ESTACADA, OREGON, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 20, 1927

Number 3

COMMUNITY CLUB MEETS AT MASONIC HALL

The Eastern Clackamas Community club will meet on Friday evening, October 23, in the Masonic Hall and it is expected that this meeting will be attended by everyone interested in the welfare of a real community club. The social part of the organization where people not only from Estacada but the surrounding neighborhoods may meet and spend an evening together in a social manner, is well worth the effort.

The program committee has been busy getting something that is of real worth in the way of entertainment. A. W. Armstrong will give a talk on his work as forest ranger, which is sure to be entertaining. Ralph Baker, of the high school faculty, is to render some violin selections. Mr. Baker is one of the best violinists in this section and this part of the program is well worth hearing. Roy Beck, who the people from this vicinity have heard in readings, will give a few selections that will be highly entertaining. And then a social time is to follow. Keep this in mind and be sure to attend the meeting.

Mr. Armstrong has taken for his subject for his part of the evenings entertainment "Protective Organization."

Lecture and Picture

The Prohibition Film, "Lest We Forget," which has been drawing large crowds in all parts of Oregon, will be shown at the Estacada high school on the evening of October 25, at 7:45. This is said to be a true story of the effects of the liquor traffic on three generations. Rev. R. E. Close, superintendent of the Anti Saloon League, will give an address. No admission, but a free offering will be taken. Children under 14 years must be accompanied by parents or guardian.

Camp Fire Girls

Several of the girls from the grade school have organized a Camp Fire group which is to be called "Lewa". They are to meet every Wednesday and are under the guardianship of Miss Anderson, teacher of the eighth grade. The officers are: President, Glen Cary; vice-president, Lois Bates; recorder, Neva Lemon; news reporter, Levena Grabeel. Other members include Catherine Madin, Majory Madin, Lois Smith, Carol Yocum, Louise Armstrong.

New Ford Work Starts

Assembly of their new model will begin in a "few more days" the Ford Motor Company announced today. (Tuesday).

Major parts of the new car have been under production for several weeks, the announcement said, and the first assembly of new bodies was started "some days ago."

The announcement also revealed that the assembly line has been removed from the Highland Park plant to the River Rouge plant.

William Dale, school clerk for this district, will commence next week to take the school census.

W. C. T. U. Hold Convention

Dear White Ribboners:

The best W. C. T. U. Convention in the history of the work in Clackamas County just closed in Oregon City. The reports read by the President showed a marked gain in all unions. The County treasurer is in good condition for advance work for the coming year and over $1,000.00 in our Clackamas County C. F. H. Cottage fund. Demonstrations of department work gave us a vision of the great possibilities along many lines. The Loyol Temperance Legion, under the direction of Mrs. Emery French, was especially fine, as were many other numbers by the young people. As a result of the banquet, $90.00 was realized for our C. F. H. Cottage fund. We are proud of the fact that three Clackamas County young people won state prizes in the essay and poster contest. We want to thank all who participated in any way toward making a success of the convention. Attendance was fine all through to the close. Officers chosen were president Mrs. E. B. Andrews; vice-president, Mrs. Sam Lane, Secretary; Mrs. Henry Babler, Treasurer, Mrs. Fanny Smith.

Yours for service,
Mrs. E. B. Andrews.

E. S. WOMER LOST NEAR SQUAW MOUNTAIN

There was considerable excitement and the people were greatly concerned last Sunday morning when word came that one of our oldest and most highly respected residents, S. E. Womer was lost in the mountains. Several experienced mountaineers immediately departed for the locality to join in the search for him.

In company with Wallace Smith and Coon Boyer, Mr. Womer left Estacada Thursday on a deer hunting trip in the vicinity of Squaw mountain. The party reached Smith's ranch that night and Friday morning separated each striking out for the hunt. When Mr. Womer failed to return Friday night, Smith and Boyer started out Saturday morning to find him. Saturday's hunt was fruitless and much fear was expressed that he had met with an accident. Word was received in Estacada Sunday morning and Smith and Boyer continued their search. Towards evening they discovered his foot prints on the rim of Roaring river. They fired guns but this procedure was of no avail. Finally about 6 o'clock they found him but he seemed to be dazed and bewildered. He had his gun with him and matches, but appeared not use them. He was taken to Smith's cabin and the next morning brought home. At the present time, Mr. Womer appears to be none the worse for his perilous adventure.

Bridge Party

The home of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Cooke was the scene of a jolly company of friends last Saturday evening, when Mr. and Mrs. Cooke entertained with a bridge party. There were three tables and Mrs. Herman Gohring and Dave Eshleman carried off the high score honors. The guests included Mrs. H. C. Gohring, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Moreland, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Ahlberg, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Eshleman, A. E. Sparks and Mrs. W. J. Moore.

Progressive Luncheon

A large number of ladies took advantage of the invitation to attend a Progressive Luncheon Tuesday noon given by the M. E. Ladies' Aid. The first course was served at the home of Mrs. H. C. Stephens and consisted of a delicious fruit cocktail. The second and main course consisted of spaghetti, hot rolls pickles and salad and was served at the R. R. Cooke home. Following this substantial part of the luncheon, the guests proceeded to the home of the president, Mrs. G. E. Lawrence and partook of delectable cakes and coffee. Hallowe'en decorations, cut flowers Japanese lanterns and prettily laid tables produced a most pleasing effect to the concluding course.

An interesting program finished the pleasant affair, which included victrola music, readings by Mrs. W. F. Cary and little Mae Rose Bartholomew, duets by Messdames W. E. Linn and G. E. Lawrence and a talk by Rev. Cook.

Band Concert

The band boys are very much pleased with the success of the concert on Tuesday evening. There was a good attendance and the music seemed to please. There were many compliments given both the music by the band and also the splendid numbers the high school orchestra furnished. It is said that the high school orchestra is the best this year of any year since it was organized.

The program included: First Three selections by the high school orchestra Ethel Hayman, piano solo; Carrol Yocum, cello solo accompanied by her mother; Mr. Baker, violin solo, accompanied by Miss Anderson; Mr. Beck, readings; followed by the band.
