mrs. Wooster drove down to Dayton on Monday to attend the funeral services.

The News extends its sincere sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. Wooster and family on their loss.

TEACHERS ATTEND INSTITUTE

Several teachers of the grade and high school were in Oregon City on Friday and Saturday attending the County Teachers Institute. The Estacada schools are fortunate in having a splendid corps of teachers this year and we should be appreciative of the fact.

News from the Neighboring Towns

SPRINGWATER

Mrs. Hargraves and her daughter, Mrs. Twohy, both of Clackamas, were visiting at the home of Dr. Wallens on Tuesday last.

Mr. and Mrs. Moger were Wednesday guest of Mr. and Mrs. Kirkwood. Mr. and Mrs. Dodson, Sr., from Washington have been visiting their son and family here.

The Neighborly club met with Mrs. Peter Erickson on Wednesday afternoon and had a very pleasant time, with about eighteen present. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Grable.

Mrs. Carl Howell was called to Harrisburg on Thursday owing to the illness of her mother.

Mrs. Harold Horner visited on Thursday with Mrs. Fred Horner, in Dodge.

Mrs. John Park and Mrs. Wiley Howell spent Thursday with Mrs. Carl Ward.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Closter and son, Lester, were Oregon City visitors on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Drake and Mrs. Proctor and son of Forest Grove, were Sunday guests at the William Bard home.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hull and children, were visiting relatives in Portland on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Park and children, of Woodland, Washington, were guests at the I. M. Park home recently.

Representatives of the Springwater Christian Endeavor Society attending the county convention at Oregon City on Saturday and Sunday were, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Shibley, Elva Shibley, Edith Howell Evelyn Dibble, William Shearer and Mr. Kirkwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Strunk were Saturday callers at the Moger home.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Erickson were Sunday guests at the Ed Aycock home.

W. M. Christensen came out on Tuesday to accompany his nephew Richardson, to the Father and Son Banquet at the grange hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Forest Erickson visited relatives in Portland during the week end.

Mrs. Nestling was a Portland visitor on Tuesday.

GEORGE ITEMS

Mrs. Elsie Dew attended teachers' institute on Friday and Saturday at Oregon City.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Johnson purchased a new Chevrolet coach.

Mr. G. W. Wilson and Mr. Tucker made a business trip to Portland on Monday.

George Willing went to Portland on Thursday, returning on Sunday morning.

Mrs. F. D. Carruth and son Donald and Margarite Enna of Portland, were calling on Mr. and Mrs. J. Paulson on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Joyner motored to Gresham on Saturday.

Mrs. Julius Paulson visited her sister Mrs. Will Honegger at Multnomah a few days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Lins stayed a few days last week, with their mother, Mrs. Dew, while John Dew went to Portland to buy a team.

Mr. and Mrs. Chris Johnson and children went to Portland on Saturday and Sunday to visit with friends.

Dorothy Dew and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Lins visited with their mother, Mrs. E. Dew and family last Sunday.

GARFIELD

Mrs. E. T. Davis entertained the Skip-a-Week club at her home Tuesday with 12 members and 2 visitors present. An enjoyable afternoon was spent in sewing and getting pretty things ready for the club bazaar which has been set for Friday, December 17. An appetizing lunch was served late in the afternoon by the hostess.

Thursday afternoon the Entertainment and Home Economics committee of the Garfield grange met at the grange hall and planned some work for the coming month.

Prayer meeting every Wednesday evening at the Nora Memorial church. Everybody welcome.

Mrs. R. E. Davis and family came to their ranch for Armistice Day and over the week end.

Mrs. Minnie will be hostess to the call meeting of the Skip-a-Week club on Friday, this will be the meeting day instead of the Wednesday before Thanksgiving, the regular date of meeting. Do not forget the cookies and jelly for our annual Thanksgiving box.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Trapp were visitors in Salem over the week end.

Fred Davis of Portland was home for a couple of days last week.

Next Thursday, Thanksgiving day, will be community day at the Garfield grange. All neighbors, friends and members who wish to bring their dinners to the hall and enjoy it with their friends are welcome. An interesting program will be given in the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Dewey and children from Portland, were Sunday visitors at the home of Mrs. Dewey's father, J. F. Reeber.

Mr. and Mrs. Robertson were dinner guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Reeber.

Sunday will mark a change in the Sunday School time at the Nora Memorial church. The Sunday school will begin at 2:00 o'clock in the afternoon with preaching services following immediately after.

CURRINSVILLE

Mrs. Don Allen of Bull Run, accompanied her father, Mr. R. H. Currin over to the home place Sunday.

Miss Elsie Poole principal of the Currinsville grade school, is still confined to her room but is improving.

Mr. George Walter is up and around again after a few days illness.

Thomas A. Miller, a former resident of the Currinsville community, was calling on George Walter Tuesday.

Oliver Coleman is in the U. S. veterans hospital at Tacoma.

John Dowty has moved to the Alspaugh place at Eagle Creek.

Had a telephone message this Tuesday morning of the death of Mrs. Lou Hale's mother at Salem, last night.

Alfred Coleman was an overnight visitor Sunday at the Coleman home.

Curtis Wilcox, J. C. Kitching and Raymond DeShazer were shippers of farm produce Tuesday morning on the Currinsville store truck.

The severe wind and rain of Monday drove a lot of the timber workers out of the woods.

Mrs. C. A. Looney expects to butcher a fine lot of turkeys for the Portland market, Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Wade, and Merle, were Portland visitors Tuesday.

UPPER EAGLE CREEK

Mr. and Mrs. Paddison and family were Portland visitors last Wednesday.

Mr. and rs. I. C. Akers and daughter, Elanor, were the guests of Mrs. Akers' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stone of Cathlamet, for several days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Douglass were Portland visitors one day last week.

Dale Smith and some of his young friends were out this way Sunday afternoon holding services at the school house.

Claude Woodle and family were visiting at the home of Ray Woodle Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Douglass made a business trip to Portland on Monday.

A Mr. Moon and family are now living on the E. N. Naylor place. The son, Lloyd, started to school on Monday.

ELWOOD

Mrs. E. G. Hodgkiss who has been very ill the past week is improving slowly. Little Billie is staying with Mrs. L. N. Wilson during his mother's illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Harris of Colton were Sunday visitors at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Matt Park.

Everett Stahlnecker who attends the Estacada high school, and Alvin Munson and Joe Rydgweski who attend the Colton high school, spend the week ends with their parents here.

Elbert Harris of Colton was buying pigs in our neighborhood Wednesday.

A cattle buyer also made purchases here Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Vallen made a trip to Portland Monday.

Norman Hazel and LeRoy Cox were dinner guests at the home of Miss Nellie Vallen, Sunday,

LOCAL ITEMS

Mrs. Evelyn Sailing was visiting in Portland this week.

J. M. (Dinty) Moore was an Estacada visitor on Wednesday.

Mrs. John Irvin was visiting her daughter, Mrs. Hillyard, at Boring, over the weekend.

Bartholomew & Lawrence are unloading a car of fine baled hay here this week.

Grant Robley of Faraday was in Portland on Saturday for his music lesson.

Among those shopping in Portland on Saturday were Mrs. C. F. Howe and Mrs. Jack Hayden.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Schumway and baby daughter, were visiting with relatives in Portland on Sunday.

After several weeks absence from school Roy Helgerson returned. He was absent because of illness.

Mr. Jess Denny is again assisting with the work in the Denny Brothers barber shop.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Moore are rejoicing over the arrival of a little son at their home on Sunday.

Mrs. Perry Cahill has gone to La Grande to be with Mr. Cahill who is employed at that place.

Miss Claudia Plank of the local high school, spent the week end at her home in Portland.

Mrs. Midford and baby daughter have returned home from the hospital in Portland.

Mrs. Earl Gunter of Three Links, was reported ill last week, but is feeling better again.

The G. P. Rose family have moved to the Geo. Armstrong place on the hill, they having sold their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Barr and children, drove into Portland on Thursday to see the Armistice Day parade.

Mr. and Mrs. John Page went to Portland on Sunday morning to spend the day with relatives.

The W. H. Graybeal family are enjoying a Chandler sedan which they bought recently.

Mrs. Zelza Coop of Currinsville is reported ill at the home of her mother, Mrs. Dora Herring.

Messrs Geo. Lawrence and Sylvester Lawrence were in Portland on business, Monday of this week.

Mr. Chandler, formerly of Estacada, is out for a few days relieving Motorman Lamb on the day logging train.

The notice of the band dance in just week's issue should have been Thanksgiving evening, November 24, instead of the 25th.

Mr. and Mrs. Helms and Mr. Bell of Portland, were here Sunday in the interest of the Artisan lodge work in this vicinity.

Miss Thelma Wilcox who is attending O. A. C., was home over Armistice Day, visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Wilcox.

Mrs. H. B. Davis and Mrs. George Armstrong were Oregon City visitors on Monday and Tuesday of this week.

The Ladies Aid of the Methodist church held a pleasant meeting on Wednesday afternoon of this week at the home of Mrs. E. S. Womer.

Mrs. Lena Underwood is at home again and is doing marcelling for the ladies of the town. She is indeed being welcomed home again.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Jaques of Portland came out on Tuesday for the meeting of the Eastern Star, Mr. and Mrs. Allen of Sandy, also came.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. McCollom, mother and father of Mrs. Bob Cooke have recently established their residence in Estacada.

Mrs. Henry Heiple who is sewing in Portland for a time, spent the week end with her family at Currinsville.

Arnold Lovelace who is employed in Portland, came home on Tuesday for a short visit, returning Wednesday.

Dr. and Mrs. Ira Manville and little daughter and Dr. Manville's sister of Tillamook were recent visitors at the Carrie Denny home.

Messrs Lamb and Shrorer who have charge of operating 1461 for La Dee Logging Co., spent the week end in Portland with their families.

Glen Ely was visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Ely, several days last week. Glen is attending O. A. C., at Corvallis.

Mrs. Mary Adams has been spending several days in Portland the last week visiting at the home of her son, Phil Adams, who has been ill.

Mr. Graham who has charge of the Denny barber shop recently moved into the Perry Cahill home.

Mr. Graham brought his wife home recently, she having been ill in a hospital for several months. She is somewhat improved.

FIDDLERS CONTEST IS DECLARED A DRAW

The Old Time Fiddlers Contest at the Liberty theater Wednesday night between Bill Clark of Oregon City, and John Miller of Estacada was a very interesting affair.

The orchestra was composed of five pieces, two violins, played by the contestants, a saxophone, trap drum and piano were performed on by three other efficient artists.

The contest was decided a draw and it furnished fine entertainment for a packed house. The pictures at the Liberty these days are the best that have ever been shown in Estacada.

The play in connection with the contest was "The Girl I Love," featuring Charles Ray and Patsy Ruth Miller. The music rendered was in correct sympathy with the story of the play and surroundings, and added much to its interpretation.

E. H. S. vs. MILWAUKIE

The Estacada high school football team will meet the team of the Milwaukee high school on the home field on Friday afternoon of this week, in what promises to be a rather interesting game.

The Estacada boys have been doing good work this season and should have a good crowd on hand on Friday to boost them along to a decisive victory. Come out and give them your support.

John Githens of Eagle Creek was transacting business in Estacada on Wednesday.

Perry Anderson went to Portland Thursday to see the parade, and also to take in the football game at Multnomah field.

Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Rhodes and Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Leihammer attended a dance at Oregon City on Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Forman and family moved into the G. P. Rose home which they recently purchased. Mrs. Forman will be remembered as Pauline Zogg.

W. A. Heylman has resigned as editor of the News and will take up some other business. His successor will be announced in the near future.

Mrs. L. Mars, mother of Mrs. Hale and R. Currin of Currinsville, died in Salem, Oregon November 15, and was buried Wednesday in the L. O. O. F. cemetery in Estacada.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Morrow, nee Ruth Saling, of Portland, were recent guests at the home of their uncle, Mr. F. C. Bartholomew, and family.

There was a fairly well attended dance held at the Gem Theater on Thursday evening, Armistice Day. Another dance is announced for Thanksgiving evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Alva Smith of Stayton, were visiting at the home of their son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Smith, on Thursday and Friday.

The L. M. Yocum and the A. E. Yocum families are riding around these days in fine, new Chevrolet Landaus which they recently purchased.

The A. Marsh Co. suit or overcoat $23, formerly sold by Mr. Black, now by R. F. Ammon, 1137 Fremont St., Portland. Write when ready to order. Save this.—Adv.

The R. H. Carter children spent the Armistice vacation visiting relatives in Portland. Miss Edna returned home on Saturday and the other children on Sunday.

Among those attending the football game in Portland on Armistice Day were Raymond Lovelace and Jack Hayden. The final score of the game was U. S. C. 17, O. A. A. C. 7.

Several cases of scarletina are reported from the Currinsville district, the following families being quarantined: Wm. Kellendock, Geo. Kitching, Frank Halfrety and Robert Currin.

The school children had their pictures taken recently and orders are now being taken for them. These pictures in years to come will prove precious and interesting mementos of former happy days.

Mr. and Mrs. Matt Jagmin and Mrs. Jagmin's brother, of Elwood, enjoyed a visit to Portland last week. While there they spent half a day at the assembly plant of the Ford Motor company.

Mr. Chas Hicinbotham was taken to the Oregon City hospital on Tuesday for treatment. He was hurt in camp about a week ago and has not improved as he should so was removed to the hospital for examination and treatment.