Mat Anderson went to Portland on business and will stop in Boring to visit relatives.

DOVER DOINGS

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kitzmiller and four children of Oregon City had the misfortune of being in an auto wreck in Portland recently. Their car was struck and completely demolished by a heavier machine traveling at a high rate of speed. No one was injured beyond bruises except Mr. Kitzmiller, who was severely bitten on the leg, as he emerged from the car, by a bulldog belonging to a family living near. As soon as Mrs. Kitzmiller's mother, Mrs. Joseph DeShazer, learned of the accident, she and her daughter Violet, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Ralph DeShazer, drove to Oregon City. Mrs. Chas. Updegrave is enjoying a visit from her sister, Miss Alta DeShazer, of Firwood. Miss DeShazer is just home from O. A. C. Betty Baty has sold his interest in the shingle mill and has moved away. Just at present he and Mrs. Baty are visiting relatives at Silverton. They have not decided where they will locate this fall. Mr. and Mrs. George Kitzmiller and son were here Sunday looking after business matters. At the annual school meeting held Monday evening Chris Pach was re-elected director and Ralph DeShazer was again elected clerk.

THE ESTACADA

To the good people of Estacada:

About 4 years ago, we took over the management of THE ESTACADA and during that time we have endeavored to put in 24 hours each day trying to improve the service and to give the public a better hotel. We trust we have gained your confidence. The door has never been closed nor the light put out. Always warm in cold weather and cool on the hot days!

Doesn't service like this generally appeal?
