ESTACADA, OREGON, THURSDAY, DECEMBER 2, 1926

NUMBER 9

UNION OF CLUBS MEETS SATURDAY

Milwaukie's session of the Greater Clackamas Union of Clubs in the Union high school Saturday evening, December 4, promises to be one of the most interesting yet held of this organization, according to the Banner-Courier. The dinner will be served at the usual hour of 6:30, with each person paying 50 cents.

Arrangements are being made to entertain 400 people, and covers will be laid in the spacious 70x80-foot dining room for that number. The ladies of St. John's Parish have the banquet in hand, and they are sparing no pains to make it one of the best that has ever been held in city. The dinner will start the proceedings of the clubs, which will commence promptly at 6:30 o'clock.

The Milwaukie Community band will render selections, and the Palacios mandolin and guitar orchestra of Portland also entertains. Mr. Palacios is a member of the Portland symphony orchestra and director in other orchestras in the Rose City.

Prof. James Matthews of Willamette University will be the principal speaker of the evening. He is a well-known educator and public speaker, and the Community club is indeed fortunate in engaging such a man.

Members of the Eastern Clackamas club will leave the bank corner at 5:00 p. m., Saturday. All who have room to spare in their cars and all who need transportation are requested by President Ames to be at the corner promptly at five o'clock.

CLUB STARTS WORK WITH MUCH VIGOR

The Eastern Clackamas Community club lacks nothing in enthusiasm.

A spirited meeting was that of last Friday evening. Not a jarring note was struck, which goes to show that a fight is not the only sign of buoyant energy.

A. G. Ames was elected president for the ensuing year; Mrs. W. J. Moore, vice president; Maude Sherman, secretary-treasurer, and H. C. Stephens and Bob Cooke, directors.

The program was given over to short talks by members, readings and band numbers. Suggestions made by members will form the basis for the club work for the coming year.

FORGET IT IS WINTER

The gardens about Estacada have mislaid the planter's calendar. Potato vines will not die and spuds with tender skins of new potatoes, are being dug. Home grown lettuce radishes and such are being brought to the table by those wise enough to have planted late gardens. The People's store had local strawberries on sale one day last week. The drugist has a bouquet of rich, red raspberries in the show window. Chas. Weaver picked a gallon of this fruit Saturday, when he came home from Clarke County, Wash., where is teaching. And someone has tomatoes ripening in a little plot just back of the News office. We are watching them ourselves.

ESTACADA PLAYS GRESHAM

Estacada Hi lost a hard fought football game to Gresham Hi, Thursday, to the tune of 6-0. The game was evenly contested with neither team having much advantage.

Gresham scored its touchdown on a pass over the goal line. Estacada had several chances to score but lacked the punch to put it over, handicapped as they were by a muddy field.

Sarver, Estacada quarterback, played a good game for the losers, making repeated gains through the Gresham line.

SPRINGWATER CHURCH

Thomas I. Kirkwood, Pastor Sunday School at 10 a. m., Mr. Ed Shearer, Superintendent.

The service of worship at 10 a. m. The subject will be in keeping with the day which is "Universal Bible Sunday."

Christian Endeavor meets at 7 p. m., at the church.

Services at George and Eagle Creek as usual.

The ladies of the Eagle Creek Church are giving a bazaar at the church, Friday evening, December 3, at 7:30.

INCLINE WASHED OUT

Fifty feet of the lower end of the incline railway operated by the La Dee Logging Company of Estacada, was swept out by a landslide early Monday morning, according to a report brought in by C. E. Tuggle, car inspector for the P. E. P. Co.

The incline is 5900 feet long and is used to bring logs from the logging operations to the Clackamas river, where they are loaded on cars and hauled to Portland for milling.

A large crew is being brought from Portland by special train today. It is estimated that three days will be required to repair the break.

PARENT-TEACHER MEETING

A very well attended meeting of the parent-teacher association was held in the high school auditorium on Tuesday afternoon of this week.

Miss Spring, the county nurse, was present and gave a very interesting talk on contagious diseases.

She also announced that plans were under way to give to those children, whose parents were willing, the serum for prevention of scarlet fever. This serum will be given by Dr. Wallace on December 10, providing there are 200 children ready to receive it.

The Dodge, Springwater, Currinsville and Estacada schools will be combined from which to draw the above given number, so in all probability this meeting will be held.

This is only one of a number of helpful things which the P. T. A. are sponsoring this winter and, no doubt, much good will be accomplished through their efforts.

The T. P. A. holds regular meetings on the fourth Tuesday of each month and invite your presence and help at these meetings.

WHAZIZIT?

Only one thing is known for sure about it. It eats wood. It runs on four wheels. Is capable of getting anywhere in the country. It has two engines, one a Chevrolet and one a Ford, and sharp teeth. It is being exhibited by C. P. Boyer. He would like wood to feed it.

ENTERTAIN AT 500

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Heiple entertained a number of guests at their home in Currinsville one evening last week at a delightful 500 party.

Those winning high honors for the evening were Mrs. Sam Dunlop and D. B. Eshleman, and low scores were received by Mrs. Wallace Smith and Sam Dunlop.

Those enjoying Mr. and Mrs. Heiple's hospitality were Messrs. and Mesdames Don Allen, Theo Ahlberg, Fred Bartholomew, Sam Dunlop, D. B. Eshleman, H. C. Gohring, W. W. Rhodes and Mrs. Wallace Smith.

A most delicious lunch was served at the close of the evening.

COUNTRY STORE PLEASURES

Merchandise of every description covered the stage of the Liberty theater Tuesday night, and the audience was leaning forward in their seats while Bob Marchbank, the popular showman, read off the lucky numbers.

It seemed to be the good fortune of the youngsters to cop most of the prizes that evening.

The names of the donors, the articles presented and the winners follow:

Henry Bohn, tire boot—Mrs. Sailing.

Smith Hardware, cooking utensils—Otto Kiggins.

J. K. Ely, dress goods—Ray Keefe.

Lovellace-Gorham, groceries—Boy with freckled face.

There will be another country store night on Wednesday, December 8.

Special music will also be a feature.

NEW BILLPOSTERS OPERATING HERE

Two new non-union billposters have started operations in Estacada. Every available space has been covered with their signs in the past week. The attraction they are advertising is Douglas McLean's great picture, "That's My Baby." The show will be here December 9-10 and proceeds will go to the Masonic building fund. It is likely that we will soon carry an ad by the new billposters, Rose & Bartholomew.

NICE POCKET PIECE

Those who were on the street Saturday evening near the depot had the pleasure of seeing a single chunk of metal valued at $25,000. No one was guarding it and yet it was perfectly safe because it weighed 9,000 pounds. It was the giant turbine wheel for the P. E. P. plant at Oak Grove, which had been sent out for turning up. The wheel is now being reinstalled in the local station.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

By Lillian Duncan

A contest was held at the beginning of this school term to see which class could get 100 per cent student body dues first. The class to get 100 per cent first to be presented with a pennant by the losing class. The senior, the winning class, held a class meeting Monday at which time the freshman class, who were the last to get the dues in, presented the seniors with a pennant.

The junior class held a class meeting last Monday to discuss the junior banquet which is to be held soon. Several committees were appointed and work will soon begin on the planning of this event to make it the best yet.

The girls inter-class basketball contests have been played. The junior girls defeated the senior girls 30-17, and the sophomores defeated the freshmen 62-4. The winners then played for the championship, the juniors winning after a hard fight by the close score of 26-25.

All boys who are turning out for basketball held a meeting Tuesday and plans were made for the coming basketball season. Practice will start Monday.

The boys inter-class basketball games will be played in our gymnasium immediately after school on Thursday and Friday of this week.

Football Boys Plucky

The football team is to be congratulated on their courage and stick-to-it-iveness in playing so many heavier and more experienced teams without being utterly discouraged. The standing for the whole football season are:

Estacada	0	Beaverton	30
Estacada	0	West Linn	52
Estacada	0	McMinnville	18
Estacada	6	Molalla	34
Estacada	62	Tualatin	0
Estacada	33	Parkrose	0
Estacada	13	Milwaukie	6
Estacada	0	Gresham	7
Estacada	114	Opponents	147

NEW CANDIES SHOWN

A beautiful new line of box candy is on display at Linn's. The well liked makes of Schraff's, Sweet's, and Bunte are being handled this year by Mr. Linn and if it is delicious candy in a beautiful box that will please her, your problem is settled.

OCTOGENARIAN PASSES

Mrs. Charity Rawlins, eighty-six, a pioneer of 1862, passed away here Tuesday after a long illness. She is survived by a son, Ben Rawlins. The funeral was held at the Mt. Zion chapel yesterday, Rev. A. DeMoy officiating.

GIVE HOME MADE GIFTS

Many people like to give home made gifts. Such may be found for sale at the bazaar given by the ladies of the Christian church in the I. O. O. F. hall, according to Jennie Krieger, secretary of the ladies aid. A business men's lunch will be served at noon on the day of the sale, Saturday, December 4th.

NORTHWEST PRUNES SHOULD BE UNIFORM

No official estimate of the northwest dried prune crop is yet available. Unofficial estimates range around 60 million pounds. The California crop is officially estimated at 294 million pounds. The coast crop therefore appears to total just a little more than early season estimates. European production is expected to be a little larger than early estimates. The marketable supplies however, may not be larger than last year owing to the small carry-over in the United States.

The movement does not seem to be fully satisfactory and there has been a tendency toward lower prices. Competition in European markets is keen between California, Yugoslavian, and Pacific northwest prunes. There is a well organized movement in Yugoslavia toward standardization of the prune crop. This is part of a movement to promote better merchandising of this commodity which is rated there as an important national asset. The Ministry of Agriculture and other governmental ministries are taking part in this work, and competition from Balkan prunes will undoubtedly increase in succeeding years. Australian dried fruit interests are pressing English trade.

California prune interest have decided to do somewhat less advertising this season in the United States markets, but instead there will be a strong "sales promotion" campaign. This work is expected to reach 450 cities and will require the services of 200 salesmen for eight weeks. Advertising to supplement this work will be used, and new packages have been developed to stimulate trade.

With Yugoslavian prune interests pressing for the European trade and California interests out after the domestic business, Pacific northwest prune interests are feeling the pressure and considerable discussion is going on about what to do. It has been pointed out that the whole Italian dried prune crop of the Pacific northwest provides the equivalent of a few ounces per capita for the people of the United States. This point has been raised and seems pertinent: Why not standardize the output so that it will meet the approval of the American trade consumers; then cooperate in merchandising more of the Italian prunes, instead of exporting the bulk of the crop in the face of high tariffs, unstable economic conditions, and increasing competition.

DOG OWNERS MUST PAY LICENSE FOR YEAR 1926

Dog owners who have not paid their county licenses and who believe that they are to escape, are destined to be disappointed.

Following the law the county clerk is making out a list of those who refused to pay the license, and the list will soon be in the hands of the sheriff and district attorney, and the latter stands pledged to bring suit against every person named.

The law is specific that where suit has to be brought to collect the penalty is $10 and costs, which are heavy, and the license fee which is now $2 for males and $4 for females. This is for 1926 licenses, with the 1927 license almost due. The same plan will be pursued in 1927, except that the delinquents will be reported much earlier.

Under this new law, 3620 licenses have been issued, as compared with 112 in 1925. The money goes to owners of sheep that are attacked or killed by dogs, the county court allowing twice the assessed value of the animals killed. This does not nearly compensate the sheep owner as the entire number of sheep are injured through the scare.—Banner-Courier.

SURPRISED BY BROTHER

C. F. Howe enjoyed a pleasant surprise when his brother J. A. Rolison of Pasco, Washington came in Wednesday evening for a few days visit. Mr. Howe had not seen his brother for over 30 years and it was a great meeting for them, indeed. Mr. Rolison is a railroad man and will in a few years be pensioned, having been with his company the required time.

Compromise Condemned

Compromise is but the sacrifice of one right or good in the hope of obtaining another—too often ending in the loss of both.—Edwards.
