

Your Kidneys Must Function Properly For You to be Well

LATE hours, rich foods and stimulating drinks are all hard on our kidneys. If their action becomes sluggish, they do not thoroughly cleanse the blood of poisonous wastes.

Such impurities may make one dull, tired and achy, with often a toxic headache, drowsy headaches and dizziness. A common symptom of imperfect kidney function is scanty or burning excretions.

Thousands have learned the virtue of Doan's Pills, stimulant diuretic in these conditions. 50,000 users have publicly recommended Doan's. Ask your neighbor!

50,000 Users Endorse Doan's:

Lambert W. Cox, Westover, Md., says: "Doan's Pills proved their value to me. My kidneys acted sluggishly and the secretions were scant and scalding. There was such a soreness across my back that I couldn't bend or stoop. I was told to use Doan's Pills and shall always be glad that I did. They put me in fine shape."

Marigolds

Marigolds are old-fashioned flowers, but none the less satisfactory in small gardens. They are exceedingly easy to grow and begin to flower in a few weeks from the time the seed is planted. Moreover, they will thrive in rather poor soil, having a tendency to make heavy foliage but to throw few flowers when the ground is rich. The odor of the marigold is not very pleasing. It is true, and they are not to be recommended for house decorations. As bedding plants, however, they are extremely useful.

Many people imagine that worms or tapeworm cannot be expelled entirely. A single dose of "Dead Shot" proves that they can. 272 Pearl St., N. Y. Adv.

SCARF AND TIE GIVE GAY TOUCH; PRINT FROCKS SMARTLY TRIMMED

GAY spring colors are at their gayest when it comes to the scarf, or kerchief square or necktie, either of which is playing a strenuous part in enlivening the smart Twentieth century costume.

Wearing a scarf has grown into a habit with us modernists. If not a scarf, then a modish kerchief square, or at least a boyish tie like the one in the picture.

To choose a scarf has become a matter of unalloyed joy, for there's no qualms of conscience as to whether it print, if you please. More fashionable than ever are gay print fabrics. It is the tiny patterned prints which are holding the center of the stage at present. Perhaps the debut of these diminutive prints was not greeted with the degree of enthusiasm they merited, but the more we see 'em the more we like 'em.

One of the pleasing things about these wee merry-go-round prints is their adaptability to every winsome and cunning styling. Perhaps that is why the couture of Paris have taken is too gay, too bizarre. No matter if a whole palette of colors were to be used in its hand-painting or hand-blocking, there's no possibility of its offending good taste.

If you aspire to be up to the last-minute mode, you will wear with your new spring tulleur a surah silk square in gorgeous plaid patterning tucked under the collar of your coat with the triangular folds arranged at the front, or knotted in cowboy fashion at some effective spot on the shoulder.

What a bevy of artists and craftsmen must be working overtime this spring, to supply this insistent call of the mode for more and yet more hand-painted and hand-blocked scarves. Designs like those in the picture are the fashionable kind and they are made of crepe, of georgette, of surah or of chiffon. It is quite something worth while, this being able to secure from any neckwear department genuinely such a fancy to them—they rather challenge the imagination as to what can be accomplished in their fashioning.

The attractive Paris-made gown to the right in the picture, does it not capture one's fancy at a glance? Regardless of its air of unsophisticated youthfulness, it reveals the master-touch in every detail.

Special attention is called to the wide bandings of solid colored silk which trim each of the frocks in the picture. Using plain with print is a widely exploited feature of the mode. This fashion trend toward using solid with figured is variously interpreted, sometimes by complementing a simple one-piece silk print dress with a short coat of plain silk. This is the ensemble type especially favored by the Parisienne for immediate wear.

An elaborate conception of the plain-with-print idea is that of a re-hand-painted scarfs at a price which ordinarily one would expect to pay for merely a machine-print article.

The favor for magpie effects has resulted in a run on black-and-white scarfs. Now that navy has come into such prominence, navy-and-white hand-blocked types are wresting the honors somewhat from black-and-white.

The vogue for the two-piece suit which calls for the tailored blouse, brings the gay print tie, as pictured, into the list of popular neckwear for spring.

Seems as if everybody is going to appear in print this season—silk cently designed silk frock of vivid chintz pattern on a black background, the trimming of solid black borderings being handsomely worked with little red beads.

As the season advances it is more and more apparent that blue, especially navy, has become the first choice of smart women for spring. Consequently many silk print frocks are banded with navy, also the accessories which complete the costume are navy. The newest silk or chiffon prints present navy-with-white in keen competition to black-and-white.

PETER AT THE TRANSFIGURATION

LESSON TEXT—II Peter 1:16-18; Mark 9:2-9.
GOLDEN TEXT—And a voice came out of the clouds saying, This is my beloved Son, hear ye Him.
PRIMARY TOPIC—Jesus Shows Peter His Glory.
JUNIOR TOPIC—The Beauty and Glory of Christ.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—What Peter Saw and Heard in the Mount.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Majesty and Glory of Christ.

I. The Meaning of the Transfiguration (II Peter 1:16-18).
These verses are an inspired interpretation by one who was present and knew all that transpired. The hope of the disciples was crushed. When Christ announced His death which was to take place on the cross, they were unable to see how victory could issue from death. Jesus took with Him, Peter, James and John, and they went into the mountain by themselves. Before going into the mountain He declared that there were some standing in His presence who would not taste of death till they had seen the kingdom of God come with power.

Two men from the upper world were sent to converse with Jesus about His approaching death at Jerusalem—the very thing about which the disciples refused to talk. Then, too, God's own voice was heard in words of approval of Christ's course, directing them to hear the Master.

II. Jesus Christ Glorified on the Mountain (v. 2, 3).
He took the disciples "by themselves" and was "transfigured before them." This shows that the purpose of the transfiguration terminated upon the disciples and not on Christ. Christ's rebuke of Peter for his unwillingness to hear concerning His death apparently for a time estranged the disciples from Him. His appearance on the mountain typifies His visible appearance on the Mount of Olives (Zech. 14:4, 9).

III. Peter, James and John Represent Israel in the Flesh in Connection With the Kingdom (v. 2).
Christ is peculiarly the King of Israel. According to Ezekiel 37:21-27, the Israelites are to be the central people in the kingdom. This people shall be gathered from among the nations and united as one in that kingdom, in their own country.

IV. Moses and Elijah Appeared in Glory With Jesus (vv. 4-13).
These men in the glorified state are typical of the saints in glory. Moses who was once denied an entrance into Palestine appears now in glory representing the redeemed of the Lord who shall pass through death into the kingdom. Elijah represents the redeemed who shall pass into the kingdom through translation. Some shall be living upon the earth when the Lord shall come and they without dying shall be changed and thus pass into the kingdom (I Cor. 15:50-53; I Thess. 4:14-18).

1. Peter's proposal (vv. 5, 6).
So definitely was the method of the kingdom unfolded before Peter that he proposed to erect tabernacles for Christ, Moses and Elijah. It is true that the unveiling of the majestic person of Christ and the panoramic display of the kingdom somewhat disconcerted Peter, yet he grasped its central meaning and proposed to celebrate the advent of the kingdom which had been prefigured in a tangible way.

2. The divine voice out of the cloud (vv. 7, 8).
God declared Jesus to be His Beloved Son in whom He was well pleased. If one would know what is pleasing to God, let him study Jesus Christ who perfectly did His Father's will.

3. Jesus' charge (vv. 9-13).
He charged them that they should tell no man concerning the things which they had seen until He had risen from the dead.

V. A Demonstration of the Purpose of the Establishment of the Kingdom (vv. 14-29).
When they descended from the mountain of transfiguration they witnessed a great multitude in a state of perplexity. The immediate cause of this state was the grievous condition of a young man possessed with a demon (v. 18). This young man's state is representative of the nations who are oppressed by the devil. Just as this young man was grievously oppressed, causing him to cast himself into the fire and into the waters, so the nations today in their great perplexity are doing the things which will result in their own destruction.

Prowess With Rifle Helped Davy Crockett
David Crockett, famous pioneer and rifle shot, who at one time loomed in Tennessee as a rude rival of Andrew Jackson, got into politics as the successful outcome of a squirrel hunt in Heckman county. In his autobiography he says: "About this time there was a great squirrel hunt on Duck river, which was among my people. They were to hunt two days, then to meet and count the scalps and have a big barbecue and what might be called a tip-top country frolic. The dinner and a general treat was all to be paid for by the party having the least scalps. I joined one side, taking the place of one of the hunters, and got a gun ready for the hunt. I killed a great many squirrels, and when we counted the scalps my party was victorious." He was called upon to make a speech, and though by his own admission he "knew nothing of government whatever" and had never seen the inside of a law book, he was elected later to the legislature and later won a seat in the Twenty-third congress.

Charcoal Formation
Charcoal is the carbonaceous substance left from wood after its other elements have been driven off by heating, without allowing it to undergo combustion. This is done by burning the wood with only a limited supply of air, so that the other elements are consumed while the carbon remains almost undiminished.

No Choice
Whatever the future has in store for us we have to take; we can't go to some other store.

Mend Before Laundering
Mend clothes, especially starched ones, before sending them to the laundry, so that when they are returned, clean and nicely folded, there will be no need to disarrange and crumple them for mending purposes.

Fabric Gloves
Every woman should own three or four pairs of fabric gloves in varying shades, for use with different costumes. They wash easily, and are much warmer than kid.

Madonna Blue
Madonna blue is one of the new shades that is finding a place among the colors chosen for spring. It is lending itself admirably to the new tonal effects in which several shades of one color are combined in frocks and hats.

Collar Effects
A collar appearing on many of the new sports models is round, resembling very much those on the suits worn by English sailors.
