Arrangements Made For Benefit Show at Liberty Theatre

More lumber and nails will be nity house at Estacada by the show ing May 6 and 7 of the picture "Up The Rev. Mrs. E. W. Ward, Mr in Mabel's Room" at the Liberty

It is the plan of the backers of the community house project to have some entertainment each month with the proceeds going toward the erection of a building to take care of the civic activities. Two such affairs have already been held and a tidy sum is now on hand.

The coming event, "Up in Mabel's Room", with the vivacious Marie Prevost in the leading role, is a comedy full of amusing situations. A chorus will be heard in Plantation Melodies and solos, duets, and trios, adding to the enjoyment of the eve ning. Two clever little elocutionists, Betty and Ruth Barr, will also be present to give readings.

Tickets will be on sale tomorrow evening at the community club meeting at the Estacada Hotel.
